Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Feb. 27. [To the Editor of The Times:] Best way to make one of these "red" meetings mad is to offer 'em work. Nancy Astor pulled the best one on them. She offered to pay the fare of any that would go back to Russia. Only three took her up, and they starved to death there waiting for their "comrades" to divide up with 'em. Should have a place where they can get up and denounce anything from Washington's wig to Hoover's fish bait. They are likable cusses and smart, and perfectly happy when they are talking. The only way they have of showing their education is by sound, and not by accomplishment.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

State Authority Advocated

Du Pont Assails Dry Law; Midwest Pastor Also Joins in Attack

House Committee Leader Allows Still Another Day for Hearing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—A return to the States of authority to regulate manufacture and sale of liquor was advocated repeatedly today by witnesses before the House Judiciary Committee.

A clergyman from the Midwest and an industrialist from the East were among those who argued that prohibition is wreaking evil and should be repealed. Plans had called for those opposed to the Eighteenth Amendment to complete their case today, but so many remained who wanted to be heard that Chairman Graham granted them another day before the dry side will be presented. Tuesday was set as that day.

Rev. John Malick, pastor of the First Unitarian-Congregationalist Church at Cincinnati, declared the only way to enforce prohibition is to turn responsibility over "to a fanatical group who believe in it," adding: "Then you would have a

Chicago to Have Pay Day at Last

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Saturday will be pay day in Chicago.

This was assured tonight when Silas Strawn, chairman of the Citizens' Rescue Committee, said the $50,000,000 mark has been reached in the "rescue pool," and announced his committee will meet tomorrow and authorize City Comptroller Schmidt to issue pay checks at once.

TAFT DEATH IMMINENT

Capital Sadly Awaits End

Wife and Daughter Near as Physicians Hold Out No Hope for Recovery

Hoover Calls Off Reception for Members of House; Prayer Broadcast

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Former Chief Justice Taft was sleeping when his physicians visited him late tonight. They said there was no change in the condition of their patient.

Dr. Francis R. Hagner expressed the belief that Mr. Taft would live through the night.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Death drew closer to William Howard Taft tonight while this capital, wherein his accomplishments as President and Chief Justice have won him the world's respect, sadly awaited the inevitable.

Time and again the physicians who have attended him since his collapse had been by his bedside. Relapses have been followed by partial rallies, but Dr. Francis R. Hagner said "there is no hope for his recovery; any improvement will only be temporary."

At the best the former President has been given but a short time to live. His breathing is constantly more difficult, his blood circulation is at low ebb, his heart may give way at any time and he can take very little nourishment.

Mrs. Taft and their daughter, Mrs. Helen Taft Manning, are near the afflicted man. Robert A. and Charles P. Taft in Cincinnati have been told of their father's critical condition.

RECEPTION CANCELED

Grief spread through Washington with word that the country's twenty-seventh President and tenth Chief Justice is about to die. The President and Mrs. Hoover called off their reception to members of the House of Representatives scheduled for tonight. Other social functions were abandoned. The doctors' bulletin despairing that Mr. Taft can survive was read to the House.

Mr. Taft, 72 years of age, suffered his serious breakdown late in January and resigned from the Chief Justiceship the 3rd inst. That same day he was brought back to Washington from Asheville, N.C. He was pronounced "a very sick man" then. For a week or so an improvement was reported every day.

Then the physicians for some time said he was "unchanged." Finally, relapses began to recur and those close to him have feared again and again that the end was imminent. He has been holding on to life by a slender thread, however, and there was no saying tonight just how long he will be able to endure the strain.

Bishop James E. Freeman of the Washington Cathedral this afternoon broadcast a "national prayer and intercessional" for the recovery of Mr. Taft.

The Episcopal service was used during the half-hour broadcast over a national hook-up.

Mr. Taft's relatives had expressed their appreciation and were listening-in, while the prayers were given and a boys' choir sang hymns.

As twilight was settling over Washington, Mrs. Hoover called at the Wyoming-avenue residence for a brief visit. She was followed by Chief Justice and Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, who remained about twenty minutes. All are thought to have expressed their solicitude to Mrs. Taft.

SON OF TAFT LEAVES FOR FATHER'S BEDSIDE

CINCINNATI, Feb. 27. (AP)—Robert A. Taft, son of the former President and Chief Justice, left here tonight for the bedside of his father, William Howard Taft, critically ill at Washington.

Charles P. Taft, the former President's other son, probably will leave tomorrow if his father's condition warrants, he said tonight. Robert Taft had two long-distance telephone conversations with Washington today. He will arrive there in the morning.

MILITARY ACADEMY CANDIDATES NAMED

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Representative Crail of Los Angeles today named one principal and three alternates for the West Point Military Academy, the appointment to be made on the results of a competitive examination to be held March 4. The principal named is Adna R. Chaffee III, son of Maj. Chaffee and grandson of Gen. Chaffee. Young Chaffee is 19 years of age, and lives at 601 South Rampart Boulevard, Los Angeles. The alternates are: First—Robert G. MacDonald, 19, 1916 Tamarind Drive, Hollywood; second, Hudson Upham, 19, 849 Tremaine, Los Angeles, and third, John A. Ford, 21, 802 North Vermont avenue, Los Angeles.

MOB RIOTS IN STREETS OF MADRID

Demonstration Perils King But Police Halt March on Palace by Using Clubs

MADRID, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—About 4000 rioters, with red flags waving, charged through the streets of Madrid tonight in a monster Republican demonstration that only savage efforts of the police kept from reaching the royal palace.

After a struggle of an hour and a half, during which scores were arrested and many heads were broken, the rioting Republicans halted in their march to tell King Alfonso all about it at the Puerta Del Sol, the heart of Madrid, less than a quarter of a mile from the palace.

It was the first authorized and uncensored speech by a politician heard in Spain since the fall of 1923 that set the Republican tinderbox flaming tonight. The speaker was Sanchez Guerra, former Premier, respected chief of the old Conservative party, and a courageous and incorrigible conspirator against the regime of former Dictator Primo De Rivera. His appearance at the Carzuela Theater before a crowd of 3000 also was the first political mass meeting allowed by Gen. Damaso Berenguer, new dictator, as a part of the policy of returning by degrees to normalcy.

Senor Guerra, long servitor of the monarchy, did not declare himself a Republican, and yet his declarations sent the Republicans rioting through the streets. Neither did he come out flat-footed against the continuance of Bourbon rule in Spain.

What he did say was that the monarchy had lost ground because of the dictatorship, which had disgusted almost everybody in Spain who was young, intelligent and Republican, including himself.

Shell Ready to Cut Venezuela Oil Production

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Richard Airey, president of the Asiatic Petroleum Company, American subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Shell group, said today he has been advised from abroad that Royal Dutch Shell is prepared to reduce production in Venezuela for 1930 compared with 1929, proportionate with whatever average reduction may be made in the United States.

This statement was made in response to the resolution adopted by Oklahoma oil operators last December, when they voted to continue proration in that area, but stated that efforts to control domestic production might break down unless producers in Venezuela and other foreign fields took similar steps, pointing out that the problem is in its broader aspects international.

March Sugar at Lowest Price in Sixteen Years

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Raw sugar for future delivery, particularly that for delivery next month, fell to new low prices on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange today. Overproduction of Cuban sugars and reports of continued dissension in the ranks of the Sugar Export Corporation in that country were influencing factors in the general decline in prices.

When raw sugar for delivery next month fell to 1.54 cents a pound, off 6-100 of 1 cent, it reached the lowest price it has sold for since the establishment of the exchange here in 1914. Sugar for delivery in later months sold slightly higher, but all were at low levels for the season.

Baby in Arms of Mother Wed to Indian Boy

LONDON, Feb. 27. (AP)—The Daily Mail in a dispatch from Calcutta today said that a girl 3 years of age and a boy of 7 had been married at Chinsura, near by, to escape impending operation of the Antichild Marriage Act. The mother carried her baby girl to the ceremony, the dispatch said. The rush to evade the act continues unabated, most of the couples being aged between 9 and 12 years.

Lawrence Has Serious Turn

NICE, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The condition of D. H. Lawrence, the novelist, who is lying critically ill of tuberculosis in the Hotel Astra at Venice, near here, took a turn for the worse today. The author of "Lady Chatterly's Lover" recently attempted to make a trip to Marseilles, where he was to board a ship for the United States. He had been advised by his physicians to take a long rest in Arizona. He collapsed from weakness an hour after he left his bed, however.

Mold Worker Killed by Bomb

MARION (Ind.) Feb. 27. (AP)—A bombing apparently directed at member of the local mold makers' union last night cost the life of John Ashcraft, 35-year-old employee of the Koeppen Mold Works, and raised the death toll here from recent bombings to five.

Police said investigation is being made on the theory the bombing was the result of labor troubles.

PALO ALTO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) Suffering a sinking spell early, today, Father Jerome S. Ricard, S.J., Santa Clara University's "Padre of the Rains," was reported seriously ill.

The Padre has been confined to O'Connor's Sanatorium for the last two weeks. He is said to be growing weaker, although not in immediate danger.

NEW YORK RED RALLY DISRUPTED

Policemen Rush Crowd Forming for City Hall Demonstration

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Several hundred Communists who attempted to stage a demonstration for the unemployed in front of the City Hall today were rushed by a large detail of police who drove them out of the park.

The Communists, carrying banners, started marching along Park Row at noon. Police had been directed to keep them out of the park.

As the procession began, police spied one Communist in the park. While some of them dragged him out, the others rushed en masse at the Communists and dispersed them.

The demonstration had been advertised by circulars calling on the unemployed to assemble at the City Hall and demand that the city government, "which can raise the salaries of Mayor Walker and others by tens of thousands of dollars," immediately find work for them, and that free rent, food and clothing be furnished for the unemployed and their children.

Fox Injunction Fight Postponed to Next Monday

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Argument on an order to show cause why an injunction should not be issued to prevent Harry L. Stuart and John E. Otterson from using proxies for Fox Film and Fox Theaters Company stocks under a voting-trust agreement was postponed today until Monday. Meanwhile attorneys sought to settle the issue.

Stuart of Halsey, Stuart & Co. and Otterson of the Electrical Research Products Company were made voting trustees under an agreement last December. Their companies are creditors of the Fox companies for $27,000,000. The injunction is sought to prevent them from utilizing the proxies to vote against a refinancing plan favored by William Fox.

HIGH COURT DENIES PLEA OF KEYES FOR RETRIAL

Supreme Tribunal Rules Bribery Guilt Proved and Conspiracy Flaws Held Immaterial

BY FLOYD J. HEALEY
"Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Asa Keyes, former District Attorney of Los Angeles county, was denied a hearing by the State Supreme Court today in his last effort to escape San Quentin prison for accepting bribes to "lay down" on the prosecution of those held responsible for the Julian Petroleum crash. The same ruling applies to Ed H. Rosenberg, convicted at the same trial.

Keyes, represented by Attorneys Paul Schenck and Milton Cohen, asked the Supreme Court to hear his plea after the Second District Court of Appeal sustained the Superior Court ruling which held him guilty of violating, for his own personal benefit, the rights of the public he swore to protect when elected District Attorney.

PROOF ATTACKED

His petition declared the Appellate Court ruled the indictment on which he was convicted sufficient despite numerous authorities and other Appellate Court decisions holding that, in principle, conspiracy cannot grow out of facts similar to those in his case and that the Appellate Court decision enunciates new principles of law not heretofore established by any decision of the Appellate courts of California.

He contended he had not been proved guilty of conspiracy to commit bribery.

In brief the Supreme Court agreed with Keyes's contention that a criminal conspiracy could not properly be charged in his case, but the decision insists there was ample evidence in the indictment to show Keyes entered into an "unlawful and felonious agreement" to accept a bribe "from the other defendants, which is all that is required to charge the offense of bribery."

OFFENSES IDENTICAL

Hence, although Keyes was not shown to have conspired, he was shown to have been bribed. Under the California code, the court points out, the offenses are one and the same, so Keyes was not deprived of any of his constitutional or legal rights when the Appellate Court refused to overthrow the lower court decision.

Seven particulars which were outlined in Keyes's request for a Supreme Court hearing were declared unworthy of a reversal.

The ex-District Attorney is under sentence of one to fourteen years in prison.

COURT'S FINDINGS

His seventy-four-page petition was disposed of by the high tribunal in less than one page. The complete finding follows:

In denying the petition for a hearing in this court after decision by the District Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, in the above entitled cause, we deem it proper to say that we withhold our approval of so much of the opinion rendered as holds that in California, contrary to rulings elsewhere, an unlawful agreement between two parties, the one to give and the other to receive a bribe, may constitute a criminal conspiracy.

"It is true that a set of defendants may conspire to give or a set of defendants may conspire to receive or accept a bribe, but bribery requires for its consummation the unlawful concert of one or more persons acting with one or more persons having a different motive or purpose.

"That being true, there is in such a case no room for the operation of a conspiracy.

FACT IMMATERIAL

"In the indictment before us, Rosenberg and his codefendants, other than Keyes, are properly charged with a conspiracy to offer and give a bribe to said defendant, but as to defendant Keyes, himself, a criminal conspiracy cannot be properly charged. However, this fact is immaterial in view of the existence in said indictment of ample allegations showing an unlawful and felonious agreement on his part to accept a bribe from the other defendants, which is all that is re-

Ban Proposed on Liquor Export

Government Measure Will Prohibit Clearance to United States

Measure Assured Passage; Annual Revenue Loss to be Large

OTTAWA, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The government (Liberal) party, in caucus today, decided to introduce legislation prohibiting the export of liquor to the United States. It is estimated that the preponderance of the government majority makes the passage of the bill practically assured.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, it is understood, made a vigorous speech denouncing the rum-running traffic, and even the Quebec members, who have hitherto been lukewarm on all proposals to prohibit clearances on liquor cargoes, voted for the measure.

When Parliament is asked to pass the necessary legislation, the Liberals will support it almost en bloc. The Liberal Progressives also will vote solidly and the farmer group on the opposition side will indorse the proposals. The opposition is expected to divide on the question, but the combined vote in favor of the refusal of the clearances will give the bill one of the biggest majorities expected this session.

It will cost Canada a large sum in excise taxes to prohibit this traffic. The exports of whisky from Canada to the United States in the calendar year ending December, 1929, were $17,565,165, with $2,786,591 worth of ale and beer. Those were the recorded exports and do not include the liquor smuggled over without export record. At present the government has no power to refuse clearances so long as the duty is paid.

The refusal of clearances is interpreted as a friendly gesture by Canada to the United States. Before the end of the present session Canada will be entirely clear of the whole business, and the problem will then be entirely one for the United States to deal with. In addition Canada has a standing offer to the United States to co-operate in every possible way to curb illicit traffic.

Another Flies to Cancer Clinic

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Mrs. Hattie Burton of Portland, Or., the second woman to fly here for cancer treatment with the new Humber-Coffey extract was taken to St. Mary's Hospital today where she will be cared for pending the arrival from Oregon of a physician's report and other diagnostic matter on her case.

Mrs. Burton arrived yesterday in an airplane piloted by Noel Evans. Long a victim of cancer, she said she had pinned her hopes of a cure on the experimental treatment discovered by the San Francisco physicians.

Cruiser Sent to Isle to Protect Subjects if Needed; Curtis Tells Washington of Armistice

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Charles B. Curtis, American Minister to the Dominican Republic, notified the State Department today that he has been informed by the British Minister of plans to send the British cruiser Wistaria to Santo Domingo.

It was understood at the State Department that no landing from the vessel was planned and that the boat, which cruises regularly through the Caribbean, is being used only as a precautionary measure in case members of the British legation should desire to leave the island.

The United States has no ship at Santo Domingo, although the U.S.S. Rochester, carrying the members of President Hoover's Haitian commission, was nearing Port Au Prince, Haiti, today. The State Department does not consider the present situation in the Dominican Republic to make any naval precautions necessary.

Minister Curtis reported tonight that an armistice has been reached in the difficulties at the Dominican capital with a basis of permanent settlement seemingly attained.

The American legation acted as intermediary between the clashing factions. Curtis said it is hoped that a final agreement will be forthcoming soon. Although saying alarming tendencies have manifested themselves from time to time, the minister declared Santo Domingo is quiet and only a few skirmishes have occurred in outer sections.

Ex-Professor Loses Last Appeal for Life

Must Pay Penalty for Co-ed's Murder

Wife Loses Dramatic Plea for Clemency

COLUMBUS (O.) Feb. 27. (AP)—Dr. James Howard Snook, former Ohio State University professor, today lost his last chance for life and so must die in the electric chair at Ohio penitentiary tomorrow for the murder of Miss Theora Hix, Ohio State co-ed, last June.

Acting with the speed which characterized Dr. Snook's trial and his unsuccessful appeals to State and Federal courts, Gov. Cooper today listened attentively to an application by Snook's counsel for a reprieve in order that they might take the case before the State Board of Clemency. Half an hour later he denied the application on the ground that "there was nothing presented to him that would justify executive clemency."

Dr. James Howard Snook

E. O. Ricketts, attorney for the condemned man, then made formal application for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment. The Governor replied, "it is denied," and with those words died Snook's last chance for life.

PRISON EXCITED

The unsuccessful termination of the six-month fight to reverse the conviction handed down in the Franklin county Common Pleas Court here placed the matter tonight in the hands of Warden Preston E. Thomas of Ohio penitentiary, empowering him to execute the former professor any time between "midnight and midnight" tomorrow.

The usual time of executions is 7 p.m., but there had been strong indications that this one will take place shortly after midnight tonight, the earliest moment possible under the law. Meanwhile, no official announcement of the time came from the penitentiary.

The State House was the scene of much activity and curiosity all day and a crowd thronged the corridors.

WIFE MAKES PLEA

Mrs. Helen M. Snook, wife of the former professor of veterinary surgery, pleaded with the Governor for half an hour, leaving him much disturbed. The chief executive was visibly moved as newspaper men were admitted to his office afterward and he sat silent for several minutes before he told them of the conversation.

Ricketts, who previously had announced that he would ask the Federal District Court here for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that his client did not have a fair trial in case the Governor's decision was adverse to his cause, changed his mind after an informal talk with Federal Judge Hough. Judge Hough said he did not feel his court should take any action in view of United States Supreme Court's refusal to review it. Ricketts then made his final plea.

DU PONT WITNESS

Pierre S. Du Pont, chairman of the board of the E. I. Du Pont De Nemours Company, of Wilmington, Del., said he has concluded after a five-year study that prohibition is a failure. He advocated establishment of State control through commissions of Anti-Saloon League members, ministers and "our best citizens."

Other witnesses included Raymond Pitcairn, a Philadelphia manufacturer; H. H. Curran and John Gebhart, president and director of research, respectively, for the Association Against the Eighteenth Amendment; Alexander Lincoln of Boston, Robert M. Harris, a New York broker; Fabian Franklin, a New York author; Henry Alan Johnston, representing the voluntary committee of lawyers of New York, and Cole E. Morgan, a reporter for the Hearst newspapers.

All assailed the dry laws as bringing about a lawless condition in the country and destroying a principle of American government.

Du Pont said he is doubtful that prohibition has brought any prosperity in the nation in the past ten years. He said many large industrialists believe in prohibition for the working classes, but not for themselves.

The industrialist said it has been necessary to enact "monstrous laws" to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment because it has not met with the approval of the people. When national prohibition was enacted, he continued, there was little evidence among the States that it was desired by the people.

In an exchange with Representative Moore, Republican, Ohio, Rev. Malick said that the public schools in Ohio have not been teaching "scientific temperance," but "scientific prohibition."

Representative La Guardia, Republican, wet, New York, remarked that "whatever they teach in the schools, the people are drinking."

CRIME CURB URGED

Pitcairn said the people more and more are ignoring the Eighteenth Amendment and suggested that "we forget it" in order to devote the nation's time and money to curbing "real crime."

In his testimony before the Judiciary Committee, Franklin said the people are in "flaming revolt" and that the prisons are overcrowded by reason of prohibition.

The committee heard from Gebhart that prohibition cases constitute 70 per cent of the cases in Federal courts and that the $7,000,000 expansion of the Federal penal system will be inadequate to accommodate the dry law violators. The judges will have to dismiss the violators with fines, he said.

Replying to questions by Representative Moore, Curran said the Eighteenth Amendment "is not a part of the Constitution and never will be."

"Oh, so you do not think it is law?" the Ohioan pressed.

"I do not," Curran replied.

Du Pont proposes State Commission control as a means of putting liquor control "in good hands" rather than in the hands of criminals.

Du Pont expressed doubt if the dry statute has added to prosperity and said the only solution to the liquor problem lies in the best people of the nation directing their attention to it.

Du Pont said "all that concerns" the country is the excessive use of liquor, reiterating that the percentage of excessive users is small and adding that the great majority of those who drank did not use liquor to their own bodily harm before prohibition.

Replying to a question by Representative Bachmann, Republican, West Virginia, Du Pont said he believes the majority of the people of the country would be more likely "to be for repeal than against" if a referendum were put to the country.

QUESTION ON STATEMENT

Representative Moore, Republican, Ohio, questioned Du Pont about his statement that ministers should try to better the liquor traffic and the witness replied the ministers previously had tried to stamp out the old saloon instead of trying to improve the conditions surrounding them.

Asked by Representative Michener, Republican, Michigan, if Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors, did not differ with him on prohibition, the witness replied in the affirmative. Until recently Du Pont was chairman of the board of that corporation.

Michener then said the point he wanted to bring out was that "great and intelligent industrial leaders may honestly differ on the question."

"I would like to attack the word 'honestly,'" Du Pont answered. Du Pont said many industrial leaders believe prohibition is good for the working classes but do not apply it to themselves.

"Do you mean to imply the gentleman I mentioned and other large industrialists do not practice what they preach?" Michener asked.

"They will have to speak for themselves," Du Pont answered.

The witness said he had attended a dinner with a man who advocated prohibition for the working classes, but when the whisky was passed, took a copious drink.

FATE EXPECTED, SAYS KEYES

Ex-Prosecutor Shows No Emotion

Asa Keyes and Ed H. Rosenberg

"I EXPECTED IT."

That was the matter-of-fact comment made late yesterday by Asa Keyes, when he was told that his last hope of escaping prison had failed.

There was no despair in the former District Attorney's voice. There was nothing dramatic about his demeanor. His face, pallid and showing deep lines from more than twelve months in the County Jail, showed no new emotion.

"I did not expect them to give me a new trial," he continued. "Maybe it is just as well; another trial would have meant another long fight and another period of suspense."

Keyes said he is not sure what his immediate course will be. If he chooses, he can start for San Quentin within the next few days to begin his term; if he elects to remain here until the official documents are forwarded from the Supreme Court and other technical angles attended to, he may remain in the County Jail for three or four weeks.

"I haven't made up my mind yet," he said.

KEYES CASE HARD FOUGHT

Every Angle of Bribery Plot Trial in Which Three Were Convicted Bitterly Contested

Asa Keyes, together with Ed Rosenberg, Jack Rosenberg, Ben Getzoff, Dave Getzoff and Charles Reimer, were indicted by the 1928 county grand jury on a charge of conspiracy to give and receive bribes in connection with attempts to dismiss charges against defendants in the notorious Julian Petroleum Corporation stock overissue cases.

The defendants were arraigned November 20, 1928, and went to trial January 7, 1929. Buron Fitts, District Attorney-elect, was appointed special prosecutor in the case and gathered about him as assistant prosecutors, Robert P. Stewart, now Chief Deputy District Attorney, and Attorneys W. J. Clark and William Simpson. The defense attorneys included Jud Rush, William Beirne, LeCompte Davis, Paul Schenck and others.

CASE HARD FOUGHT

With this legal array the case was fought from every angle, one month being consumed before the jury was given the case. It brought in a verdict in less than three hours.

The jury hardly had been sworn at the beginning of the trial when the prosecution made a motion to dismiss charges against Jacob Berman, "bright young man of the Julian case," and when the motion was granted Berman, also known as Jack Bennett, turned State's evidence and testified against the others.

In brief, the State's case was this: That Keyes, during the trial of the Julian cases, went to the Spring-street tailor shop of Ben Getzoff, where he accepted bribes of various kinds for dismissing cases. Evidence was produced in court that, in addition to money, Keyes accepted golf clubs, a Lincoln coupe, a radio, a chaise longue, and other things. Three of the chief witnesses for the State were Milton Pike, John Rettenger and Joseph Sherman, employees of Getzoff, who said they overheard the illicit dealings as they went about their work.

Ben Getzoff was described as the "go between" in fixing up the bribery deals. Dave Getzoff, the tailor's son, was asserted to have cashed checks and done other errands that furthered the bribery plot. Ed Rosenberg was a defendant in the Julian case and was declared to have paid bribe money; Jack Rosenberg, Ed's brother, was asserted to have bought the golf clubs and other gifts. Charles Reimer, an investigator in the District Attorney's office at the time, was asserted to have got a "cut" of the bribe money and to have complained because he didn't get more.

When the State closed its case, the defense made a motion to dismiss on the part of all the defendants, and Superior Judge Butler of Marin county, especially imported to hear the Keyes case, granted the motion as to Jack Rosenberg, Dave Getzoff and Reimer on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence to connect them with the plot.

THREE CONVICTED

The elder Getzoff, Ed Rosenberg and Keyes were convicted. Shortly after being convicted, Getzoff "told all he knew" to Dist.-Atty. Fitts, was given probation and later testified in other bribery cases against former chief Deputy District Attorney Davis and Chief Trial Deputy District-Attorney MacKay.

Keyes and Rosenberg appealed their case to the Appellate Court and the decision denying them a new trial was handed down January 29 of this year. Rosenberg went to San Quentin about two weeks ago. Keyes was born August 9, 1877, and until his conviction spent twenty-five years in the service of the county. He has a wife and two daughters.

quired to charge the offense of bribery.

"In fact, to employ the language necessary to charge a conspiracy to violate said section is to charge the substantive offense thereunder. Then, too, as pointed out in the opinion, the punishment for the substantive offense and for conspiracy to commit it is, under the code, the same. The defendant has, therefore, suffered no substantial injury.

"The petition is denied."

LANGDON DISSENTS

Justice Langdon, it was learned, dissented from the attitude taken by his colleagues but did not file a formal dissent because the decision as announced by the court was in the form of a memorandum. His dissent, he explained, was taken only during the discussion in chambers before the decision was reached and announced.

Informally he said he believed the Supreme Court should have accepted the plea for hearing but, in the circumstances, he felt it improper to set forth his reasons.

France Balks International Tariff Truce

GENEVA, Feb. 27. (AP)—The international scheme for a tariff truce received a blow tonight when M. Serruys, French delegate, told a tariff conference subcommittee that France would decline to consider the truce draft as mapped out so far.

He said he regarded the plan for progressive stabilization of customs duties as undesirable and favored a formula embodying a series of international tariff guarantees.

In view of this statement, the subcommittee at first decided it would be useless for its members to meet again, but decided to leave the decision in the hands of the chairman. If it does not continue its work, a plenary session of the conference will be called.

DRASTIC SEARCH LAW PROTESTED

Attorney-General Mitchell Against Dry Proposal

Measure Would Affect Only District of Columbia

Views Expressed in Letter to Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Atty.-Gen. Mitchell today voiced disapproval of an effort to make more drastic the law allowing search of private dwellings in liquor cases.

In a letter to Chairman Capper of the Senate Committee on District of Columbia Affairs the Attorney-General opposed a provision in the bill by Senator Howell, Republican, Nebraska, which would allow issuance of search warrants to enter homes in the District of Columbia upon information that liquor was delivered to them, or of the unlawful presence of a still.

"In my judgment," he wrote, "effort to improve the enforcement of the national prohibition act may better be expended, at least for the present, in other directions than in an attempt to make more drastic the provisions for searching private dwellings—an attempt which would arouse controversy with doubtful results.

PRESENT PROVISIONS

"The national prohibition act now allows searching of dwellings only on proof that liquor is being sold in them.

"The effect of the Howell bill would be to subject the dwellings of persons residing in the District of Columbia to more drastic searches than Congress has authorized in the United States, Alaska, and some insular possessions. I do not believe this discrimination would be justified."

The Attorney-General also disapproved another provision in the Howell bill, allowing the government to retain seized liquor unless the claimant is able to show that he possessed it legally.

VALIDITY QUESTIONED

In reference to the proposal not to return seized liquor the Attorney-General said a serious constitutional question arose "as to the validity of a provision which attempts to put the government in an advantageous position as the result of a seizure in violation of constitutional guaranties."

"But, aside from that," he said, "and as a matter of principle, the government by violating the constitutional rights of the citizen should not be placed in a better position than it otherwise would be in. In the long run nothing will be gained for the cause of law enforcement by such means."

Deadlock Ends Triangle Suit for $500,000

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) The red triangle suit ended in a deadlock this afternoon when a mixed jury of young and old men found itself unable to agree on a verdict after three hours and ten minutes of heated deliberation. Mrs. Frances Marion Brandon, the triangle woman, and George J. Gillespie, her "holy man," are just where they were before the suit for $500,000 for breach of promise began, except that they have let the public in on a lot of intimate details on their respective lives.

Mortimer Hays, attorney for Mrs. Brandon, announced after the jury had been dismissed, that he will ask that the suit be set for retrial during the April term of the Supreme Court.

Union Protests Cleaning Prices

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Two thousand members of the retail cleaners and dyers union held a mass meeting tonight to protest against the action of the Chicago master cleaners in ordering an increase in cleaning and dyeing prices which must be passed onto the public.

The increase amounts to 60 per cent and means that the price of cleaning a woman's dress will be raised to $2.50 and the cost of cleaning and pressing a man's suit will be lifted to $1.75.

Declares Father Not Back of Oil-Price Cutting

Neither Knew of Reduction Until Told by Press

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today issued a statement denying reports that his father is directing an "oil-trade war."

"I must emphatically deny," he said, "the statements that father has again taken the initiative in dictating oil policies and that it is he who directed Standard (oil) interests to order a cut in the price of Texas and Midcontinent Crude oil.

"Naturally my father continues to be interested in anything pertaining to the oil industry, to the development of which he gave so many years of his early life. However, since his retirement from business, more than a quarter of a century ago, he had had nothing to do with the operation or management of any oil company or other business, much less the determination of 'oil policies' whether in relation to prices or anything else."

"Neither my father nor I," Mr. Rockefeller added, "knew anything about the recent cut in crude oil prices until we read of it in the public press. The oil companies in which we are interested are managed and their business policies determined by their officers and directors, and not by their stockholders."

INTRIGUE TOLD IN DEATH CASE

Mrs. Mooremeister's Sister Gives New Testimony

Promoter, Friend of Family, Mentioned by Witness

Doctor Questioned on Wife's Affair With Prince

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 27. (AP)—Testimony of automobile parties with a man whom her husband regarded as a family friend and of the friend's asserted efforts to persuade her to get a divorce, was put into the record of the inquest here today into the murder of Mrs. Dorothy Mooremeister.

Miss Amelia Hugentobler, the dead woman's sister, who had lived for three years in her home, declared that for the last few weeks before her murder Charles Peter, Salt Lake City mining promoter, had called on her four or five times a week and quoted her sister as having told of his efforts to get her to divorce Dr. Frank Mooremeister.

MYSTERY IN SLAYING

Mrs. Mooremeister's body, broken beneath the wheels of her own automobile, was found last Saturday on a lonely road. The authorities have been unable to account for her movements between the time she left her home the previous evening and the hour her body was discovered.

Peter, Miss Hugentobler said, had been with Mrs. Mooremeister and another woman, along with a man she identified as "a prominent attorney of Philadelphia," one evening a few days preceding her death. She told her husband on her return she had been with another woman, the sister testified.

HINT OF DRUGGING

Returning home late, she had complained of the effects of a strong alcoholic drink she said she had taken, and had expressed the belief she had been drugged, Miss Hugentobler declared.

She quoted her sister as saying Peter contemplated a divorce from his wife and that he had told her she could easily obtain a divorce from Dr. Mooremeister along with $80,000 alimony.

Dr. Mooremeister was recalled to the stand today and questioned further about his knowledge of his wife's asserted relations with a man they met in Paris last summer and who was known to them as Prince Farid of Persia. The husband told yesterday of finding a letter written by the Prince after his wife's death, in which he referred to intimate relations between them.

Dr. Mooremeister declared today he had not suspected their romance until the discovery of the letter and he had known of no other friendships she might have had with men.

MAID AIDS MRS. BRIGGS WILL SUIT

Tells of Being Witness at Cartoonist's Common-Law Marriage

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Testimony that the late Clare Briggs, newspaper cartoonist, asked her to witness that he took Marie C. Briggs as his wife, was offered by Virginia Hammond, negro maid, at the opening today of Mrs. Briggs's suit for recognition as the artist's legal widow.

The maid said she had accompanied Mrs. Briggs, then known as Maggie Toohey, to the Briggs country home at Bound Brook, N. J., in August, 1929. Briggs, she said, followed her into a room where Miss Toohey was working and took Miss Toohey in his arms.

"'Virginia, I want you to be a witness to this,'" the witness quoted Briggs as saying. "'I want you to witness that I am taking Maggie here to be my wife.'"

Theodore A. Lesser, Briggs's attorney, testified the cartoonist had asked his advice about marrying Miss Toohey. The lawyer said Briggs dreaded the notoriety he believed would be caused by the marriage because his first wife, Mrs. Ruth Owen Briggs, had named Miss Toohey as co-respondent in her divorce suit. Lesser said he suggested a common law marriage before other witnesses.

If Marie Briggs gets legal recognition as Briggs's widow she will have the right to contest his will and claim a share in his $40,000 estate.

GAY CROWDS MARK ROME FESTAL DAY

Children Out in Fancy Costumes to Celebrate Pre-Lenten Event

ROME, Feb. 27. (AP)—The feast of Giovedi Grasse" (literally, "Fat Thursday,") first date in the Roman pre-Lenten carnival season, was celebrated today by old and young, the latter having a bit the better of it.

Virtually all the schools closed, to remain so until after Ash Wednesday, and the children were out in force early in the day, garbed in fancy costumes of every imaginable hue.

Tooting horns and banging on small drums and tambourines, they went about the streets in small groups, most of them unaccompanied.

Additional gayety was lent to the popular rejoicings by the fact that today was pay day for the Roman municipal employees. There will be another great day Tuesday, "Martedi Grasse," better known in America as Mardi Gras. Then Rome and its neighbor, the Vatican city state, will finally settle down to observance of Lent.

OFFICIAL HELD FOR THEFT

PHOENIX, Feb. 27. (AP)—J. K. Ward, Maricopa County Recorder, was held to answer to the Superior Court at his preliminary hearing today on the charge that he embezzled $1061 in county funds while serving as County Treasurer in 1928.

London Meeting Ignored as Crisis Widens

PARIS, Feb. 27. (AP)—The gap between the policies of the deadlocked Right and Left parties in the French Chamber of Deputies widened today as former Premier Andre Tardieu attempted to reassemble a government to succeed the short-lived Chautemps Cabinet.

The defeat of Chautemps still rankles in the minds of the powerful Left groups, particularly the Radical-Socialists, who are the largest single party in the Chamber, and their opposition became open and decisive today.

The political crisis is almost certain to last for several days. It is not only a Ministerial crisis, but a fight that has brought the chief political divisions in France head-on against one another.

In the turmoil of domestic politics, the London naval conference seems to have been lost sight of for the moment.

Pres. of Native Daughters Now Praises Sargon

"It's almost unbelievable the feeling of new life and strength that's come over me since taking Sargon!

"For months I seemed to be going into a physical decline. My digestive organs were completely upset. Nearly everything I ate disagreed with me and caused severe gas pains. There'd be such pressure around my heart I felt like I was smothering to death. I had no appetite and I was very particular about my diet, as I was constantly in fear of eating something that would bring on one of these attacks. My nerves were shattered, the least thing worried me, and I was so restless I got little refreshing sleep. My strength and vitality were at such a low ebb I hardly felt like taking an active part in anything and declined many social invitations. I was always bilious and would have dreadful headaches and dizzy spells, almost to the point of fainting. I felt sure that a sluggish liver was the cause of all my trouble and I tried hard to correct this condition, but found nothing that gave me relief.

"A very close personal friend told me of the wonderful results she obtained from Sargon, and I began taking it. Nothing in my life ever surprised me more than my quick and remarkable improvement. The very first bottle helped me, my appetite increased and I began eating everything I wanted without a trace of indigestion or gas. I have taken four bottles of this remarkable medicine, and every pain in my body is gone.

"My greatest blessing I think is that the Sargon Soft Mass Pills which I took right along with the tonic, stimulated my liver to normal action. I haven't had a headache, a dizzy spell or a touch of biliousness since taking them, and never felt better in my life. Sargon and the Sargon Soft Mass Pills make a combination that has no equal, and I've adopted them as my household remedy.

"I couldn't be so ungrateful as not to recommend Sargon to other sufferers after all it has done for me."

The above very fine statement was made by Mrs. Minnie Davis, 55 Sycamore St., San Francisco, who is president of Native Daughters of the Golden West (Mission Parlor,) member of United Order of Ancient Druids (Dell Eden Circle,) and very prominent socially.

The Sargon Man is at the Owl Drug Store, 6th & Broadway, where he is meeting the public daily and explaining the merits of this remarkable new medicine. Sargon may also be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett's Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

VETERAN BOOK PUBLISHER DIES

George Haven Putnam Passes at Home in New York

He Fostered International Copyright Legislation

Battle Against Plagiarism Lasted Many Years

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—George Haven Putnam, president of the G. P. Putnam's Sons, publishers, died today of pernicious anemia at his residence here. He was 85 years of age, and had been ill for two weeks.

Mr. Putnam was a Civil War veteran.

Fighting the pirates of literature was George Haven Putnam's great work.

FOSTERED COPYRIGHT

Battling, sometimes single-handed, against selfish interests of publishers, he gave the United States its international copyright system.

Taught by his father the evils of the parasitical practices which ignored royalty rights of literary men outside their own countries, Mr. Putnam in 1886 revived the American Publishers' Copyright League. As its secretary he propagandized for an international copyright law, wrestled with Congress to put over legislation, and when a law was enacted in 1891, was rewarded by France with the cross of the Legion of Honor.

The father, George Palmer Putnam, had been instrumental in acquainting England and the continent with the little-known literature of the then young United States, a work carried on by his son. The latter saw that English literature was borrowed at random in America—an unfair practice in the opinion of the young publisher, and one requiring stringent regulation.

BORN IN LONDON

Time and again this enthusiast was blocked by lawyers and Congressional red tape, but persistence and a deep-seated belief in his ideal carried him to success over the strenuous protests of interests who found foreign literature toothsome food for their money-making schemes.

Putnam was born in London, April 2, 1844, while his father was in London in the interests of his firm. While abroad for treatment to his eyes he attended the Sorbonne, Paris, and the University of Berlin, and enrolled later at Gottingen University, Prussia, to study forestry. The war interrupted his schooling, and he returned to America to join the Union forces.

In 1869 he married Rebecca Shepard of Boston, who died in 1895. His second wife was Emily James Smith, author and educator, and one-time dean of Barnard College, whom he married in 1899.

He was for a number of years president of G. P. Putnam's Sons, book publishers, and was one of the founders of the Knickerbocker Press.

Prison Sentence Ends Hopes for Jail Romance

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The brief jail romance of Miss Elise M. Powers, San Francisco social worker, and Kenneth H. Blackburn, confessed burglar, ended in a flood of tears today, when Blackburn was sentenced to an indeterminate term in San Quentin.

Miss Powers had hoped to win probation for her fiance on her promise to marry and "look after him." Her plan bore promise of a happy ending but when the groom-to-have-been was trapped in a prevarication by Superior Judge Welch, the romance was over.

NO SHOALS PACT MADE, SENATE TOLD

Cyanamid Company Head Says $168,768 Spent to Gain Power Project

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—W. B. Bell, president of the American Cyanamid Company, today told the Senate lobby committee his company has spent $168,768 in efforts to obtain control of the government-owned Muscle Shoals power and fertilizer project in Alabama.

Details of the expenditures were not asked by the committee, which seemed more interested in attempting to compel Bell to admit that his company has negotiated an agreement with the Alabama Power Company and other power companies for division of the power to be produced at Muscle Shoals if the Cyanamid bid for the project is accepted.

Bell readily admitted that such an agreement was once discussed but, he insisted, the negotiations collapsed when the power companies demanded that the construction of dams be limited and demurred at the Cyanamid company's demand that it should always control the distribution. He flatly denied, as intimated in correspondence found in the files of Chester Gray, capital lobbyist for the American Farm Bureau Federation, that an agreement had been reached by the two interests and left unwritten so that its existence could be denied.

EDUCATORS SEEK NICHE IN CABINET

Superintendents Again Urge Department With Secretary of Schools

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Feb. 27. (AP)—A department of education with a secretary at its head in the President's Cabinet was advocated again by the department of superintendence of the National Education Association at today's session of its annual convention.

At the same time it gave evidence of a desire to be courteous in the fullest measure to the study undertaken by Secretary Wilbur through a national advisory committee of education, appointed by him to consider the whole question of the relationship of the national government to public education in this country.

The statement as set forth in the resolution declares that the association views with genuine professional interest the increasing attention which public education is receiving from the national government, as emphasized in the inaugural address of President Hoover and in his message to the Seventy-first Congress. It mentions that the White House conference on child health and protection has been established and a committee on illiteracy organized and adds that "still more significant" is the naming of a committee representative of the important educational associations to inquire into policies which the Federal government should adopt.

LUMBER TARIFF EFFORT FAILS

Northwest States Lose Out Following Senate Clash

Charges of "Log Rolling" and "Trading" Mark Session

Petroleum Executive Faces Quiz Today in Oil Fight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—The bid of the Far Northwest States for a tariff on lumber lost tonight in the Senate, after one of the most spirited clashes over the long-contested tariff measure. The vote was 39 to 34.

Charges by Democratic-Republican Independent coalition leaders of "log-rolling" and "trading" of votes on lumber, oil and sugar preceded the roll call and stirred a vehement denial from Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, who condemned such talk as "unworthy" and "the commonest method of dodging an issue."

Newspaper reports of a "deal" on the lumber, oil and sugar duties were brought to the attention of the Senate by Senators Norris, Republican, Nebraska, and Walsh, Democrat, Montana. Earlier in the night the Senate Lobby Committee subpoenaed Wirt Franklin, president of the American Independent Petroleum Producers' Association, to appear before it tomorrow for examination in connection with the contest for an oil tariff. The proposal for the oil levy comes up in the Senate tomorrow.

JONES'S PROPOSAL

Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, proposed to take lumber off the free list and place a duty of $2 a thousand feet on it. He won the votes of nine Democrats and twenty-five Republicans, while twenty Democrats and nineteen Republicans opposed it.

The Republican regulars divided on the vote.

By unanimous consent an agreement was reached after the lumber vote to take up a proposal of Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, for a rate of 7 cents a pound on long staple cotton immediately following disposition of the oil contest.

Senator Pine of Oklahoma introduced a modified amendment late in the day which would eliminate the basing of the 50 per cent duty on oil by-products on United States value, which is much higher than foreign value, and provide for various specific rates on kerosene, gasoline and other by-products.

OIL FIGHT LEADERS

Senators Pine and Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, are leading the contest for an oil tariff. Claims were made of forty-five votes for the oil tariff and some asserted that thirty members of the Senate have gone on record definitely in favor of the duty.

Calling of Franklin before the lobby committee caused considerable stir. The drive for an oil tariff has been one of the most spectacular of the long tariff fight. Oil men from the Southwest have poured into the capital in the last week putting their case before Senate and House.

DUTCH CHURCH HERESY CASE COMES TO TRIAL

CAPE TOWN, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The famous heresy case was revived in Cape Town today when Prof. De Plessis was charged before a tribunal of 300 elders and clergymen, constituting the synod of the highest court of the Dutch Reformed Church, with heresy following the publication of certain passages in his theological journal. In his journal, Prof. De Plessis denied the inerrancy of the Scriptures, accepting the standpoint of higher criticism, ascribing human limitation to Christ during life on earth, and raising controversial issues without first submitting them to the synod.

MUMMY CACHE DISCOVERED

American Expedition in Egypt Finds More Than Score of Coffins in One Tomb

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27. (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania Museum announced today it has received a cablegram stating that one of the largest collections of coffins ever found in one tomb in Egypt has been unearthed by the university's expedition at Meydum. The coffins, all of which contain mummies, range from 2200 years to nearly 4000 years of age, it was stated.

"Nearly thirty coffins and mummies found in the new tomb," the cablegram from Alan Rowe, field director of the expedition, stated. "One coffin contains a mummy covered with head network over which is a golden flying scarab and a gilded mask. Another coffin dates from the twelfth dynasty, about 2000 B.C., and is covered with texts.

"The tomb seems to be really a cache of coffins and mummies which had been collected together and stored there for some reason or other. From the bottom of a deep pit eight chambers radiate in various directions. About five of these chambers are piled ceiling high with broken and unbroken coffins. The cache has apparently never been robbed.

"This is the biggest find of coffins I have ever seen in Egypt, and is of the greatest importance. It is, of course, yet too early to say what they contain."

Many rare amulets, pendants and great quantities of beads were recovered.

RESERVE BANK POST RESIGNED

McGarrah of New York to Take Membership on International Board

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Gates W. McGarrah, today resigned the chairmanship of the board of directors of the New York Federal Reserve Bank to accept an appointment as American director of the Bank for International Settlements. He sails for Paris on Saturday.

In announcing this new step in a banking career that began about forty years ago in a little country bank at Goshen, N. Y., McGarrah said the directors of the new bank probably will meet immediately after their arrival at Basle, Switzerland, where the institution is to be situated.

"What will happen at that point, I do not know," he said.

For some time, however, it has been definitely understood here that McGarrah is to be chosen head of the International Bank.

The banker pointed out that the bank can perform no great accomplishments at this time and that aside from its reparations duties most of its work for some time to come will consist of studies on various problems.

The institution's relations with the Federal Reserve system, McGarrah said, will be about as close as the reserve's relations with the central banks of England and France, "and no closer," he added.

Prison Site Soil Tests Planned

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Lyman M. King, State director of finance, today announced that soil tests will be made of the six sites under consideration for the new State prison in Southern California. The sites are in Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

King said soil is desired that will be suitable to the production of vegetables. Engineers of the division of engineering, he added, also will make water surveys of the sites. He is anxious that these investigations be rushed so that a final decision can be made on the site in the near future.

IMMIGRATION BILL REPORTED

Tricky Method Used to Get Committee Action

Representative Free Given Worthless Pledge

Measure Ordered Out Soon After He Leaves

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The Johnson bill providing virtual exclusion of Mexican immigrants and milder restriction in the case of other countries on the Western Hemisphere, was favorably reported by the House Immigration Committee today, under tricky circumstances somewhat akin to the way the Harris bill was slipped over ten days ago.

Representative Free of San Jose, Cal., an opponent of the legislation, was assured by Representative Johnson of Washington, chairman of the House committee and author of the bill, that no final committee action on the measure would be taken today. Mr. Free then left the committee room to join Lawrence Richey, one of President Hoover's secretaries, at a hospital where Mrs. Richey lies critically ill.

FREE ANGERED

Within an hour of his departure, the bill was ordered reported to the House by unanimous vote of members present. Representative Free refused to comment on the incident tonight, but was plainly angry. He indicated that he felt the vote had been "put over" conveniently during his absence. He could see no reason for the action, since it has been apparent for weeks that advocates of Mexican restriction are in complete control of the committee on the question and could put out the bill whenever they chose.

Free had merely wanted to register objections to the measure, on behalf of California agricultural interests, and keep the record straight by voting against a favorable report. It is probable that only Dick Stein, New York Democrat, and Vincent, Michigan, Republican, among the other members of the committee, would have sided with him. As it happened, both were absent, and the favorable report was made by unanimous vote.

"GREASING" PLANNED

Speed was believed to be the motive behind the committee's precipitate action which violated the assurance given the California Representative. It is understood that Chairman Johnson, Representative Box of Texas and other committee proponents of restriction, plan to call on Chairman Snell of the Rules Committee and other House leaders on Monday to demand a special rule which would give the legislation privileged status. If they are able to obtain this rule passage of the measure by the House is held assured as the lower branch generally is uninformed on the Mexican question and from political motives is preponderantly in favor of most any kind of restriction bill that comes along. Especially is this true just now with the re-election of Congress in the offing.

Chairman Johnson's version of the affair in committee was that all members had been given notice that there was a quorum present, and that when one of the members made a motion to report the bill there was nothing to do but put the question to a vote. The meeting was executive and no actual details were revealed.

MINORITY FIGHT MAPPED

Johnson is now busy on a majority report and will have it with him when he goes to Snell for a rule. Representative Stein announced that he would file a minority report, and it is probable that Representative Free will either join with him or file one of his own. He will lead the fight against the legislation on the floor, if it reaches that stage.

The bill, the product of several years' study of the House Immigration Committee, would allow entry of 11,000 Mexicans the first year, 7000 the second year and 2900 a year thereafter. Canada would be given a numerical quota slightly smaller than the number that country normally sends to the United States but actually larger than the number of immigrants who came from there last year. This discrimination, while satisfying Senators and Representatives from States along the Canadian border, gives rise to grave diplomatic objections because of the frank slap it takes at our sensitive neighbor below the southern border.

Meanwhile it developed today that hearings on the McNary resolution proposing a survey of the agricultural labor needs of the nation by Presidential commission as a counter-proposition to immigration restriction, are being held up awaiting the return of C. C. Teague, California member of the Federal Farm Board, who is counted upon as the principal witness for the measure. Mr. Teague is due back in Washington next month and Senator McNary, who is chairman of the Senatorial Agricultural Commission, has promised hearings as soon as he is available. It was at the instance of Teague and other members of the Farm Board that McNary introduced his resolution.

WILLOWS ATTORNEY GETS COVETED POST

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27. (AP)—The appointment by Gov. Young of R. M. Rankin, Willows attorney, to the Superior judgeship of Glenn county was announced here today. The Governor said he had a difficult task in choosing between Rankin and Judge Bell, the opposing candidate for the office. Rankin and Bell appeared to be of substantially equal ability and merit, and Gov. Young said he had to weigh many factors before deciding.

SCHOOLS CLOSED FOR RELIGIOUS TEACHING

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27. (AP)—The Department of the Interior has closed three schools in the cities of Chihuahua, Puebla and Saltillo for having taught religion. It is explained that this is contrary to the constitution and that it also specifically violates the religious agreement made last June with the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

POKER ALICE'S HAND CALLED

Game Ends for Picturesque Figure of Old West

Reputation Acquired as Faro Dealer in Mine Towns

Fast Trigger Finger Asset of Gamblers in Those Days

RAPID CITY (S. D.) Feb. 28. (AP) "Poker Alice" Tubbs, 77 years of age, one of the last characters of the Old West, died here today. Her reputation was made as a faro dealer in the wide-open mining penings of the gold rush rays in towns of the last century. Associated with all the stirring hapthe Black Hills, "Poker Alice's" activities were similar to those of "Wild Bill" Hickok, "Calamity Jane" and "Deadwood Dick."

Her real name was Mrs. Alice Tubbs. Complications following an operation for gall stones, combined with the afflictions of old age, caused her death in a hospital.

SHE LIKED CIGARS

For years Poker Alice lived in Sturgis in a rambling cabin on the north side of Bear Butte Creek, when the mining boom quieted down she stayed in the Black Hills, maintaining her picturesque character by the use of large, black cigars and strong language.

A few years ago she was saved from serving a penitentiary term by Gov. Bulow, who said he could not send "an old white-haired woman to prison" on a liquor charge.

Going to Deadwood when the boom was on, Poker Alice held her own with the bad men of the days when a quick trigger finger was the main asset of a good gambler. She always carried a revolver, but said she used it only twice.

Poker Alice always said she was a "good" gambler, and boasted she used a "cold" deck only once, and then in fun.

BORN IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Tubbs was born in 1853 in Suborg, Devonshire, Eng. Her first husband was Frank Duffield, Leadville (Colo.) mining engineer. Her gambling career is said to have started when she was allowed to deal faro, since the novelty of a woman in the game would attract a crowd. Poker Alice soon demonstrated that her presence paid dividends aside from advertising, and her reputation was soon established. This, she said, was in Silver City, N. M., and as the first woman to make a success at gambling she claimed $6000 profits the first night.

W. G. Tubbs, her second husband, said he was a "big time" gambler, but he soon learned it was more profitable to let his wife do all the playing.

Later she married George Huckert of Sturgis, but after his death resumed the name of Tubbs.

In 1889, Poker Alice said she entered the Oklahoma "free lands," not to homestead, but to get rich from the rush of settlers. In 1891 she is said to have crossed the Rockies on foot from Del Monte to King Solomon's mines.

RENO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The notable addition of Irving T. Bush to the divorce colony here, coupled with persistent rumors from Park avenue, New York, that he intends to marry Miss Marion Spore, "Lady Bountiful" to the New York Bowery's homeless, lends strength to the belief that the millionaire president of the Bush Terminal Company of Brooklyn is planning to start his third matrimonial venture.

The present Mrs. Bush and mother of his two children is now in Lake Wales, Fla., and could not be reached today for a statement. Bush himself, who registered Tuesday at a fashionable hotel here, was silent about his plans.

"I will not discuss my presence here," he said, and left it there.

Bush was married to his present wife in 1907 after he had been divorced by his first wife. One of his daughters is married to Herbert Lowell Dillon, the banker, and the other to Arthur L. McElroy.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27. (AP)—An international campaign to raise a $10,000,000 endowment fund for the order of De Molay, an organization of youths sponsored by but not affiliated with the Masonic order, was announced here today.

Frank S. Land, founder and directing head of the order, which has a membership of 200,000, announced the campaign. He explained that after eleven years of effort the Grand Council has found it impossible to properly go ahead with the work on revenues derived solely from the membership.

Started in Kansas City in 1919, the order has chapters in more than 1300 cities in the United States, Alaska, Canada, Mexico, the Hawaiian Islands, Porto Rico, Panama Canal Zone, Philippines, Italy and France.

More than 500,000 youths have been enrolled in De Molay. Members automatically retire at the age of 21.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP) — Rex, who was Vito Pannarale's collie, died yesterday with a bullet through his body and his teeth in a man's leg.

For five years Pannarale had trained Rex to guard the little shoe shop in which Pannarale taps out a living. When two men, one armed, held up the shop yesterday, Pannarale stood with hands upraised and spoke in a low voice to Rex. He spoke in Italian, and it was a command.

The dog leaped. The man with the gun fired and his companion fled. Rex was mortally wounded, but his teeth were clamped in the bandit's leg. Because of the dog, police today held James Thornton on a charge of robbery, armed.

HONEYED TALKS SOUR ON RADIO

Committee Finds Sweetening Spoils Ether Education

People Resent Microphonic Lectures, Says Report

Objections and Advantages of Broadcast Listed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Secretary Wilbur's advisory committee on radio education has found that one of the chief objections to microphonic instruction is that "educational broadcasts, sandwiched in between sales talks on cigarettes and lipsticks, need to be so sugarcoated they lose most of their educational value."

The committee, composed of educators, radio officials and prominent broadcasters, has been given the task of evolving methods for the promotion of educational broadcasting to schools and classrooms throughout the country.

OBJECTIONS SUMMARIZED

Summarized, the objections raised to radio as a medium of bringing education to adults are:

The average person does not want education and resents the implication that he needs it; the effects of educational talks are largely passive; radio talks encourage the fallacy that listening signifies the acquisition of learning, and the radio bars all teachers except those who have good delivery.

The advantages of radio, which the committee says probably more than offset the disadvantages, are set out as follows:

It democratizes higher learning by removing obstacles that now make it available only to a small percentage of Americans, and brings it to all ages, sexes, colors, races, creeds and people in all stations or economic conditions.

TREASURES OPENED

It multiplies "incalculably the effective reach of the endowment dollar" by eliminating the need of expensive halls and dormitories. It provides the swiftest means yet known for the spread of ideas, opens the treasures of the universities to all on the same conditions and increases the public appreciation of education.

The radio compels "essential brevity and point, a long lost art among college lecturers," its champions add, and makes room for the amateur teacher who has no place in the formal academic plan but who has a love, an aptitude for teaching and a wisdom worth sharing.

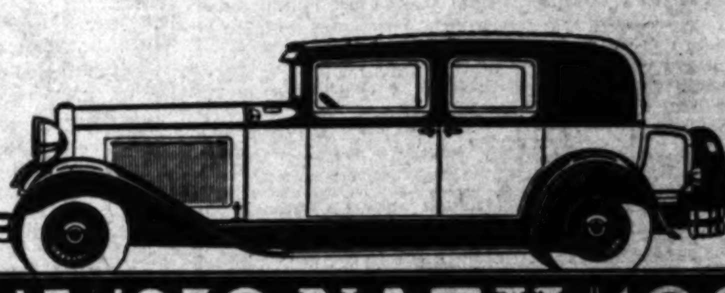
SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE!



THE 1930 NASH "400"

At this year's Motor Shows Nash exhibits a new era of motor car engineering. The brilliant new Nash "400's" for 1930, now on display, unquestionably forecast the future in motor car design and performance. ¶ Eventually you will find other cars than Nash with such advanced and desirable features as the Twin-Ignition motor; built-in, automatic radiator shutters; automatic centralized chassis lubrication; cable-actuated, self-energizing, 4-wheel brakes; flexible steel spring covers with sealed-in, lifetime lubrication. ¶ But today and at this year's Show the headliner is Nash. These new Nash cars, the Twin-Ignition Eight, the Twin-Ignition Six and Single Six, are so far ahead of the usual you will know it instantly. ¶ Go to see them. They bear the stamp of genius in motor car design.

RESERVE BANK PROPOSALS VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY

National Chamber's Suggestions for Federal System Given Full Indorsement on Referendum

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Nineteen proposals designed to strengthen the Federal Reserve system were adopted by n overwhelming vote of the member organizations of the Chamer of Commerce of the United States in a nation-wide referenium, the preliminary returns of which were made public here oday.

The proposals deal with questions of administrative policies nd practices of the reserve system. Relatively few of them owever, call for changes in the Federal Reserve Act itself.

The preliminary canvass of the alloting showed that the vote was ne of the largest ever cast in a ational chamber referendum. Each roposal received a substantially arger vote than the necessary two-hirds majority.

The referendum proposals were ased upon an extensive report on he far-reaching activities of the eserve system by the banking and urrency committee of the national hamber. This committee was comosed of fifty members, including epresentatives from various fields f business, as well as labor and griculture.

In making its report, some months go, the committee expressed the ope that the information it conained would contribute to the deelopment by the public of a spirit f sober and sympathetic criticism f the reserve system.

LIST OF PROPOSALS

he proposals which have been dopted by the member organizaons of the national chamber are:

(1.) That in the structure of the ederal Reserve system the prinple of regional banks with autonmous powers—in contrast to a ntral bank—be maintained.

(2.) That in maintenance of the rinciple of regional autonomy, the ederal Reserve Board should not itiate changes in the rediscount ate unless a plain national emergncy exists and then not without nference with the directorates of e regional banks and full conderation of the resulting influence f its act on commerce and inustry.

(3.) That a policy favoring a niform rate of rediscount for all eserve banks is unsuited to our gional system and to the diversy of business conditions.

(4.) That as the future need for serve credit and currency cannot definitely foretold, the reserve nks should possess powers of edit and currency expansion sufient to insure the largest measure serviceability in any period of rain.

(5.) That the precise adaptation the volume of reserve credit in l its forms, including note issues, the requirements of trade, should regarded as a problem of adinistrative instead of legislative ntrol.

SKILL IN MANAGEMENT

(6.) That the development of ineased skill in management of the stem of regional banks in preferce to changes in the structure or edit powers of the system constite the best public safeguard.

(7.) That no limiting policy such one of maintenance of price staity be imposed by legislation as a finite duty upon the reserve board d the reserve banks.

(8.) That in determining the sysm's credit policies Federal Rerve authorities, with co-operation the member banks, should enavor to restrict the flow of bank edit into speculative channels en such flow is likely to produce immediate or prospective strain the reserve of member banks in eir effort to provide credit acmmodation of commerce and inustry. (In connection with this commendation the committee does t believe that there should be escription by Congress of pree methods to be followed.)

(9.) That in passing upon an apcant for rediscount accommodan, a reserve bank should be ided by the general condition of e applying bank, and the effect granting the rediscount upon safety of depositors as well as the character of the paper which applying bank bears.

MARKET OPERATIONS

(10.) That the present powers of reserve banks to engage in open rket operations should be conued.

(11) That the powers of issuance currency against gold, bankers' ceptances and eligible paper ould be continued.

(12.) That based on the recomndations of administrative offis of the reserve system there ould be a legislative revision of se provisions of the Federal Reve Act relating to member banks' erves.

(13.) That member banks should given a larger participation in nings of reserve banks with protionate reduction in earnings rered to be paid to the Federal ernment.

(14.) That the reserve system uld maintain the policy of real to pay interest to member ks upon their reserve balances.

(15.) That the governor of the rd be made its chairman.

(16.) That the Federal Reserve rd be housed in a building of its n.

(17.) That the salaries of the ernor and members of the Fedl Reserve Board should compare re favorably with the salaries d the principal administrative ers of the reserve banks.

(18.) That thoroughgoing conration be given to the relations the Treasury to the Federal Ree Board.

(19.) That the management of reserve system should provide public with such an ample unt of information as to operas and policies as will permit the nation of sound public opinion.

LE WOULD PREVENT NK-CHAIN MERGERS

ASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Depment of a system of branch king, in the opinion of John W. , Comptroller of the Currency, ld not necessarily be another toward consolidation of busis interests but would result in lly centralized capital.

ccupying the stand for the third in the House Banking Commits inquiry into group, branch chain banking, the comptroller, advocates "decentralized branch banking" to fill the need for stronger rural banks, today agreed with committee members that there should be some restriction to prevent consolidation of branch bank systems.

Representative Letts, Republican, Iowa, recalled the work of President Roosevelt in breaking up industrial and commercial combinations and asked the witness if the development of branch-banking systems would not be a step in another direction.

Pole replied that branch banking would result in concentrating banking resources in a great number of economic centers over the country, and would bring about a decentralization of capital so far as the great financial centers like New York and Chicago are concerned.

STATESMAN VINDICATED OF BRIBERY

Representative of Chicago, Together With Son, Freed by Jury Following Trial

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Representative Stanley H. Kunz and his son, Stanley Kunz, Jr., were acquitted today of charges of operating a confidence game and of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The jury deliberated two hours and ten minutes.

Mr. Kunz was accused of accepting $400 from Roman Trochowski on the promise he would obtain a civil-service appointment to the police department for Trochowski's brother. The job never materialized, Trochowski charged.

The accused father and son denied accepting the money as a bribe, but said it was a loan which later they repaid. They contended Trochowski charged the bribe because they were slow in paying the debt.

Clashes Mark Brazil Contest for Presidency

MONTEVIDEO (Uruguay) Feb. 27. Advices received here from the Brazilian frontier tell of considerable political agitation and friction in the State of Rio Grande Do Sul, growing out of the campaign for election of a Brazilian President on Saturday.

A clash occurred near Bage between followers of the candidates Julio Prestes—actual President of the State of Rio Grande Do Sul—and Getulio Vargas. Nine of the combatants were wounded seriously.

In Santa Ana Federal troops arrested four sergeants in Prestes's forces, and in Santa Maria nine persons were accused of open revolutionary propaganda.

Chimney Sweep Sticks in Stack

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—William Thorne, a chimney sweep, was stuck in a 150-foot stack for three hours today before firemen could rescue him. He was removed dazed but unhurt.

Dropped down by block and tackle from the top of the stack, Thorne was cleaning at about the third floor. After an hour the sound of his sweeping ceased.

Efforts of his employer, Paul Breznik, to haul Thorne to the top failed and firemen were called. It was finally necessary to rig a hose roller, balanced on the chimney edge, with firemen hauling from the roof, twenty feet below the chimney top.

Sanity Angle in Death Quiz

HONOLULU, Feb. 27. (AP)—A sworn statement by Col. Granville Sevier, U.S.A., that his deceased wife's brother, Ralph Shainwald, is "insane and of unsound mind" today enlivened the legal controversy here over the newest investigation of the death in August, 1923, of Mrs. Marion Shainwald Sevier, Irvington (N. Y.) heiress.

It was Shainwald who instigated the investigation. Attorneys and interested officials, conferring today in the chambers of Circuit Judge Steadman, agreed to postponement of the autopsy scheduled for 9 a.m. today until the litigation arising from it can be settled.

Assassin Traps Victim in Home

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Ralph Banna walked into a bullet when he got home early today. Samuel Sorda and Vinonzio Dibinlio were waiting when Bananna walked in. Sorda, according to Dibinlio, drew a pistol and without a word shot Bananna down. Bananna insisted he knew of no reason for the attack. Sorda escaped.

The Bananna living quarters are at the rear of a store in which Rocco Maggio, Sicilian extortionist, was shot to death last October.

COAST GUARD KEPT BUSY PATROLLING SHORELINES

Men and Vessels on Duty Day and Night, All Year 'Round, With Long Tradition of Honor

[This is the fourth and last of a series of articles on activities of the United States Coast Guard. By special permission of Rear-Admiral F. C. Billard, commanding the service, a North American Newspaper Alliance reporter and photographer spent several days with the land, sea and air forces of this branch of the government.]

BY IVAN H. PETERMAN

CAPE MAY (N. J.) Feb. 27. (NANA)—In 1790, when George Washington was President, pirates and smugglers worked a profitable "racket" along the unprotected coastline of the United States. The continental navy disbanded after the revolution and with the nation's credit unestablished it remained for the United States Revenue Cutter Service to rescue commerce and the customs business.

The service continued until 1915, when it was combined with the Live Saving Service as the Coast Guard.

Briefly, the duties of the Coast Guard as provided by acts of Congress from 1790 to the present, are:

(1.) Assisting vessels in distress.

(2.) Removing derelicts from paths of navigation.

(3.) Enforcement of anchorage laws.

(4.) International ice patrol.

(5.) Enforcement of navigation laws pertaining to merchant vessels.

(6.) Enforcement of quarantine and neutrality laws.

(7.) Suppressing mutinies on merchant vessels.

(8.) Patrolling regattas.

(9.) Protection of game and seal fisheries, enforcement of sponge fishing law.

(10.) Protection of customs revenue laws.

ALWAYS ON JOB

Twenty-four hours a day, every day of the year, Coast Guard men and vessels patrol the waters surrounding the nation, its Alaskan territory and the Great Lakes, performing the duties outlined. Says Rear-Admiral F. C. Billard, head of the service:

"There is no seagoing force anywhere that has duties more arduous, hazardous, and full of hardships, or that require a higher degree of real seamanship than those of the Coast Guard.

"The Coast Guard is not charged in any way with enforcement of the national prohibition act. It is charged, and has been since its creation, with protection of the customs laws and the prevention of smuggling into the United States. It has upheld and defended the Constitution since 1790, and will continue to do so. It enforces the sea laws of the United States, nor does it discuss or question their wisdom or their expediency.

"With a habit of mind developed by traditions and an honorable history of 139 years, when assigned any task to perform, whether agreeable or not, whether popular or not, it simply gives a sailorman's answer, 'Aye, aye, sir,' and carries on."

THOUSANDS ON DUTY

To accomplish the work of the Coast Guard there were, on June 30, 1929, 10,837 enlisted men in the Coast Guard, 242 civilian employees, 402 temporary and warrant officers, 389 regular warrant officers, seventy-seven chief warrant officers, seventy-three cadets in the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Ct., sixty-two temporary commissioned officers and 333 regularly commissioned officers.

There were twenty-one cruising cutters, first class, having from 1400 to 2000 tons displacement; fifteen second-class cutters, twenty-five destroyers turned over by the navy, thirty-nine tugs and launches, five miscellaneous patrol boats, 194 of the standard, seventy-five-foot patrol boats, thirteen 100-footers, and thirty-three 125-foot patrol boats. There were also eleven patrol boats acquired by seizure and forfeit. The guard also has five seaplanes, three at Gloucester, Mass., and two here.

These men and equipment operate out of 277 life-saving stations from Maine around the coast to the tip of the Aleutian Islands, Alaska. There are twenty-one bases similar to that here.

What type men does the Coast Guard attract?

PAY SAME AS NAVY

The age limits are 18 to 36, with the majority of men apparently under 25. The pay is the same as in the Navy; promotion is according to merits and ambition of the individual. A large percentage of the men are married, their families living at the bases.

"It's better than the Navy, because we're not being shipped around constantly, and for those who want to travel transfers are available at the end of enlistment," one man told me.

The men seem contented with life here, which in winter is none too exciting, few during their periodic leaves going farther than Atlantic City, Philadelphia or New York.

That they are zealous and alert to duty was evident during trips such as I made, and described earlier in this series. Only the officers seem aware of the possibility of encountering a smuggler; the men merely carry out orders.

ORDERS OBEYED

It is evident that the old rule about a $1-a-day man in government service being usually more dependable and impervious to "handling" than others holds true in the Coast Guard as in the Navy, the marines and the Army. Tell a sailor, a marine or a doughboy to do a job, and he does it; likewise the Coast Guard.

Difficulties arise, often of stern nature. Smuggling along the Gulf Coast, for instance, is no child's play, no more matter of a few cases of bootleg. There has been evidence that aliens such as Chinese, being brought into the country contrary to immigration laws, have been weighted and quietly slipped overboard as the Coast Guard patrol approached. Those who will slip a man over the side to his death are not exactly companionable to deal with.

Often the work is discouraging, Capt. William H. Shea, commander of the base here, pointed out. "We have seen cases," he said, "where seizures of men and boats with cargoes were made only to languish for as long as two years while court delays allowed witnesses to disappear, man to leave the service and the guilty ones to roam at will on bond.

"We have also seen boats, released under a $10,000 bond, return to the smuggling while awaiting disposition of the case!

IT'S MATTER OF PROFITS

"Our only hope to eradicate liquor smuggling is to knock the profit out of it. If a smuggler can land three or four consignments of contraband, his outlay is paid for and the rest is pure profit. On the other hand, if we capture his speedboat and cargo, or force him to lie offshore until he gives up and goes away, the victory is ours.

"Rum Row has ceased to exist. There are no more lines of anchored ships outside the limit. Some, of course, will get rid of their loads. The coast is long. But we hope to make the whole thing so unprofitable that it will die out."

Economy is observed in the Coast Guard most rigidly. Surplus army and navy supplies such as motors, planes and parts are used for building craft. There are nearly a score of Liberty engines on hand at Base 9, Cape May; one is being used in an amphibian plane, while others could be put into swift speedboats.

An oil distilling plant which takes discarded motor oils and refines them into highly efficient lubricant is also on the premises. There is no loafing by the men; everybody has a job, and "it's his neck" if he fails.

ROMANCE, TOO

And lastly, there is romance in the Coast Guard. What more picturesque duty could one want than transporting the government's "floating court" among the frozen islands of Alaska, taking judge, attorney, bailiffs and other officers to try cases of capital nature out where civilization ends? Or cruising in the Arctic with the Northland, the Haida, or the famous cutter Bear? Or warning transoceanic traffic of icebergs in the North Atlantic?

Then, to conclude, just glance over these condensed extracts from the Coast Guard's yearly log:

"Two duck hunters in rowboat caught in pack ice off Buffalo. During freezing temperatures, in snowstorm, CG-164 took them off."

"Edsel Ford's private yacht aground on Hen and Chickens ledge. CG-287 lowered a dinghy and after six dangerous trips took off the whole crew. Later the yacht was salvaged."

ASKED TO RAISE BOAT

"Fishing boat on fire in Tillamook Bay. No fire extinguisher, fishermen chopped hole in hull and sank her. Later asked Coast Guard to raise their boat."

"Carried husband, wife and their dead baby to Washington Island—Plum Island (Wis.) station."

"CG-111 took man stricken with appendicitis off steamer."

"Mr. Wagamuth of Barnegat requested we move the furniture out of his house, which was about to be washed into the sea. Moved the furniture from house and loaded it on truck. At 2:30 p.m. Mr. Wagamuth decided house was out of danger and requested we move furniture back again. Request right to change station name to 'Barnegat Dray and Hauling Company.'"

Such is the life of the Coast Guard. By land, by sea, and by air, twenty-four hours of the day, 365 days in the year.

Peace Tender Made to Mau in Western Samoa

APIA (Western Samoa,) Feb. 27. (AP)—The New Zealand administration of Western Samoa today extended the olive branch to the natives whose many years of opposition culminated December 28 in fighting during which eight natives and one white constable were killed.

A government proclamation stated that arrangements have been made for members of the Mau (native league of Samoans) to meet Administrator Allen and the New Zealand Minister of Defense at Vaimoso not later than Saturday.

No arrests, it was promised, will be made of those coming to the conference from their hiding places in the hills and elsewhere. The Mau militants must agree not to take hostile action.

Native opposition for several years has taken the form of refusal to pay taxes and boycott of stores of Europeans.

Fiend Sought as Murderer

ANTHONY (Kan.) Feb. 27. (AP)—A moron was sought today for the murder, without apparent motive, of Mrs. Ben Turner, 55 years of age, at her home here late yesterday.

The body was found, lying in a front room, by her husband when he returned from work as foreman at a slate plant last night. The head had been crushed with a farm implement; one .22-caliber bullet had passed through her forearm and entered her heart and another had entered her stomach. The house was not robbed.

The Turners had been married thirty years and never had had any trouble, friends say. No one heard the shots.

BAY CITY MAN KILLS SELF

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Arnold E. Oiver, an employee of the insurance firm of Fred S. James & Co., was found dead with a bullet wound in his head in the company's stockroom today. Police said he committed suicide.

SAN ANTONIO

When you start homeward after your wonderful vacation in California, come by way of San Antonio, whose hospitality to the stranger within her gates has been proverbial for more than 200 years.

Golden, health-giving sunlight, pouring down from the blue Texas sky, floods the countryside with beneficent warmth . . . the tangy, intoxicating air woos you to a new joy in living . . . municipal tennis courts, polo fields, swimming pools, winding bridle paths, sporty golf courses and two score, well equipped playgrounds for the children entice you to spend most of your time out of doors.

Motor over excellent highways past Spanish missions gray with age . . . up into the hills . . . down to the sea . . . through the vast domain of South and West Texas where energetic people are finding countless opportunities as great cattle ranches are transformed into winter vegetable gardens, citrus orchards and prosperous farms.

You can loaf lazily on a sunny plaza, under a whispering palm tree, or play energetically in the freedom of the great Outdoors, for San Antonio is all things to all men, and every day is a new adventure.

There is much for you to do and to see in this "mother city" of an empire. Army and civilian polo matches during March attract the interest of spectator and player alike, and you may enjoy your favorite recreation to your heart's content on the 2000 acres devoted to public play.

San Antonio offers you hotels, apartments and camps as simple or as luxurious as you like.

On your way home from California come visit this city of picturesque contrasts and revel in its charm.

FAITH INSPIRED BY BRITISH VOTE

Naval Conference Pleased Over Coal-Bill Action

Confidence in MacDonald's Reign Attested

Three-Power Plan Rumors Branded as False

LONDON, Feb. 27. (AP)—The naval conference breathed easier tonight after Prime Minister MacDonald's Labor government had won the vote on the coal bill, 280 to 271.

No one seriously thought the government would be defeated but the mere possibility of such an eventuality was enough to stir conference circles, what with a possible change of government added to the difficulty caused by the upset of affairs in France.

With MacDonald's government safely over the coal bill issue the conference will continue its careful course tomorrow, its decisions still needing the approval of the French delegation when it returns.

A series of significant three-cornered conferences between American, Japanese and British delegates signalized the actvities today of the revived naval conference.

THREE-POWER RUMOR DENIED

Whether the United States and Japan are any nearer together as a result of today's meeting on the questions of their naval needs, particularly the Japanese desire for 70 per cent of the big cruiser tonnage of the United States, was not announced tonight. The general belief in American conference circles still is, however, that the two countries will be able to work out a compromise which will satisfy themselves as well as Great Britain and France, which are indirectly interested in this compromise becoming part of the five-power disarmament treaty planned here

American and British spokesmen today reiterated their statements of yesterday there is no foundation whatever for reports that either has proposed or acquiesced in a project for a three-power pact here.

Yet, despite the lengthy statement issued by the official British spokesman yesterday one of the great London morning newspapers announced in large type that the conference aims at a three-power treaty instead of five.

AMERICANS BUSY

It was a busy day for the Americans, beginning in the early morning with a meeting called by Col. Stimson to discuss the American position. Senator Reed, who is specializing on far eastern affairs, then called on Ambassador Matsudaira of Japan for a lengthy conference.

On his return to American headquarters he was joined by Col. Stimson and J. Theodore Marriner, diplomatic adviser, and early this afternoon the three went to the House of Commons to confer with Mr. MacDonald.

Meanwhile, Ambassador Matsudaira met the other Japanese delegates. Later Senator Reed paid a second trip to the Japanese Ambassador.

While these missions were being carried out St. James' Palace was occupied by the conference experts. The technicians reported to the experts on special classes of warships. The experts will report to the first committee of the conference and the first committee will report to the conference itself. Out of all this red tape eventually will emerge clauses for a disarmament treaty.

While some conference delegates were excitedly awaiting a vote on the coal bill, Col. Stimson was dining quietly with the Primate of all England at Lambeth Palace, just across the Thames from Westminster Palace, where the House of Commons sits.

AMERICAN WOMEN RECEIVED BY QUEEN

LONDON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Wives of the delegates attending the naval conference were received in the Crimson and Gold Throne Room of Buckingham Palace by Queen Mary this afternoon.

Nearly fifty women, including also the daughters of delegates, experts and advisers, were ushered into the Queen's presence by Lord Chamberlain Cromer, who presented the feminine head of each national delegation to the Queen. The wife of each chief delegate in turn presented the women accompanying her.

Among the Americans received were Mrs. Henry L. Stimson, Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow and Mrs. Hugh R. Wilson.

PREMIER MacDONALD WINS CLASH OVER COAL

LONDON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Opposition to the government's coal bill in the House of Commons, which at first it was feared might adversely affect the naval conference if Prime Minister MacDonald were defeated, failed to materialize sufficient votes tonight and MacDonald emerged the victor by the small majority of nine votes.

The House division came on a Liberal amendment and it was considered most significant that eight Liberals abstained from voting and four voted with the government. The vote was 280 to 271.

Sir William Edge tendered his resignation as one of the Liberal whips after voting against his party. The Liberal amendment opposed the government's proposed limitation and regulation of output of coal.

Much excitement prevailed prior to the division, and David Lloyd George and other members of the opposition were loudly and ironically cheered by Laborites with cries of "Old Tory."

There was a great demonstration when it was announced the government had won. Other but less contentious coal bill clauses will be debated later.

LITTELL CONSECRATED AS HONOLULU BISHOP

HONOLULU, Feb. 27. (AP)—S. Harrington Littell became bishop of the Honolulu diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church today, at consecration services. The consecrator was Bishop Hugh L. Burleson, acting presiding bishop of the Episcopal church. Edward L. Parsons, bishop of California, and John D. McKim, bishop of Tokio, participated.

O. E. Brookhart, Des Moines, brother of United States Senator Brookhart, announced he will seek the Republican nomination for Polk county auditor at the primary election in June.

Paul Cobel, 35 years of age, Lincoln, Neb., former teller in the defunct Citizens' State Bank of Bedford, Iowa, pleaded guilty to illegal banking in District Court here and was fined $700 and ordered to repay $2752.19 in shortages.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petit, pioneer residents of Buena Vista county, have celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary.

A quarter section belonging to Carl Fick was sold to Charles J. Welland, Hanover, for $27,200.

Voters of Council Bluffs at the annual Board of Education election March 10 will be asked to vote on the teachers' annuity plan for pension.

WISCONSIN

Nearly $300,000 of the $400,000 sought by Presbyterians of Wisconsin for student work at Carroll College, Waukesha, and the University of Wisconsin, has been raised. The campaign will be closed March 9. The fund is to be used toward new buildings at Carroll College and a new student church plant in Madison.

With the Madison post of the American Legion charging mishandling of veterans who are patients at the Wisconsin Memorial Hospital, near Mendota, the State Board of Control has announced it will conduct an investigation March 4. H. C. Werner, superintendent of the institution, declared any charges that brutality was permitted at the institution are entirely untrue.

Personal property of the late August H. Vogel was estimated at $100,000 and real estate at about $3500 in a petition filed with his will. The widow, Mrs. Anita Vogel, was named residuary legatee with the request that she make such provision "for our children as shall seem best to her."

KIDNAPER'S ATTORNEY ATTACKED

Victim Says He Recognized Men Who Shot Him But Refuses to Name Them

DETROIT, Feb. 27. (AP)—Alfonso E. Sirica, attorney for James Fernando, who was convicted of the kidnaping of 5-year-old Jackie Thompson, lies dangerously wounded in Receiving Hospital, the victim of two would-be assassins, whom he says he recognized.

Sirica was shot last night by one of two men who drove alongside his automobile in a small roadster. Six charges were fired from a pump gun.

Despite the seriousness of his wounds, physicians said Sirica probably will live. The charges tore away his jaw and filled his right side with slugs. His assailants escaped in their automobile after a chase by police who were cruising near by.

Sirica, although admitting he knows his assailants, refused to give their names to police. He wrote a note to William D. Brustar, assistant prosecuting attorney, saying he recognized the men who shot him. He then asked for a police guard and refused to write further.

RICHFIELD SUES SHELL OVER REFINING PATENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Charging infringement of patent on an oil-refining process, the Richfield Oil Company filed a petition for an injunction in Federal Court here today against the Shell Oil Company of California. Named as joint plaintiffs with the Richfield company are George H. Gillons, inventor, and Edward P. Shaw, both of Los Angeles. Treble damages are asked, but no amount is named. The complaint recited that the defendant company for about six years has been using the patented process, patents for which were held under the Richfield name and certification of which was made in 1911.

WHEAT PRICES SWING UPWARD

Mounting Quotations Drown Out Farm Board's Foes

Advance Credited Chiefly to Government Buyers

Legge Asserts Complaints Resemble Propaganda

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Above the hubbub of voices clamoring criticism of the Farm Board's grain policies were heard the shouts of traders today bidding wheat futures up within 9 cents of the price the Farmers' National Grain Corporation is paying co-operative farmers for cash wheat.

Two days ago, at its weakest moment in years, March wheat sold nearly 20 cents a bushel cheaper than the government's cash price.

Final wheat prices were: March options $1.09 1-4; May $1.13 3-8 to $1.13½; July, $1.13 7-8 to $1.14; September, $1.17 to $1.17 3-8.

Today's advance of 2 1-4 to 3 7-8 cents on the Chicago market was credited chiefly to the presence of government agents in the wheat pit. Wheather they purchased wheat today was not made known, but the traders knew the Grain Stabilization Corporation had bought 3,000,000 bushels Tuesday and stood firmly on the side of higher prices.

The storm of protest from the wheat belt, directed against the Farm Board policy barring the non-co-operative wheat owner from selling at Farm Board prices, was not ended but Chairman Alexander Legge of the board indicated at Washington the stabilization program will weather the criticism.

Legge said the stabilization corporation entered the futures pit merely to check the market slump and intimated that it will repeat the process if necessary.

LEGGE SAYS PROTESTS RESEMBLE PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—Referring to complaints by grain dealers on the Farm Board policies on grain buying, Chairman Legge of the board said today that the recently formed stabilization corporation is "still in the ring and does not hesitate to face the fireworks."

The Farm Board chairman asserted that a number of the complaints were "strikingly similar to propaganda to discredit stabilization operations."

He said the chief purpose of the operations in wheat directed by the board is to get the farmers the best possible price. Legge added that the order to limit the advanced price for wheat to co-operatives was made after it was discovered that "roll-top desk farmers" were taking the wheat out of the elevators and offering it on the market as country wheat "in an effort to get the advanced prices."

The "desk farmers," the Farm Board chairman asserted, were "having a good time gypping both the board and the stabilization corporation."

Legge said that, including wheat for future delivery, stocks bought for cash and grain on which loans had been advanced, the stabilization corporation now has about 25,000,000 bushels.

Reports today indicated to the chairman that almost all available storage space for wheat had been exhausted at Omaha and Kansas City.

He added that the stabilization corporation, which started out with a credit of $10,000,000, still had sufficient funds and had indicated no immediate request for more.

OFFICER HURT IN CRASH

SOUTH GATE, Feb. 27.—Motorcycle Officer Alex Baustin had a collision with an automobile driven by Dean Satterfield of South Gate, at Firestone and Long Beach Boulevards, in which the officer sustained a fracture of the left leg and numerous cuts and bruises. He was taken to the Suburban Hospital.

THE SON OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

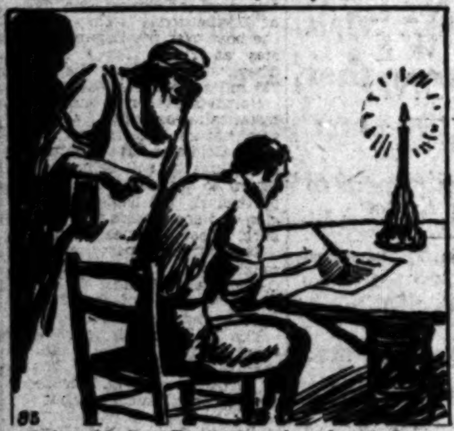
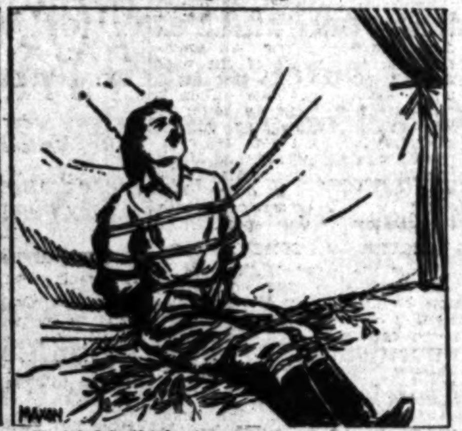
Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

When speed was required of him Korak depended on no other muscles than his own. So after Tantor had again landed him across the river, the ape-man deserted his bulky companion and took to the trees in a rapid race toward the place where, from the Swede's hint, he believed the white girl might be. Dusk was falling when he came to the old familiar palisade. Loosening the rope at his waist he tossed the noose over one of the sharpened posts.

A moment later his eyes were above the level of the obstacle taking in all within their range beyond. Close by there was no one in sight and Korak dropped lightly to the ground within the inclosure. Then he commenced his stealthy search of the village. Not even the wild Arab curs heard his passage, so silently he went. Suddenly he stopped short—scarcely believing his ears, as clear on the evening air came the strains of an old English song.





Before Morison Baynes was bound and flung into a stifling hut, the wary Sheik made him write a letter to the English consul at Algiers wherein was demanded a large sum for his release. And then for a while he was left alone, a prey to his thoughts, and the miseries of his situation, the least of which was the loathsome squealing rats. One day he heard voices raised angrily in the tent next to him. One was a woman's. He listened, convinced it belonged to Meriem.

He tried to think of some way of attracting her attention to his near presence. An idea came to him. In his rich tenor he sang a phrase from a melody he had often heard her sing during the happy days of Bwana's house party. For a moment he paused and then came her answering voice. She had recognized his. She spoke rapidly. "Good-by, Morison," she called. "It is I, Meriem. Tomorrow if I still live I shall be worse than dead, for—" A terrible silence followed.

What Was Left After the Game

One street car punted into path of another which made short work of intruder on interurban right of way.

INGLEWOOD, Feb. 27.—Mistaking the street-car right of way for continuance of the boulevard, Edward Waintrobe, 22 years of age, of Los Angeles, drove on to the tracks near Hillcrest Boulevard last night. He soon discovered his error and leaped for his life.

A northbound E car struck his machine from the rear and tossed it up on to the other track n the path of a southbound car, which demolished it.

Waintrobe, unscratched, stood by and watched his machine ground to pieces as it was buffeted along the tracks for seventy-five feet.

CROP INCREASES REPORTED

One Year's Agricultural Progress in Orange County Shows Nearly $8,000,000 Growth in Values

SANTA ANA, Feb. 27.—One year's agricultural progress in Orange county brought an increase of nearly $8,000,000 in soil products and established a new crop record at the tremendous figure of $43,067,523.14, it was shown when County Agricultural Commissioner A. A. Brock filed his annual report for 1929. Citrus returns, for the first time in history, went over the total mark of $30,000,000 to a total of $34,232,973.17, which very nearly equals the entire total of all crops last year, $35,213,195.58. Citrus returns last year were $26,006,899.70, which shows that the citrus industry accounted for the entire increased yield of $8,000,000 for the year.

Other major crops of the county, such as beans, walnuts and peppers also showed substantial gains, however, but these were balanced by losses in truck crop yield, beets, certain fruits, grain and honey. Truck crops as a whole lost by more than $1,000,000. Field crops showed gains of almost that amount. The livestock industry was virtually stationary, gaining but $10,000.

Crops increasing their yield during 1929 included citrus, beans, walnuts, hay, peppers, avocados (which doubled the 1928 yield,) berries, grapes, pecans, nursery stock, asparagus, string and green beans, carrots, peas, spinach and live stock. On the losing side were honey, grain, sugar beets, table beets, turnips, tomatoes, squash, potatoes, onions, lettuce, egg plant, cucumbers, sweet corn, celery, cauliflower, cantaloupes, cabbage, plums, apples, apricots, loquats, olives, peaches, pears and persimmons.

Valencias alone in 1929 equaled the entire citrus yield of 1928 with a total of $26,060,282.21. Valencia-bearing acreage had increased from 40,204 to 43,069 acres. Naval oranges brought $876,656.26 and grapefruit $60,294.79. Lemons brought $3,626,784.35, walnuts $2,558,182.05, peppers $1,031,096, live stock $1,772,500; hay and grain $1,068,220.

Barking of Dog Awakens Owners and Saves Home

ONTARIO, Feb. 27.—The barking of a dog locked in a flame-wrapped garage early today saved the home and probably the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Fleet, 503 East H street. Van Fleet was awakened by the excited barking of the dog and investigated. When he opened the garage door he was met with a roar of flames and the little dog scampered swiftly to safety.

The garage and two automobiles were destroyed. The entire fire department personnel was called into service to prevent the blaze igniting the home.

CHOOL MERGER PLAN TOLD

ty Officials Advise Speediest Method to Secure Consolidation of Three Districts

[illegible]DALE, Feb. 27.—Circulation of petitions to be signed by the [illegible] families in La Crescenta, asking for the consolidation of the [illegible] High School District and the Glendale and La Crescenta city [illegible], offers the speediest method of bringing about the proposed [illegible] of these three districts into one. According to a decision [illegible] after a conference of representatives of the three districts with [illegible] R. Purdam, deputy County Counsel, and H. S. Upjohn, [illegible] superintendent.

Should the proposed plan be adopted, it could be arranged to have some of the city school board resign so that their places could be filled by members of the high school board of trustees, thus giving the consolidated district a representative official body.

VERDICT IN SHERIFF'S CASE TODAY

Imperial Valley Justice to Give Decision in Suit Brought for Assault

EL CENTRO, Feb. 27.—Sheriff Charles L. Gillett, who was on trial here today on a charge of assault preferred by C. J. Taft of the Civil Liberty Union of Southern California, will hear the court's verdict tomorrow morning.

Judge I. Mayfield of the local Justice Court who heard the case, stated that he wanted to take it under advisement before rendering his decision. Taft testified that Gillett shoved him out of the County Jail office when he went there to investigate the arrest of several men who were reported to be leaders in a local strike agitation.

The Sheriff admitted that he put the complainant out, but asserted that Taft was abusive in his attitude and apparently had no legitimate business in the jail office.

Woman Patron Breaks Leg of Gas Pump Man

ENCINO, Feb. 27.—When the leg of John Moreland, 18405 Burbank Boulevard, was fractured the police of San Fernando Valley recorded the first accident of the sort in their area.

Moreland was standing beside the service pump of a gas station on Ventura Boulevard. Mrs. June Bryant, police state, drove in for gas. In some manner she lost control of the car and collided with Moreland.

The broken leg was treated at the Van Nuys Emergency Hospital.

REDLANDS, Feb. 27.—The championship basketball team of the University of Redlands will be honored with a dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce and it is expected that about 600 townspeople will attend. The dinner is to be given on March 11. The place will be announced later.

Proceeds over will be given toward awards for each of the players.

The committee in charge of arrangements, appointed by President H. S. Williamson, is Calder Bennett, chairman; Fred Clock, J. C. Sexton, Will Collett, Henry Hoffmann, Frank Loge and L. E. Mitcheil. Irwin Hein and E. P. Lindenberger were also made members to handle the publicity.

SAN DIEGO HAS FIRE EPIDEMIC

Three-Story Barracks, Fort Rosecrans, Flame-swept

Soldiers Successfully Fight Blaze Until Firemen Come

Woman's Home Destroyed, Five Other Blazes Occur

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 27.—An epidemic of fires last night and early today caused thousands of dollars of property damage, Fire Chief Louis Almgren reported today.

A blaze which swept through a three-story barracks at Fort Rosecrans caused losses which may amount to more than $1000, it is reported.

Battalion Chief J. H. Wood, who directed the fire fighting, said the barracks apparently caught fire from an overheated hot air flue. Flames licked from the ground floor up through the second story and were entering the attic when fire fighters stopped the blaze.

Soldiers attached to the fort did commendable fire fighting, Chief Wood said, and had the blaze almost under control when San Diego apparatus arrived at the fort.

HOME BURNED TWICE

The home of Mrs. Irene Winther, 2110 Guy street, was practically destroyed by fire which broke out early today. A candle which the woman used for illuminating purposes is believed to have started the blaze, firemen said.

Fifteen years ago fire destroyed Mrs. Winther's home at the same address. She had rebuilt only to suffer almost entire obliteration of her possessions last night. She was taken to the County Hospital, suffering from shock.

Fire in a chimney in the home of W. B. Johnson, 4502 Wilson avenue, called firemen to that dwelling last night. Damage was slight.

More than 500 small chickens were burned to death when fire destroyed a brooder house at 5301 Geneva street, Encanto, last night. An overheated oil heater caused the blaze.

The home of J. M. Boland, 3225 Isben street, Loma Portal, was damaged slightly by fire which was caused from a defective vent on the heater.

Fire in a drug store at 820 West Washington street was extinguished early this morning. Damage was slight. The blaze was caused from an overheated ice machine motor.

An automobile fire at Twenty-eighth and Ash streets rounded out the night of activity for the fire department. Damage to the car was slight.

HUNDRED TONS OF HAY CONSUMED IN STABLE FIRE

CHINO, Feb. 27.—Ignited from an unknown cause, 100 tons of hay and the barn in which the hay was stored were completely destroyed at a loss estimated today at $2000. The hay was stored in an old livery stable, a landmark, at Fourth and D streets, and burned quickly.

The building was owned by Thomas Holden of Ontario and the hay was the property of an Italian.

Final Rites for Pioneer Today

GLENDORA, Feb. 27.—Final rites for Mrs. Lucy Ella Elledge, 80 years of age, who passed away Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Wright of this city, following a stroke of paralysis, will be conducted tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. from White's Funeral Parlors of Azusa. Rev. Rice of Los Angeles, Methodist minister, and long time friend of the Elledge family, will officiate at the services.

Mrs. Elledge was ranked among the early pioneer families in Los Angeles having lived in California for forty-four years.

She was born in Manchester, Ill., March 15, 1848. Interment will be in Oakdale Cemetery.

ASSERTED BURGLAR'S HEARING DATE SET

MONROVIA, Feb. 27.—Arraignment of Clyde Kirby on charges of first-degree burglary has been set for next Saturday at 10 a.m. before Judge John Sturgeon in local Police Court, Chief of Police Frank Scott said today. Kirby, who is charged with the burglary of the S. D. Dodge home at 124 South Alta Vista avenue, on the 2nd inst., was apprehended in Pasadena this week, following an asserted hold-up of James Walker, Arcadia schoolboy, on Orange avenue near the city limits of Monrovia. Fingerprints taken by Lloyd Boller, in charge of the identification bureau at the local police station, are said to be identical to those photographed in the Dodge home.

TRIPLETS' LIKENESS PROVEN

Bertillon Measurements of Hertel Children Show Only Two Slight Variations in Trio, Except in Their Fingerprint Impressions

GLENDALE, Feb. 27. — The Hertel triplets, who have a habit of attracting attention by their remarkable resemblance to one another every time they are seen together, are even more alike than the average person would believe unless it were proven to him scientifically.

Lieut. F. C. Williams of the police identification bureau has just completed taking the Bertillon measurements of the three boys, William, Jr., Robert H. and John T. Hertel, and declares that they are more alike than any three persons he has seen in all the years of his police work.

One of the boys differs from his brothers by one-eighth of an inch in height, another is half a pound lighter than his brothers, but aside from these variations the only difference that can be found is in the markings on their fingerprints.

Bone measurements are practically identical, the head measurements are the same, the length of fingers and forearms, ears, features and body data correspond, and their eyes and hair are alike in color. The triplets wear the same size in shoes.

F. A. Shiler, 705 Milford street, a former instructor of the triplets while they were in the Glendale High School, furnished Lieut. Williams with information regarding their school work, and will co-operate with Williams in the preparation of an article for a police publication in which he will deal with their mental equipment, their aptitude at their studies, their ability to grasp the subjects presented in their classes and other data that will furnish light on their intellectual side.

CAR KEYS GO IN STOLEN PURSES

Guests With Machines Locked Have to Leave Them at Curb After Robbery

WALNUT PARK, Feb. 27.—A wholesale purse robbery was committed last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith at Live Oak and Seville streets while they entertained friends. Ten out of sixteen purses were stolen from a bedroom in which they had been placed early in the evening.

The discovery of the theft was made shortly before the guests were ready to leave for their homes, when one of the bedroom windows, which had been closed during the evening, was found to be opened. It is estimated that about $60 in money was secured from the purses, together with other articles, among which were keys to automobiles.

Three of the four machines had to be left at the parking spaces along the front of the residence, as the owners of the cars were unable to move them on account of the loss of the keys.

This is only one of a number of such jobs which have been reported of purse stealing in this vicinity during the past two months.

TEMBLORS IRRIGATE IN VALLEY

Earthquakes in Imperial Area Cause Geysers to Spout in Cantaloupe Field

BRAWLEY, Feb. 27. (AP)—Irrigation of cantalouqes by the natural phenomenon of earthquakes was recorded today in Imperial Valley. Underground disturbances, which shook the valley Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, caused small geysers of water to spout five inches high in a 160-acre cantaloupe field on the S. A. Gerrard Company ranch. The water irrigated the entire field and flooded adjoining ones.

Scores of small sand piles, resembling ant hills, were left by the earthquake water fountains on another nearby ranch. The field, which had been planted with beets, was completely covered by the sand.

Manslaughter Charge May be Faced by Driver

SANTA ANA, Feb. 27.—Dep. Dist.-Atty. Lew Blodget said tonight that a manslaughter charge would probably be filed against Walter (Bud) Kerns, 34-year-old local truck driver, in connection with the death last night of Burton B. Jones, 23, of Orange.

Jones was killed in an automobile crash near Bolsa when the car in which he was riding and in which Miss Betty Meeks, 23, of Smeltzer, was a passenger, crashed into a telephone post.

At an inquest today witnesses said Kerns was the driver of the car and that a bottle of liquor was found.

SUICIDE ATTEMPT BY GAS METHOD FOILED

SOUTH GATE, Feb. 27.—Christian J. Schwartz of Stanford avenue is recovering at the County Hospital from an attempt to end his life by inhaling gas. He had been in ill health for several months, the result of a stroke of paralysis, and, as he lived alone, neighbors occasionally looked after the man. Monday, he was not seen about the house, and B. A. Ashworth, who resides next door, was notified after returning home at night from his work. He found the door unlocked and entering, discovered Schwartz in bed, with the covers over his head. A gas hose had been connected with the gas line and one end was in the bed.

WORK ON SANTA CLARA DECIDED

Restoration Committees in Agreement on Plans

Construction of Protection Levees to Start May 1

Notices to be Mailed Today to Residents in Area

SANTA PAULA, Feb. 27.—Ventura and Los Angeles county restoration committees today reached a final agreement relative to the Santa Clara River protection work and by May 1 the work will be in full swing, provided the claimants sign a supplementary agreement which is now to be submitted to them by the joint committees. Inasmuch as this agreement makes it possible for the work now to proceed, it is believed, no difficulty will be had in having the 442 claimants sign. The work will cost about $400,000 and will include jetties and levees and channel deepening along the river chiefly from a point near Piru to Saticoy.

Under the original agreement this work was to have been accomplished by November 15, last, but difficulties in reaching an agreement on the nature of the work made it impossible to even get it under way by that date. Then it was agreed it would be better to let it rest until this spring. All engineering data have now been completed, surveys finished and if all signatures are secured by May 1, the work will proceed at once, bids called for, and contracts let with the greatest possible speed.

EXISTING AGREEMENT VOID

Under the terms of the supplementary contract the work must now be finished by November 15. Because of the failure of the work to be performed by November 15, last year, the existing agreement between the city of Los Angeles and the claimants is void. It is therefore necessary to have this new agreement signed. The funds are being held in escrow at the Security-First National Bank under the terms of the original agreement and will not be released until the work is accomplished to the satisfaction of the joint committee on restoration.

NOTICES MAILED TODAY

It was pointed out by members of the committee that if high water should damage some of the lands of property owners along the river this winter they could still file claims and this would not conflict with the agreement which had expired on November 15. Now the new agreement makes it possible that work will not be started until all reasonable danger of high water for the 1929-30 season has passed.

Under the new plan the work will be completed before there is any danger from water in the 1930-31 season. The notice is to be mailed tomorrow to all residents in the valley who signed river hazard claims.

Judgment Given for $25,000 in Accident Case

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 27.—A verdict for $25,000, one of the largest judgments ever given in court here, was returned in favor of Mrs. Emma D. Moriarty against W. J. Croul in Superior Court last night.

Mrs. Moriarty testified in her own behalf. She had to be helped to the witness stand. She told of the accident in which she was injured. She was driving west along East Cabrillo Boulevard, while William Croul, the defendant, was going east. Frank Erro in another automobile also was driving west. Erro and Croul crashed, the former's automobile losing a wheel and striking in turn Mrs. Moriarty's machine, according to the testimony. Erro was not hurt severely, but Mrs. Moriarty received several severe fractures and internal injuries.

Yesterday another suit against Croul, involving damages asserted to have been received in the same accident, was filed in Superior Court. Mrs. Edna Miller, who says she was riding with Erro, filed the suit. She asked approximately $1000 damages. The accident occurred last March.

Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN GOAL NOT ATTAINED

ONTARIO, Feb. 27.—Considerably behind the original program in raising the $7500 set by the local Young Men's Christian Association in the drive now under way, officials of the campaign today expressed belief the fund will be complete by the end of the week. At the latest report Division C was leading with C. K. Close, George Gibbs, James Pittinger and H. A. Vermilyea topping the list of Division C teams. Seven teams had made no report.

VAN NUYS MOVES TO LENGTHEN AVENUE

VAN NUYS, Feb. 27.—The Board of Supervisors has been asked for an allocation of $28,000 for the opening and widening of Tyrone avenue, from the southern edge of the local townsite to Magnolia Boulevard. The northern end of Tyrone avenue, the distance of a mile, already is paved. The Los Angeles City Council already has approved of the importance of the proposed opening of the thoroughfare. Tyrone avenue is one of the principal residential streets here.

FLOWER LOVERS HEAR TALK

VAN NUYS, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Helen W. King, garden editor of the Farm and Garden, Los Angeles Times magazine, was principal speaker before the San Fernando Valley Horticultural Society, which met here tonight in the Public Library. Scores of flower lovers heard the address.

THIS YARN WILL LURE'M WEST

Grapes and Peach Blooms in Floral Paradise at Tujunga

TUJUNGA, Feb. 27.—Here's a news story which ultimately will find its way back east, to disturb the sidewalk snow shovelers and the boys tending the basement furnaces.

Guy Berry has a grapevine at his home on Potential street on which new grapes are now forming. The vine is three years of age, and it has shown a marked tendency toward early bearing. Alongside the grapevine are peach trees in blossom and other green things in thick bloom.

A wild yet pet mocking bird roosts in a yellow-flowered acacia tree and sings as he guards Berry's floral paradise.

MIDWINTER FAIR WELL PATRONIZED

Residents of South End of Imperial Special Guests; Baby Blimp Expected

IMPERIAL, Feb. 27.—With three horse-racing events on the program today as a special attraction, Imperial Valley people turned out in record numbers to attend the third day's session of the Midwinter Fair, which is to close here next Sunday night.

The sandstorm, which resulted in the temporary closing of the main exhibit tents yesterday, gave way to clear, cool weather and the grounds were thronged with visitors throughout the afternoon.

Residents from the communities in the southern part of Imperial county were the special guests today and the highways from Calexico and El Centro were thronged with motor cars. The north-end towns are to be entertained tomorrow and the horse-racing program is to be continued until Saturday.

According to information received here this morning, the baby dirigible Volunteer is due to arrive late this evening and remain through the remainder of the week.

Walnut Groves in Need of Good Spring Soaking

RESEDA, Feb. 27.—County farm advisers, after a series of inspections, today announce that if walnuts in San Fernando Valley are to produce the coming season as well as they did last year orchards must be irrigated at once.

Rains so far this season have only served to sink into the soil about four feet, which is not down sufficient to give deep roots moisture. It is stated by the farm advisers that all walnut groves must have adequate moisture at the beginning of the spring growth in order that walnuts may obtain size as rapidly as possible. San Fernando Valley last season produced nearly 1200 tons of walnuts.

Unless more rains come or an initial irrigation program is begun soon, there is a belief the coming crop may fall far short of the tonnage just harvested.

DOG BITES NOSE WHEN GIRL PEERS INTO AUTO

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 27. Paraphrasing an old maxim, little Grace Martin, 10 years of age, will look first the next time she peeks. The girl hastily peeked into the automobile belonging to a friend. A small dog in the car, more frightened than anything else, leaped up and bit her on the nose. The girl was taken to the local emergency hospital and treated for a laceration about two inches long. She is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Martin of 625 Orange avenue, Burbank.

SCOUTS INVITED TO FETE

Beaumont Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival Committee Extends Invitation to Boys' Organization

BEAUMONT, Feb. 27.—Boy Scouts of Riverside county have been invited to help in handling the traffic and helping in other ways at the Beaumont Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival. Beaumont Troop No. 32 and the new Japanese Troop No. 12 of Riverside, organized last Friday night, will be the guard of honor to the visiting Japanese consular officials. John H. Leecing of Riverside, county Scout executive, has sent to each troop in the county an inviation to be present.

It is possible that Harry K. Mayada of Sacramento, who won the highest award in scouting in the New York Court of Honor last month, with others of his troop who toured Japan with him, may attend the Cherry Blossom festival. They plan to visit here in the spring, and are making efforts to arrive in time for the celebration of their countrymen in the San Gorgonio Pass groves.

"Congratulations to the Beaumont Rotary Club for its splendid work in promoting good will and understanding among the Japanese," writes Mayada to that organization. "I wish that in a short time in the future I will be able to speak to your club and convey to them greetings from the 'Land of the Rising Sun.'"

District Governor Harvey B. Lyon of Oakland, Rotary head for California and Nevada, has approved, and is boosting for the Beaumont festival. He writes to the local club: "I have enjoyed reading about the plan you are promoting in Beaumont—the Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival. And I shall be glad to tell about it in my next monthly letter. It is a very unique idea and should be of greatest interest to the clubs all over the district." The governor's letter goes to 134 clubs.

J. G. Iseda, secretary of the Japanese Association of Riverside, announces definitely that musical numbers will be given by the girls of the Yamato Music School. Miss Katayama of Los Angeles, recently moved from Seattle, who is an accomplished violinist, was engaged last week to participate in the festival activities.

TINY CRAFT ON COLORADO TRIP

Group in Fifteen-Foot Boat Brave Tortuous River

Material Secured for Talks at Explorers' Club

BLYTHE, Feb. 27.—Gathering experience data for the Explorers' Club lectures at New York and enjoying a winter vacation, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. North, their 15-year-old daughter and George Brayman, civil engineer, docked at the Blythe Bridge today for supplies after having made the journey from the Boulder Dam site in a fifteen-foot boat navigated by manpower.

The exploring party expect to ride the waves of the Colorado on through to the gulf of California. They have taken the trip slowly, leaving Las Vegas the 13th inst. They have ridden about five hours daily and have docked at Fort Mojave for one day, at Needles for two days, at Parker one day, and at Blythe today. They will carry the boat over the Laguna Dam and stay at Yuma for a few hours. They estimated that they traveled 225 miles from Las Vegas here.

North is gathering material of a historical, geographical and agricultural nature, concerning the entire lower Colorado River basin for use in lectures he will deliver upon his return to the East. He is studying particularly the Indians of this region and spent some time at Ehrenburg, ghost city near here.

The intrepid party encountered rough going through the Black Canyon and Boulder Canyon but found the rest of the trip to be smooth and uneventful.

The little boat is four feet and three inches in width and but twenty-two inches deep. The front is partly covered and decked and there is an air compartment at the rear. North is a member of the Explorers' Club of New York City.

Health Official Promoted From Monrovia Office

MONROVIA, Feb. 27.—As a new phase of county health work to be inaugurated by county health officials beginning March 1, W. S. Mangold, sanitary supervisor of Monrovia district for six years, has been promoted assistant to Dr. D. Baker of Los Angeles, dean of the newly organized school of instruction for county sanitation officers with headquarters located in Belvedere Gardens, it was officially announced today by Dr. J. M. Furstman, district health officer.

Mangold's former position with the local health office will be temporarily filled by W. A. Grayson, sanitation officer of Baldwin Park.

Mangold will assume his new duties next Monday at offices located at 678 Ferris street, Belvedere Gardens.

As a token of esteem, Mangold was yesterday presented with a fountain-pen set by Dr. Furstman and members of his staff.

MAN HELD ON BAIL ON ASSAULT CHARGE

HUNTINGTON PARK, Feb. 27.—Ray Canlas of East First street, Los Angeles, has been placed under bail of $1500 for preliminary hearing before Judge Edward H. Miller, next Monday, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on Robert Wilton of this city. The asserted offense is said to have been committed on Pacific Boulevard one night early this week, in which Canlas is declared to have cut Wilton on the left arm and in the left side with a knife.

QUOTA LACK DELAYS SECRETARY QUESTION

UPLAND, Feb. 27.—Members of the Chamber of Commerce will soon make final decision on the proposition of employing full-time or part-time secretary, Glenn M. Atwood, president of the chamber, said today. Employment of a full-time secretary has been delayed some time as the quota set for chamber operations had not been reached. With this figure now in sight it is believed the plan will be more favorably received. G. E. Kirk is present part-time secretary.

NEON EXPANSION PROGRAM AFOOT

Electrical Products Plans San Diego Factory

Combined Cost of Site and Building $18,000

Plant to Care for Needs in Immediate District

Marking the first of six factory branches to be established at various cities in California, Electrical Products Corporation of California, subsidiary of Claude Neon Electrical Products Corporation, Ltd., will shortly begin construction of a plant at San Diego, Paul D. Howse, president of the company, announced yesterday.

The company has purchased for $8000 a lot at Kettner and Date streets, San Diego, and its architects are preparing plans for a one-story building, which will cost about $10,000 and provide 4000 square feet of floor space. This new branch is scheduled to be completed by June 1, next.

Mr. Howse explained that the company's business in the State has developed to the point where it is necessary to establish these branch plants. In San Diego the company has 300 signs and the new branch factory will take care of the business in that city and in San Diego and Imperial counties and Northern Mexico.

The locations of the other five branch factories will be announced as soon as the details of acquisition of sites are completed, Mr. Howse said. With their establishment the company will effect considerable economies in operation as well as improve the company's service facilities, he added.

The company now has factories in Los Angeles and Oakland. It recently began a $50,000 addition to its local plant.

Mr. Howse said that February business is running ahead of the same month last year, indicating that the trend is again upward after shading off in January. Prospects throughout the territory served by the company have improved materially in the last few weeks and the outlook is regarded as very favorable by the official.

Organization Perfected by Tunc Packers

Organization of the Tuna Packers' Association of California has been perfected, it was announced yesterday with eleven of the thirteen plants in Southern California as members. The other two are expected to join as soon as absent executives return.

Enrollment of the two will give the industry 100 per cent membership in the association, whose members pack practically all the tuna in America, now running beyond 1,200,000 cases annually.

Better pack, with higher standards and a greater appeal are objects of the new body, according to Sam Hornstein, president of Coast Fisheries Company, president of the association.

Dr. Norman Hendrickson, long with the Federal food and drug administration, has been employed to head a staff of laboratory scientists in furthering the association's purposes.

NET INCOME OF MILLING UNIT RISES

Taylor Company Earnings Increase 10 Per Cent in Year Period

Net profits of the Taylor Milling Corporation for 1929 totaled $507,805.72 after all charges including taxes, equivalent to $5.07 a share on the outstanding common stock, according to J. Hartley Taylor, president, who yesterday issued the annual statement.

These profits compare with $459,649 reported earned in 1928 or $4.59 a share and represent an increase of 10 per cent. Net sales increased 8 per cent from $6,123,382 in 1928 to $6,627,716 for 1929. After payment of $237,501 in regular and extra dividends, $270,304 was added to surplus.

Current assets on December 31, last, amounted to $1,298,453 and total current liabilities $313,453.29 a ratio of more than four to one. Among these liabilities are dividends declared payable January 2, last, of $112,500. There is no funded debt.

"During the year all plants have been kept in splendid condition," Mr. Taylor said. "A steadily increasing business necessitated additions to the Los Angeles and Stockton properties, both of which are now completed. Conditions in the industry remain excellent, and a very successful year is anticipated for 1930."

Tone Steady on London Market

LONDON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—The stock market had a steady tone today with but little business still transacted. Issues of trans-Atlantic interest were firm. Austin Motors Shares were in good demand while Courtauld's Securities had a weak tone due to the depressing earnings statement. Rubber, tobacco and textile issues were quiet. Wireless and cable shares were lower. Margarine and molasses securities were quiet while match shares were cheerful. The oil group had a cheerful tone while the mining group was quiet with the exception of Rhodesian shares which were firm. Ford Motors, Ltd., was quoted around £2 31-32, Brazilian Traction ordinary around 38 1-4, and International Nickel around 38 3-8.

The gilt-edge division had a firm tone despite the unchanged bank rate. Foreign issues generally were quiet. Home rails had an easier tone while Argentine rails were steady. United Railways of Havana were weak due to passing of preferred dividend.

Security House Adds New Unit

Casamajor, Doty & Buttolph, security house with headquarters in Pasadena, has just acquired the business of Gaunt, Rudy & Campbell, dealers in unlisted securities in Los Angeles, it was announced yesterday.

R. B. Rudy has been appointed resident manager for Los Angeles and will maintain offices in the Van Nuys Building. Casamajor, Doty & Buttolph is a member of the Los Angeles Curb Exchange and engages in the distribution of a widely diversified list of investment securities.

DIVIDENDS PAID

LONDON, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Austin Motor Co., Ltd., has declared three and one-half years dividend arrears on its 6 per cent B preference stock to the period ended December 31, last, and 20 per cent on preferred ordinary and on ordinary shares, representing a total of £354,000.

NET LOSS SHOWN

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) Century Ribbon Mills, Inc., today reported for the year ended December 31, last, consolidated net loss of $27,269 after expenses and depreciation, as against a net income of $60,781 in 1928, or $4.11 a share on $1,479,500 of 7 per cent preferred stock.

ASSESSMENT ARMY READY

County Officer Starts Monday on Annual Survey of Real and Personal Property; Rules Reviewed

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Preliminary drill work was given yesterday by County Assessor Hopkins to a special corps of 500 deputies, who will be deployed throughout the county on Monday for the annual valuation of real and personal property for assessment purposes.

Between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in June, the Assessor's deputies will be canvassing the county. Taxpayers have, under the law, until the first Monday in July to report real and personal property, and after that date a severe penalty is imposed for failure to comply with the law.

DATES SPECIFIED

Taxes on personal property, when not secured by real estate, are due and payable when the assessment is made. On real estate the law has been changed somewhat relative to the dates of payment. The first installment is now due November 1 and delinquent December 5. Final payments are due January 20 and delinquent April 20.

Mr. Hopkins warns, with respect to intangibles, or securities and solvent credits, that after the first Monday in July his office will levy a penalty of four times the amount of the regular tax on all securities and credits not previously reported. The fact that a person accidentally omitted to file a return or was ill or absent from the county will not exempt him from the penalty.

As the California law now stands, securities of corporations operating outside of the State are taxable at the rate of $2 per $1000 on the proportion of properties located in other States. Stocks, bonds, mortgages, trust deeds and contracts secured wholly by pledge of real estate in California are exempt. The tax is payable on the full market value of the security.

PAYMENT ILLUSTRATED

Holders of non-California securities will pay, for example, a tax of $10 on 100 shares of a stock selling at $50 a share on March 3, the date of assessment. Taxpayers holding securities of corporations operating partly in California can determine the percentage on which the tax is payable by consulting a list at the Assessor's office showing the percentage of property inside and outside of California for a comprehensive group of companies.

Holders of securities on margin are regarded by the assessor as the legal owner and are liable for taxes on the full market value. Moreover, the amount of indebtedness against the stock is not deductible. But the holder of securities on margin may balance the amount of the indebtedness against his total of taxable solvent credits, such as his commercial bank account.

Solvent credits, or accounts receivable and bank balances, commercial and checking, are taxable at the rate of $1 per $1000, or 1-10 of 1 per cent.

COUNTY RATE APPLIES

Real property in Los Angeles county is assessed at 50 per cent of the actual value, as determined by the assessor. Against this assessment the county tax rate, averaging about $4 per $100 of assessed valuation, is levied. Taxpayers have the privilege of conferring with the visiting deputies on the value of real estate, home furnishings, etc., or accepting an arbitrary valuation. They may also voluntarily send a complete list of property to the assessor's office and obtain his ruling on exemptions, valuation and assessment.

On the reporting of securities, the brokerage houses in Los Angeles are co-operating with the assessor in advising clients of their willingness to submit lists of holdings for assessment. Otherwise, the assessor insists on complete lists of all securities from the taxpayer, except United States bonds and California mortgages. The assessor will examine the lists and eliminate any which are exempt.

Los Angeles brokers' loans for the week ending the 26th inst. as reported yesterday by the members of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange totaled $27,938,783, an increase of $2,114,967 over the figure reported for the previous week.

New Financing on Mart for Distribution

New financing now being offered for public distribution includes industrial, railroad and utility issues, according to announcement made yesterday. As previously forecast, the $10,000,000 Crown Zellerbach Corporation ten-year, 6 per cent gold debentures with common stock purchase warrants are being tendered at 96 and interest to yield 6.25 per cent by a banking group comprising Blyth & Co., Bancamerica-Blair Corporation, Continental Illinois Company and J. Barth & Co.

E. A. Pierce & Co. and Merrill Lynch & Co. are heading a syndicate which is offering a block of MacMarr Stores, Inc., 7 per cent preferred stock with common stock purchase warrants. The offering price is $103 per share, yielding 6.80 per cent. Each share of preferred carries a warrant to purchase one share of common at $30 until December 31, 1933. The company ranks second among the grocery chains west of the Mississippi. Preliminary figures on 1929 earnings after certain adjustments show $2,075,000, equal to 3.48 times dividends on the preferred stock to be outstanding.

Headed by the First National Old Colony Corporation, a syndicate is marketing $8,085,000 St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company 4½ per cent trust certificates series "DD," due 1931 to 1935, at prices to yield 4.50 to 4.70 per cent according to maturity. A group headed by Stone & Webster and Blodget, Inc., is offering $4,500,000 Western Public Service Company 5½ per cent bonds, due 1960, at 94½ and interest to yield 5.89 per cent.

Oates to Head Oil Company

Huntington Central Oil Company yesterday announced the election of H. P. Oates as president. Mr. Oates was instrumental in the organization and promotion of the Occidental Petroleum Corporation, of which he formerly was president and was also formerly associated with the Montebello Oil Company, later merged with the Ventura Oil Company, now controlled by the Texas Corporation.

Under the policy of Mr. Oates, the company will own oil lands and leases in all parts of the State. It recently purchased 160 acres in Ventura county, the northeast quarter of Sec. 25, T. 4 N., R. 21 W., also a long-term lease on twenty-three acres in T. 4 N., R. 22 W., and is now acquiring leases in the new fields being opened in the State of Washington.

New Air Brake Unit Launched

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Westinghouse Air Brake Company and Bendix Aviation Corporation have formed a new company to be known as Bendix-Westinghouse Automotive Air Brake Company, the entire capital stock of which will be owned by both the parent organizations, it was announced here today.

The new company will operate what heretofore has been the automotive division of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, supplying the air-brake equipment for busses, trucks and other types of automotive vehicles. Westinghouse will continue the manufacture of automotive brake equipment for the new company.

BOND DEALERS FETE LEADERS

I.B.A. Executives Honored at Annual Meeting

Outlining the association's work to solve a large number of important problems which have in late years borne down on the high competitive bond dealers' business, Trowbridge Callaway, president of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, last evening addressed a large gathering of members of the local chapter at the Biltmore, where, with Alden H. Little, executive vice-president, he was guest of honor.

James R. Page, president of the California Bank, as toastmaster, introduced the speakers. Sir Thomas White, vice-president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and former Canadian Minister of Finance, was also on the program. More than 500 bond men of Los Angeles attended.

"Changes in the investment banking business," said Mr. Callaway, "have been so drastic that we are confronted with the necessity of greatly increased efficiency and economy in the conduct of our business. Accordingly, the association, which is in effect a very practical financial laboratory, is working on numerous problems of the business."

Some of the problems, Mr. Callaway listed, related to a more highly developed system of cost accounting, methods of determining salesmen's compensation, charges for various types of services and specifications for circulars offering the issues of oil, natural gas, warehouse, ice and other companies of an industrial service nature.

These problems, he said, have sprung up with the rapid growth of the securities business since the World War. The business now serves twenty to thirty persons when before the war it served only one, he pointed out.

"One out of twenty-two standing committees, to which the board assigns the problems of investment banking, now has the task before it of determining the facts to be put into circulars in an effort to standardize the procedure," he said.

YOUR INCOME TAX

NO. 22

Provision is made in the Revenue Act which allows a taxpayer who sustains a net loss in a trade or business regularly carried on by him to deduct the amount of such net loss when computing his net income for the succeeding taxable year, and if such loss is in excess of the net income for that year, the excess may be carried over and deducted in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year.

When computing a net loss under this provision of the act there may be included losses from the sale of real estate, machinery and other capital assets used in the trade or business, but does not include losses arising from transactions not connected with the business except to the extent of the amount of gross income derived from such outside transactions. That is, if an individual had a taxable income from outside sources of $2000, and sustained a net loss from his trade or business of $8000, and also allowable deductions outside of his business of $4000, for 1928, he would be allowed to carry over $8000 as a deduction in computing his net income for 1929.

STOCK RETIRED

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) Stockholders of Cluett, Peabody & Co., Inc., at their annual meeting re-elected the retiring directors and approved the retirement of 13,000 shares of preferred stock held in the company's treasury, reducing this issue during the past year from $6,000,000 to $4,700,-

MIAMI BANKER GIVES VIEWS

President of First National Blames Operating Plan for Numerous Failures in Ten Years

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 27.—The First National Bank of Miami in the boom days had $75,000,000 in deposits. Then some men seeking credit found it impossible to borrow on real estate collateral. But banks must be in shape at all times to pay depositors money when they want it. So this bank kept its funds in cash and government bonds, and on call in New York today it has about $19,000,000 on deposit, although at one time it went down to $15,000,000.

"Yes, we had $75,000,000 on deposit at one time, and we have about $19,000,000 now. But we are more liquid than we were when we had the larger amount," said E. C. Romfh, president, in discussing banking conditions in this section.

"The first job of a banker is to protect depositors' money—hard-pressed prospective borrowers often object to the implications of such a policy."

Discussing general banking conditions, this Miami banker made this statement:

"When 5000 banks close their doors within ten years in the United States something must be wrong with the system. Not all those bankers were incompetent, or dishonest, or both. Some were good bankers. So what is the trouble?

"I believe it lies basically in a faulty book-keeping and auditing system. Banks, both city and country, have been for a long time handling our various services, without cost, providing only a customer has a small deposit in the bank.

"But why should a bank do this any more than any other business? You come in and ask me today for $100 and you give me your check on New York. I give you $100 cash, but your check I do not get cashed for four or five days. Why shouldn't you pay the interest involved on that item during that period, and also the cost of handling that item on our books?

"When the par collection of checks was inaugurated by the Federal Reserve, the back log of the country bank was taken away. The country banker, who had made a considerable part of his overhead in this manner, found this means of revenue gone. What did he do?

"What would you do?

"He increased his local loans in order to bring in larger revenue so as to make more money.

"Then when times got hard in his local community and depositors wanted their money, he often found himself unable to accommodate them because his local loans could not be turned into cash and his bank closed up. I don't think enough attention has been paid to this problem of giving the banker, especially the country banker, compensation for this definite service."

"Make that point specific, Mr. Romfh," I said.

"Well, we put in a service charge of $1 a month on all accounts which didn't average over $100 a month in order to make up for the exchange loss. But in checking our books we found that many of the smaller accounts made us do the most work. We were doing all of their book-keeping for them and it was costing us more than the $1 a month in most cases. So what did we do?

"We raised the service charge to $2 a month on all accounts under $300. Yes, we lost a lot of small accounts—probably $250,000 altogether, but our work was so lightened that we were able to carry on with half the force that we had before.

"Let the country banker stiffen up. Let him analyze his different activities adn find out in which ones he is losing money. Then let him have courage enough to put on charges so that he will not be forced to overload on high interest bearing local loans, which in times of stress and depression always embarrass and often break both him and the bank."

Goodrich Tire Records Heavy Earnings Gain

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) B. F. Goodrich Company for the year ended December 31, last, today reported consolidated net income of $7,446,310 after interest, depreciation and Federal taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $4.53 a share on the outstanding common including shares subscribed for by employees, or to $5.10 a share on the average common shares, as against $2,513,023, or $1.49 a share on 749,910 common shares outstanding in the previous year.

Sales and profits of Hood Rubber Co., Inc., were included only since August 30, last, the date of acquisition.

Total sales for the year were $164,494,967, as compared with $148,805,178 in 1928.

Gould Coupler Profits Jump

Gould Coupler Company reported today consolidated net income for 1929 of $284,740 after all charges including Federal taxes, equal to $1.62 a share on 175,000 Class A cumulative, participating shares against $57,391, or 33 cents a share in 1928.

Net profits for the quarter closed December 31, last, amounted to $153,595, equal to 88 cents a share, against $52,348, or 30 cents a share reported earned in the preceding quarter and a net loss of $15,302 in the final quarter of 1928.

BRANCH OF CITIZENS' BANK MOVING SOON

Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank on Saturday will move its branch at 4371 South Vermont avenue to 440 South Vermont avenue at the southeast corner of Vernon avenue, Herbert D. Ivey, president, announced yesterday. The branch will remain under the management of H. W. Brown with whom J. C. Wilson is associated as assistant manager. Citizens' National maintains thirty-two banking offices located throughout metropolitan Los Angeles and it is understood the early opening of additional branches is definitely contemplated.

CAVERN DEPTHS LURE NEWS MEN

New York Party to Explore Carlsbad Recesses

Venture Arouses Interest in Great Cave

Second Opening Still to be Discovered

CARLSBAD CAVERN (N. M.) Feb. 27. (AP)—The presence of a party of New York newspaper men bent upon penetrating the unexplored recesses of the mighty Carlsbad Cavern has stimulated fresh interest in this underground wonderland. The lure of the unknown adds charm to this subterranean palace of natural marvels.

While more than twenty miles of vast chambers and passages of the cavern have been explored and charted, new tunnels are constantly being discovered leading to chambers of crystalline loveliness even more spectacular than those already known. The National Geographic Society made a comprehensive exploration in 1923.

ONE OPENING KNOWN

The only known mouth of the cavern is at the top of one of the rolling foothills of the Guadalupe range. This chain of mountains forms the southern end of the Rocky Mountain system. There is another opening somewhere, but it has never been discovered.

Just recently a remote chamber was discovered containing a lake seventy-five feet deep. Among other finds in the past year were some chambers adorned with a vast array of stalactites of lace-like delicacy.

Another chamber in the same vicinity has a small lake with three islands resembling volcanic cones.

Every day throughout the year a crowd of visitors is taken through this great show underground. They are treated to rare sights of this many ringed circus in stone. There are colossal columns of exquisitely molded onyx and limestone and also some of the finest of lace-like traceries in stone filigree.

STAIRWAYS BUILT

A petrified menagerie of animal figures is scattered about in the cavern, adding touches of humor to the natural splendors.

In the past five years the government has made notable improvements for the comfort of visitors. Instead of a bucket lift in which persons made the descent into the cavern a few years ago, there is now a system of stairways and broad safe roadways of easy grade down which tourists are taken to the 750-foot level.

Courteous rangers act as guides and explain the wonders of the caves. Electric lights emphasize the beauties and make traveling easy. At one point in the tour a stop is made beside the "Rock of Ages," a mammoth spectacular column of stone which geologists estimate has been 60,000,000 years in the making. From this point a panorama of peaks and mounds is visible and gives the impression of a range of mountains seen from a commanding height.

CAVE NOW PARK

Beneath the 750-foot level of the "big room" of the cavern is another vast chain of caverns, 1750 feet further below the surface of the ground. The bottomless pit, a yawning chasm that stirs the imagination, the king's palace, the devil's den, are only a few of the vast passages through which visitors are taken on a seven-hour trip.

Recently a bill was introduced in Congress to convert the cavern and vast surrounding territory into a national park. The cavern was made a national monument by a proclamation of President Coolidge in 1923.

In one tunnel of the Carlsbad Cavern millions of bats make their home. In the summer time they fly in vast clouds from the opening of the cave at dusk, spend the night gathering insects and other food in the surrounding country and return at daylight for rest. They hibernate in the cave for the winter. Bat Cave is not open to visitors.

COPRA AND HEMP

Conditions of the copra and hemp markets at Manila, P. I., as of the 20th inst. are described in the following report, issued yesterday through the Los Angeles office of the United States Department of Commerce:

Copra production during January continued very light; Manila arrivals totaling 186,294 bags, compared with 330,665 bags a year ago. Local copra prices were above foreign market equivalents and trading for export light. Mills operated sporadically and month closed with only three pressing. Little authoritative data available regarding leaf miner situation, but government resorting to drastic measures and now obligating every able-bodied citizen in affected districts to give one day per week to fighting pest. Copra prices today, Cebu and Legaspi, 10.875; Manila, 10.75; Hondagua, 10.50. Receipts during February, Cebu, to 14th totaled 110,393 bags; Manila, to 18th totaled 112,442 bags.

Hemp market was weak and slow during January; prices steadily declined and the month closed with prices on all grades materially lower. United States demand was unsatisfactory, indicating hand-to-mouth buying and both European and Japanese markets were quiet. Receipts month of January up to 27th were 98,418 bales and exports same period 105,285, of which United States took 39,390. Market today quiet; prices nominal: E. 22½; F. 20½; I. 17½; JUS. 14½; JUK. 14; L. 12½. Small producers reported storing their hemp rather than sell at present prices.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: February closes with the promise in the early part of the month of a pick-up in steel specifications from the automotive industry. In the past ten days specifications have undergone considerable shrinkage. Some releases for early March shipments have been suspended. Strip steel specifications show no further expansion although incoming tonnage so far this month continues slightly ahead of that in the comparable period of January. Shipments to the automotive interests have increased moderately.

Iron and steel warehouses report a slight but steady increase in demand. Pig iron buyers at Chicago continue to buy closely and current sales represent March requirements to a large extent. Shipments of pig iron are encouraging and estimates are that February deliveries will be 12 to 15 per cent ahead of January.

Each bond of this issue will be accompanied by a stock purchase warrant, non-detachable except when exercised, evidencing the right of the holder to purchase, subject to the provisions thereof, at any time on or before February 2, 1935 (or if these bonds are called or the company dissolved prior to such date, then on or before but not after such redemption or dissolution date) two shares of the Class A Stock, $1.60 Dividend Series, of North American Gas and Electric Company (a Delaware Corporation) for each $100 principal amount of the accompanying bond at the following prices: to and including February 2, 1932 at $20 per share, thereafter to and including February 2, 1934 at $22 per share and thereafter to and including February 2, 1935 at $25 per share.

THESE BONDS ARE LISTED ON THE CHICAGO STOCK EXCHANGE

The following information is summarized by Mr. Phillips B. Shaw, President, from his letter to us:

BUSINESS AND TERRITORY: Washington Gas and Electric Company will presently own or control through subsidiaries a group of properties supplying electric light and power, manufactured gas or water in the States of Washington, Utah and Oregon, and in the Province of Saskatchewan, Canada. The total population served is estimated to exceed 270,000 and the number of gas, electric and water customers is in excess of 30,000.

SECURITY: The First Lien and General Mortgage Gold Bonds will be secured by pledge with the Trustee, on terms and conditions set forth in the Mortgage, of all common capital stock of Oregon Gas and Electric Company, and more than 99½% of the common capital stock of Dominion Electric Power Company and of Dixie Power Company. These bonds will be further secured by a direct mortgage on all of the fixed property owned by Washington Gas and Electric Company, subject to bonds which may be secured by any prior lien now or hereafter created or existing on the property, and of which $3,596,000 principal amount of First Mortgage bonds are outstanding with the public.

EARNINGS: For the 12 months ended October 31, 1929, the consolidated earnings of Washington Gas and Electric Company and its subsidiaries were as follows:

Gross Earnings, all sources ... $1,830,096
Operating Expenses, Maintenance and Taxes (other than Federal) and Subsidiary Fixed Charges ... 1,190,231
Net Earnings available for interest and depreciation ... $ 639,865
Annual Interest Requirements on First Mortgage Gold Bonds ... 197,780
Balance ... $ 442,085
Annual Interest Requirements on First Lien and General Mortgage Gold Bonds (this issue) ... 120,000

The balance of net earnings as shown above, available for interest requirements on the First Lien and General Mortgage Gold Bonds, was more than 3.68 times such requirements. Net earnings as shown above were more than twice total annual interest requirements on all funded debt of the Company outstanding with the public, including this issue.

MANAGEMENT: The general supervision of the company's properties is under the direction of Loeb & Shaw, Inc., the principals of which have managed important public utility properties over a period of years. Supervision charges are, under contract, payable only out of excess earnings after interest charges on the company's funded debt, and accordingly have not been included in the above statement of earnings.

Bullish Demonstration in Edison Features Trading as Market Holds Firm Tone

Speculative interest centered on Southern California Edison in yesterday's session of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. The issue was the most active stock on the board and ran up a point to mark another new top for the year at 65. Final sales were at 64⅞. The original preferred stock scored a new peak at 66 on a jump of 1½ points.

The market as a whole maintained a generally firm tone with the oil stocks standing fairly steady. Rio Grande was the only petroleum issue in which the trading activity approached the high rate of the preceding session. The stock firmed up 1-8 to 18 7-8. Standard of California, with a closing bid at 59 3-4, was not traded. Richfield dipped 1-4 to 24; Union 5-8 to 42½ and Union Associates 1-4 to 42. Pacific Western held to 14.

Rights to purchase Pacific Lighting stock were traded for the first time and ranged between 3.55 and 3.60, closing at the latter price. The stock eased 1-4 to 90. Southern California Edison rights, after selling up to 3.60, closed at 3.55 for a net gain of 5 cents. Pacific Gas sold at 63 and Pacific Public Service advanced 3-4 to 37 3-4.

Transamerica Corporation at 45 3-8 was unchanged and Pacific Finance firmed up 1-8 to 38 3-4. International Re-Insurance rallied 2½ points to 47½. Claude Neon traded actively and eased 1-8 to 43½, and Douglas Aircraft firmed up another 1-8 to 16 3-8. Aero Corporation added 5 cents to close at 3.05. Western Pipe & Steel gained 1-4 to 28½.

Sales totaled 43,036 shares, valued at $826,321; previous day, 32,047 shares, valued at $938,328.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Claude Neon Lights of New York and Fokker Aircraft dominated operations on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday and were largely instrumental in swelling the total value of the day's sales to a figure substantially above that of recent sessions. A stronger undertone prevailed throughout the market generally.

The Neon stock ran up 3-4 to 17 on a turnover of 2300 shares and Fokker improved by a similar margin to a close at 20 5-8 on sales of 2500 shares. Consolidated Steel, Fox Theaters, Samson Tire and Hancock Oil registered a fractional improvement.

Kinner Airplane and Motor accounted for most of the trading among the lower-priced group of shares. The stock closed firm at 1.40. Pacific Southwest Discount added 15 cents to score another new peak at 4.00. The close hit 3.90.

Sales totaled 48,688 shares valued at $101,147; previous day, 50,932 shares valued at $73,812.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—An early decline in cotton under a renewal of near-month liquidation was followed by rallies during today's trading. After the early offerings had been absorbed, contracts seemed comparatively scarce, however, and prices advanced on some trade buying and covering.

The midafternoon market was quiet but steady with May and later deliveries showing net advances of 15 to 16 points, while March was quiet and a point or two over yesterday's closing quotations. Trading in the new contracts made a fairly active beginning at the opening, but tapered off later and was very quiet during the afternoon.

COTTONSEED OIL

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Cottonseed oil was quiet and irregular today, closing 4 points lower to 10 points net higher. May was relatively unsettled on local selling against purchases of September. Refiners and cash interests did the reverse with the May-September holding around 45 points. Firmness of lard, grains, hogs and cotton enabled the deferred positions to hold relatively steady. Sales, 11,400 barrels. Prime crude, 7.25; prime summer yellow, spot, 8.30; March closed 8.45; May, 8.89; July, 9.19; September, 9.35.

Buying Revival Brings Upturn on Wheat Mart

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Rapid upturns in wheat prices today resulted from immense new buying of Chicago future delivery contracts. Much of this buying was ascribed to government-sponsored sources, and was concentrated on the May delivery, which at times went to a premium over July. Heretofore of late, May delivery, representing wheat harvested in 1929, has been at a discount compared with July contracts which stand for wheat yet to be grown.

Closing quotations on wheat futures were strong, 2¾@3⅛c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1⅛c up, oats ⅝@1c advanced and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10c.

Entrance of the Farm Board's allied organizations into the wheat futures market was generally regarded as tending at least temporarily to restore confidence in higher prices and also as tending to restrict selling on the part of traders who believe prices are too high, based on world conditions. Upturns in the Liverpool market today before trading began here gave additional stimulus to friends of higher prices, and so too did current talk that the forthcoming official report on farm reserve stocks of domestic wheat will show a decided decrease compared with a year ago. Under such circumstances, the upward jump of values here forced into operation numerous stop-loss orders from traders who recently have been sellers, expecting further breaks in the market.

Some improvement of export demand today for North American wheat shipments counted as a help toward lifting prices. The total new export business was estimated at 1,250,000 bushels, mainly Canadian, but including a considerable amount of United States hard winter wheat. An additional aid to the general upward swing of the market was announcement that the Farm Board proposed to have wheat stored in country elevators rather than sent to terminals where storage space is less available.

One result of the new moves of the Federal Farm Board and its allied organizations was to arouse more interest in the corn market.

The corn market moved up readily with commission houses generally on the buying side and many of them taking the ground that the corn market was on a less artificial basis than wheat. Country offerings of corn to arrive were small, and eastern shipping demand good. Oats followed corn.

Provisions went higher, responsive to upturns both in hog values and in grain.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Demand that boosted stock prices early today on the San Francisco Stock Exchange died down late in the session, and practically all the gain slipped away. Renewed concern over technical market conditions appeared to be the main influence, although there was some anxiety over slackened earnings of certain corporations.

Western Pacific reported a deficit, and Southern Pacific profits were more than $1,000,000 under those of January last year. Rumors of forthcoming unsatisfactory earnings had some depressing influence. Pool operations continued in some quarters, and merger forecasts and estimates of higher incomes helped utility stocks. Three new highs and one new low for the year were made while 67,600 shares sold for $1,591,723. Bond sales were $14,000. Sutro averages made an almost imperceptible gain for the day.

Utility gains were cut down to fractional figures by the afternoon setback. A couple of more inactive issues showed fractional losses. Heaviest turnover was registered in Pacific Public Service and Pacific Gas, where speculative and investment operations were mingled. Some selling from Wall street, after eastern markets closed, influenced the competitive stocks, including all the leading utility common stocks.

Oils showed little improvement early in the day, and then slipped rather abruptly, most of them closing slightly lower.

Transamerica closed a ⅛ point higher. Fireman's Fund, in the insurance list, was slightly lower. North American Investment preferred 5½s hit a high at 91½. Trading was dull in the financial group.

Industrials presented more activity, Paraffine and Crown Zellerbach B moving up a point each on the day. Western Pipe and Steel, after setting a new high at 29, closed a point below its top for the day, with a gain of ⅜. Pool operations were credited with stimulating interest in this issue. Douglas Aircraft at 16⅛ touched a new high, but improved only a thin fraction. Leighton B slipped to a new low at 4⅛, and Byron Jackson lost 1⅛. Several fractional changes were recorded, the majority being negligible gains.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Under continued liquidation by one of the street's largest commission houses, futures on the local rubber exchange today again sold off, and at the close of business showed losses of from 30 to 40 points, with the final tone of the market barely steady. Waning interest in recent plans for restriction of the 1930 rubber crop in which little faith is placed by many in the trade and a slight recession in the London market, seemed to be the chief reasons for selling through most of the session. Some support from trade interests and scattered sources tended to check the decline somewhat, but buying interest was not sufficient to cause any appreciable rally. There were fifty March notices issued, bringing the total for the month to 453. Sales volume picked up and were more than double those of yesterday aggregating 473 lots, or 1182½ tons.

London spot closed steady and ⅛ pence lower at 7 15-16 pence, while in Singapore a gain of 1-16 pence was scored in the spot delivery which closed at 7 11-16 pence in a quiet market. In the outside market here spot fell ⅛c. to 15⅞c.

Outside prices were:

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Feb. 27. (AP)—French combing and original bag territory wools of 64s and finer quality continue to comprise the bulk of trading reported. Texas wools twelve months growth is being sold at prices in range of 77 to 80 cents, scoured basis. The 48s-50s grade of strictly combing territory wools are moderately active at steady prices.

with its controlling interest in six banks on the Pacific Coast, offers an unusual investment opportunity.

Calitalo's operating method has proved, by day-to day experience, to be the essence of sound financing practice. This tested policy of group bank development is not chain nor branch banking.

The success of Calitalo as a bank and corporation holding company is in the fact that it takes no part in the management of its holdings, except in an advisory way. After acquiring control of a new institution, the board of directors and management are strengthened where necessary. They are then allowed to function without interference, but with all the support and co-operation which the holding company can swing.

The management and board of directors of every institution affiliated with or controlled by Calitalo is composed entirely of efficient, local men of high calibre.

In addition to the six banks pictured here, Calitalo Investment Corporation controls two highly profitable insurance agencies in Los Angeles, considerable real estate and investments in bonds and leading stocks.

Calitalo is a bank and corporation holding company, incorporated under the laws of the State of California. It is firmly committed to the policy of constantly building up its cash surplus reserves and adding desirable holdings under opportune circumstances.

STOCK TRADING TONE BRIGHTER

continued demand, Warner Brothers and Paramount rising a point or so to new peaks for the movement.

Bendix Aviation and Westinghouse Airbrake rose 2 and 3 points to new tops in response to announcement of the formation of a subsidiary to make airplane brakes.

American International rose about 3 points to the best level for 1930 in response to its 1929 report, showing operating income of $8.86 a share. Eastman Kodak, Beatrice Creamery and Underwood Elliott sold up about 4 points each to new peaks. U. S. Steel, selling ex-dividend, closed up 1 1-4 points net.

American Can, General Electric, Gillette, Goodrich, Goodyear, Johns-Manville, Simmons and Montgomery Ward lost a point or so each. Norfolk and Western lost 3 and St. Louis Southwestern 4 points.

The aggressive attitude taken by the Farm Board, together with a better export demand, caused a further rise of about 3 cents a bushel in wheat futures. Corn moved up more than a cent. Cotton closed about 70 cents to $1 a bale higher, influenced by short covering and the advance in wheat. Sugar futures were depressed, the March position reaching 1.54 cents, the lowest ever recorded here.

Foreign exchanges steadied with retention of the 4 1-2 per cent London Bank rate, sterling cables ruling a shade higher at $4.86 1-16. The Spanish peseta sagged about 1-8 cent to 12.25 cents, a new low for the year.

discussing the resolution adopted by Mid-Continent oil operators at a meeting in Tulsa, Okla., December 12, in which foreign producers were asked to fit their development program to the program of restriction now in effect in the principal producing areas of the United States, Mr. George Legh-Jones, president of the Shell Oil Company, stated yesterday that he has just received word from Richard Airey, New York representative of the Royal Dutch-Shell group, stating that they are quite prepared to join any movement to reduce Venezuelan crude production during 1930, compared with 1929, proportionately with an average production in the United States on the same basis.

Deep Test Drilling

The Continental Oil Company's Sulphur Mountain No. 3, a deep test seeking production, is drilling below 6294 feet in the Sulphur Mountain district, about four miles southwest of shallow production found by Pan-American.

Continental has approximately 2000 acres under lease in the Sulphur Mountain district and its test is strictly wildcat. It will go considerably deeper to give the area a thorough work-out. A few stringers of oil sand have been encountered higher in the project, but they are regarded as insufficient for a production test.

Drilling Permits

In the Round Mountain district the Shell Oil Company is rigging up its Olcese No. 1 on Sec. 21, 28-29, at the easterly edge of the present producing area. It plans to drill at least 2500 feet for shallow production. Shell's Freeman No. 7 on Sec. 20, 28-29, also in the Round Mountain district, is drilling below 950 feet in the proven area. Permits for these projects were recently granted by the State Mining Bureau, together with sixteen others.

Of the eighteen permits granted last week, three were for wells in the southeasterly portion of the Signal Hill field, six in the fields of Kern county, three in Santa Barbara county, two in the Ventura-avenue field and one each at Lawndale, Elwood, Santa Maria district and Madera county. Following are the permits: The State Company's Pike No. 1; Bryan & Stone's Burke No. 1 and J. S. McCluskey's Cook No. 1 at Signal Hill; J. Oscar Smith's Johnson No. 3 at Lawndale; Shell Oil Company's Taylor No. 59 and No. 60 in Ventura-avenue field; Brown Caldwell Syndicate's Vivian No. 1 at Elwood; General Petroleum Corporation's Erburu No. 2, Shell Oil Company's Rutherford No. 3 and Justin S. Snow's No. 1 in Santa Barbara county; O. C. Field Gasoline Corporation's No. 1 in Santa Maria district; Hancock Oil Company's Maricopa No. 5 in Sunset district; Shell Oil Company's Freeman No. 7 and Olcese No. 1 at Round Mountain and Shell's Porter-Day No. 1 in Kern county; General Petroleum Corporation's Glide No. 28 at Poso Creek; Chanslor Canfield-Midway Oil Company's No. 32 at Kern River and George F. Getty's Chowchilla No. 1 in Madera county.

To Recement

The Ohio Oil Company's Recreation Gun Club No. 2, southeast of Venice, tested wet recently when cement was drilled out with eleven and three-quarter-inch casing cemented at 3847 feet with bottom at 3926 feet and the project will be recemented for another test.

About sixty feet of oil sand was penetrated in Ohio's test and the shallow showings may be given a production test before drilling much deeper. The company's Howland No. 1 is drilling below 3900 feet and has not encountered oil sand, it is reported.

The Union Oil Company is driving piles for foundation of its Del Rey No. 1 within a short distance of the Ohio Oil Company's discovery well southeast of Venice. Because of the swampy condition of the ground there considerable preliminary work is necessary.

Cutting Flow

Santa Fe Springs oil operators are slowly beaning down their wells to enable the field to reach its quota of 145,500 barrels a day in accordance with the new curtailment agreement becoming effective tomorrow morning. Yesterday's flow was approximately 159,000 barrels. Small completions in the future will have a tendency to hold down the daily average.

During the past week the following wells were brought in: St. Helens Petroleum Company's Hill No. 2 for 350 barrels daily; Universal Consolidated's O'Connell No. 6, 300 barrels; George F. Getty's No. 42, 460 barrels; Texas Company's Mutual No. 2, 200 barrels; Shell's G.H.N. No. 24, 700 barrels; General's Santa Fe No. 137-D, 1170 barrels; Santa Fe No. 190-C, 100 barrels, Santa Fe No. 190-E, 390 barrels, Santa Fe No. 191-D, 700 barrels, and Bandini Petroleum Company's Off No. 15, 1300 barrels.

Preparing Site

The Shell Oil Company is pouring foundation concrete for its Andrew No. 1 wildcat to be drilled on a fifty-acre lease near the corner of Havenhurst avenue and Lassen street at North Los Angeles—in the San Fernando Valley. This project is to be somewhat in the nature of a geological study, like a number of other tests drilled in the same general vicinity during the past few years.

SALES OF KEMPER RADIO SHOW GAIN

Gross sales of Kemper Radio Corporation, Ltd., for January were $68,355 as against $42,000 in the same month a year ago, Howard H. Cluff, vice-president and general sales manager, reported yesterday. February sales as of the 24th inst. showed an increase of 106 per cent over the similar period of January in Southern California while for the entire Pacific Coast an increase of 72 per cent was made, according to Mr. Cluff.

$6,000,000
Arkansas Power & Light Company
First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds
5% Series, Due October 1, 1956
Price 94½ and Interest, Yielding About 5⅜%

Issuance subject to authorization by the Arkansas Railroad Commission
The company has agreed to pay interest without deduction for any Federal income tax up to 2%

The company supplies electric power and light service to Little Rock and 194 other communities in Arkansas including Pine Bluff and El Dorado. The system covers a large part of the State. The company does some natural gas, steam heating, water and ice business and also owns and operates the electric railway systems in Little Rock and Pine Bluff. The operation of the property is supervised by the Electric Bond & Share Company.

As officially reported for the twelve months ended December 31, 1929, gross earnings from operation were $8,503,461; net earnings, $4,160,527, or over 2½ times the interest charges of $1,610,210 on the $32,000,500 of bonds outstanding with the public, including this issue. Of gross earnings about 78% was derived from electric light and power service.

The First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds are secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a first mortgage on the major portion of the company's physical property and by a direct mortgage on the remainder of its physical property, subject to two closed issues of underlying divisional bonds, $2,000,500 of which are now outstanding with the public, and certain minor real estate mortgages.

We recommend these bonds for investment, and shall be pleased to send a circular describing the issue in detail.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Boulevard, Wash. at Verm't.—"Woman Racket." Reviewed in today's Times.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Happy Days." Opens tonight.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"Anna Christie." Greta Garbo speaks the lines of Eugene O'Neill's heroine in fine style. Clarence Brown has done some of his best directing.

Figueroa, Fig. at Santa Barbara—"Hell's Heroes." A bitter struggle with the desert, well fought by Charles Bickford, Raymond Hatton and Fred Kohler.

Filmarte, 1228 Vine.—"The Yellow Pass." Opens tonight.

Grauman's Chinese, 6925 Hollywood Blvd.—"Rogue Song." Lawrence Tibbett makes a powerful impression on screen fans in a vagabond romance of hearty great quality.

Grauman's Egyptian, 6708 Hollywood Blvd.—"Seven Days' Leave." Barrie war whimsy makes rather a nice movie, interpreted by Gary Cooper and Beryl Mercer.

Loew's State, Bdwy. at 7th—"The Lone Star Ranger." Reviewed in today's Times.

Million Dollar, Broadway at 3rd—"Party Girl." An alleged exposé of a phase of New York life, weak as a "shocker."

Palace, Bdwy. bet. 6th & 7th.—"Taming of the Shrew." Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks bring Shakespeare down to the moment and a good laugh is had by both parties.

Paramount, Hill at 6th.—"Road House Nights." Reviewed in today's Times.

Ritz, 5300 Wilshire.—"His First Command." William Boyd makes rookie hardships humorous in an entertaining manner.

R.K.O., Hill at 8th.—"The Grand Parade." Reviewed in today's Times.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at 9th.—"Seven Keys to Baldpate." An old time stage success revived as a talkie with Richard Dix, suffering no ill effects in the transition.

Uptown, Western at 18th.—"South Sea Rose." See below.

United Artists, Bdwy. nr. 9th.—"Condemned." Ronald Colman somehow finds romance on Devil's Island; but when you see Ann Harding you won't wonder.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at 7th.—"She Couldn't Say No." The title, not the play, is transposed to the screen. Gangsters mix with music which is rendered loud and lustily by Winnie Lightner.

Warner's Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox.—"The Green Goddess." Intelligent as might be expected from George Arliss, who adds to his laurels in this.

Westlake, 628 Alvarado.—"South Sea Rose." Lenore Ulric goes native, and Charles Bickford goes straight. But what's the difference?

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"Journey's End." R. C. Sherriff's fine war play is produced splendidly by an English company.

Biltmore, 5th, nr. Grand.—"Gone Hollywood." Fert Kelton is as eccentric as this fairly entertaining revue.

El Capitan, Holly'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"Ladies of the Jury." The jury reveals itself as quite a humorous group in this farce comedy led by the capricious Mary Boland.

Hollywood Playhouse, 1735 Vine—"Salt Water." A well staged and nicely enacted comedy of the sea, starring Frank Craven.

Majestic, Bdwy. at 9th—"New Moon." The popular operetta is well put on, featuring the song hit, "Lover Come Back to Me." Perry Askam and Josephine Houston.

Mission Play, San Gabriel—The beautiful annual pageant of the settling of California, up to its usual standard. With R. D. MacLean.

Music Box, 6126 Hollywood Blvd.—"Bill of Divorcement." This is Clemence Dane's dramatization of one of England's problems. Ian Maclaren is featured.

President, Bdwy. at 8th—"Give and Take." Big business in a canning factory, with Kolb and Dill arguing a lot and the audience laughing just as much.

Vine-street, 1615 Vine—"The Nut Farm." Hollywood is pictured as something it hardly is, which in this case can't matter at all. With Emerson Treacy.

VARIETIES

Rites Today for Victim of Bull

TULARE, Feb. 27.—Rosary was observed at the Rice Funeral Home this evening and requiem mass will be said at the Catholic Church tomorrow at 10 a.m. for Joe Almeida, 38-year-old rancher, who died Tuesday at a hospital here from injuries sustained when gored by a bull at his ranch Sunday. Almeida was expected to recover and his death came as a surprise. Almeida was gored and trampled before he could escape through a fence. This same animal seriously injured John Almeida, a brother of the deceased, a year ago.

Almeida was a native of the Azores Islands and word of his father's death was received while Joe was in the hospital, but he was not given the sad message.

Almeida had lived in this section ten years and in California twenty years. He was not married and leaves only his brother and two sisters in this section.

WOMAN'S BODY RETURNED

PORTERVILLE, Feb. 27.—The body of Mrs. Harriett Lawrence, 50 years of age, wife of George Lawrence of this city, arrived here this morning from San Francisco, where she died at a hospital yesterday following an operation Monday. A native of Visalia, Mrs. Lawrence had lived in this city forty years.

EDITOR HELD FOR CONTEMPT

William J. Lavarre Accused in Federal Warrant

Case Outgrowth of Deal With Power Company

Georgia Judge Says Court Order Violated

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—William J. Lavarre, Georgia and South Carolina newspaper publisher, under legal fire since the International Paper and Power Company disclosed it had financed his purchase of four dailies, was arrested at a hotel here last night on a Federal warrant charging criminal contempt of court.

The warrant orders Lavarre's removal to the Federal District Court for the middle district of Georgia for appearance before Judge Bascom Deaver to answer to the contempt charges.

SERIES OF LAWSUITS

The arrest followed upon a series of lawsuits subsequent to the purchase by Lavarre and Harold Hall of the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, the Spartanburg (S.C.) Herald, the Spartanburg Journal and the Columbia (S.C.) Herald. Hall, after a breach with Lavarre, withdrew from the enterprises.

When the International Paper and Power Company began to dispose of its newspaper holdings, as a result of disclosures made in an investigation of public utilities by the Federal Trade Commission last year, Judge Deaver appointed Joseph T. Webb, Jr., of Macon, Ga., commissioner to manage the Lavarre newspaper properties.

INJUNCTION OBTAINED

Lavarre obtained a court order enjoining Webb from getting control of the Lavarre companies' stock and finally ejected Webb from the Columbia Record in defiance of Judge Deaver's orders. The contempt charges followed.

Action was taken in South Carolina to obtain Lavarre's removal to Georgia, but before this action succeeded, Lavarre came to New York.

AMERICAN WAR DEAD HONORED

Wreath Placed for Stone, Killed Fifteen Years Ago in Service of France

PARIS, Feb. 27. (AP)—The first American citizen who died fighting for France was remembered in a little ceremony today at the Monument to American Volunteers in the Place des Etats Unis, not far from the American Embassy.

A wreath was placed there by the Association of American Volunteer Combatants in memory of Edward Stone, who died fifteen years ago and was awarded by France the Military Medal.

Stone was living in Paris when war broke out. He volunteered. He was the son of Henry Baldwin Stone, vice-president of the Burlington road.

The wreath was placed by John Hopper, president of the Trench and Air Association of American Volunteers. Gen. Mariaux, Governor of the Invalides, represented France, and Benjamin Thaw, First Secretary of the American Embassy, represented the United States. Dean Frederick W. Bekman read a short prayer.

Runaway Youth Makes Escape

SAN RAFAEL, Feb. 27. (AP)—David Tate, Jr., 17-year-old Glendale youth arrested last Sunday for running away from his home with Martha Louise Jones, also of Glendale, broke a window of the juvenile detention home here today and escaped. The boy was being held until his father, D. M. Tate, Los Angeles advertising man, arrived to take him in charge.

ALEXANDER WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF BOARD

HONOLULU, Feb. 27. (AP)—Wallace M. Alexander of Honolulu and San Francisco today announced his retirement from the presidency of Alexander & Baldwin, one of the "big five" in the business world of Hawaii, after thirty-six years of service with the company. The annual meeting of the stockholders was held here today, and it was agreed that Alexander, who has been president since 1918, will be elected chairman of the board.

HEART ATTACK KILLS FLAGSTAFF PIONEER

PHOENIX, Feb. 27. (AP)—William Babbitt, who came to Arizona in pioneer days and settled at Flagstaff, died suddenly of an acute heart attack at his winter home here today. Though Mr. Babbitt had been in ill health for some time, his death was unexpected. First indication of his failing condition came yesterday afternoon when his wife was forced to cancel her appointments to remain at his bedside.

SONS OPEN FIGHT ON RANCHER'S WILL

MERCED, Feb. 27. (AP)—A suit was on file here today contesting the will of Joseph Vincent Ambrosia, Atwater rancher, who died the 8th inst., charging that Mrs. Emma Davis, a daughter, employed a clairvoyant to induce Ambrosia to bequeath her a large portion of the estate two days before his death. The suit was brought by Charles W. Vincent and William A. Vincent, sons, both Oakland residents.

POSTMASTER RENOMINATED

VISALIA, Feb. 27.—Arthur M. Becker, postmaster here, has been nominated by President Hoover to succeed himself, according to word received here. Becker's present warrant will expire this month.

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Saldrá de Méjico una Sociedad de Rojos

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Febrero 27.—A causa de haberle restringido su actividad el gobierno, la Sociedad Roja de Socorros, afiliada con las Internacionales Rojas, saldrá de Méjico, según declaración hecha por el secretario del cabildo local.

Dijo dicho secretario que pensaba cambiar el domicilio social a Nueva York, donde hay mayor campo de acción. El gobierno mejicano ha estado tomando últimamente medidas enérgicas para arrojar de aquí la propaganda comunista.

Mañana Serán las Exequias del Cardenal del Val

CIUDAD VATICANA, Febrero 27. La mañana del sábado, en la catedral de San Pedro, se verificarán los funerales del cardenal Merry del Val. Celebraráse la ceremonia en el altar del crucero de la derecha dedicado a Santos Proceso y Martiniano; justamente frente al altar donde fueron las exequias del cardenal Rampolla en 1913.

Alegre Jueves de Carnaval en Roma

ROMA, Febrero 27.—La fiesta del jueves de carnaval ha sido celebrada aquí por viejos y jóvenes; claro que estos últimos se divirtieron más.

Puede decirse que no hubo escuela que no cerrara sus puertas, las que permanecerán cerradas hasta pasado el miércoles de ceniza. Los niños salieron en masa a pasear desde temprano, vestidos de fantasía, y luciendo todos los colores imaginables.

El regocijo fue tanto mayor cuanto que era día de paga para los empleados municipales romanos. El próximo martes de carnaval será una fiesta tan animada como la de hoy, y luego se consagrará la Ciudad Vaticana a la observancia de la cuaresma.

Muere un Conocido Editor Veterano

NUEVA YORK, Febrero 27.—George Haven Putnam, presidente de la casa editora "G. P. Putnam's Sons", ha fallecido hoy de anemia perniciosa en su residencia de esta ciudad. Tenía 85 años de edad, y llevaba dos semanas de estar enfermo.

Fue el señor Putnam soldado de la Guerra Civil, y en el dominio de los libros se distinguió por la guerra que siempre les hizo a los piratas de la literatura. Fue esa la gran obra de su vida.

Luchando, algunas veces solo, contra el egoísta interés de los impresores, dió a los Estados Unidos el sistema que hoy disfrutan de derechos de propiedad literaria.

Paga Tributo a la Muerte "Poker Alice"

RAPID CITY (Dakota del Sur), Febrero 27.—Ha sucumbido hoy aquí "Poker Alice" Tubbs, a los 77 años de edad. Era uno de los últimos tipos característicos del Viejo Oeste. Conquistó su fama actuando de banquera en un juego de "Faro", en aquellas libertinas poblaciones mineras del siglo pasado. Pasó por todas las aventuras de aquellos pintorescos tiempos de la fiebre del oro en los Black Hills. La fama de "Poker Alice" corría parejas con la de "Wild Bill" Hicock, la de "Calamity Jane" y la de "Deadwood Dick".

Su verdadero nombre era Mrs Alice Tubbs. Su muerte, en un hospital, fue causada por complicaciones que le vinieron tras una operación para extraerle cálculos biliares, a las que se sumaron los naturales achaques de la vejez.

Es Inminente la Muerte del Señor Taft

WASHINGTON, Febrero 27.—La muerte cerca de modo cada vez más ceñido a William Howard Taft, y en esta capital, donde todos sus actos como presidente de la nación y presidente de la Supreme Corte le conquistaron el respeto del mundo, se espera con tristeza, de un momento a otro, el inevitable fin.

Los médicos que lo han estado atendiendo desde su colapso van a su cabecera a cada rato, y hasta han logrado parciales alivios del paciente después de cada recaída; pero el doctor Francis R. Hagner ha pronunciado ya el siguiente doloroso pronóstico: "No hay esperanza de que se restablezca.

NOTAS LOCALES

Actor de Cine Multado por Poseer Licor

Lionel Belmore, conocido actor característico de la pantalla, fue sentenciado ayer por el juez municipal Wilson a pagar una multa de $100, o pasar veinte días en la cárcel. Se le juzgó por el delito de posesión de licor en su casa, sita en el 7020 de la avenida Fountain. Huelga decir que prefirió pagar la multa.

Belmore, por medio de su defensor, confesó que poseía varias clases de licores pero que los tenía sólo para sus amigos, y a nadie se los vendía. Dijo asimismo al juez que es soltero y que sus amigos, que iban a visitarle de cuando en cuando eran caballeros que conocía de larga fecha.

Belmore fue detenido el 8 de Enero último por el policía B. G. Hayworth y una escuadra de guardias, comisionados al efecto por el fiscal. Declaró Hayworth que él y sus hombres entraron en casa del actor mediante orden expedida por la fiscalía, donde varios ciudadanos se quejaron de que entraban y salían numerosas personas de la casa de Belmore.

Vinole el sueño a Luisita; recostó la cabeza sobre la cabeza crespa del perrazo, y se quedó luego dormida (Little Louisa grew sleepy. She laid her head on the curly head of the big dog. Then she fell asleep).

Los padres de Luisa no pudieron hallarla, y mandaron al pregonero a buscarla (Louisa's father and mother could not find her. They sent out the town crier to look for her).

El pregonero recorrió las calles, y, al andar, repicaba su campana (The town crier went along the street. As he went, he rang his bell). De cuando en cuando, gritaba que se había perdido una chiquilla (Every now and then he would tell that a little girl was lost).

Por fin, llegó el hombre de la campana al sitio donde estaba dormida Luisa, y repicó (At last the man with the bell came to the place where Louisa was asleep. He rang his bell). Eso la despertó (That waked her up).

SMALL FRY IMMUNITY PROMISED

Prosecutor Says Higher Ups Must Face Music in Oakland Graft Inquiry

OAKLAND, Feb. 27. (AP)—Dist.-Atty. Warren today renewed his offer of immunity for the "small fry" on condition they tell all they know to the Alameda county grand jury investigating charges of graft involving the letting of paving contracts and asserted protection of gambling and bootlegging establishments.

"No immunity baths for the higher-ups," declared Warren, "only the underlings are to escape prosecution providing they accept my offer to tell all they know of this situation to the grand jury."

Meanwhile, the investigation marked time as the grand jury rested preparatory to reconvening tomorrow.

Among the witnesses to be called by Warern will be Thomas Murphy, Los Angeles, who will be questioned about a purported proposal to form the "Greater Oakland Construction Company." Sheriff Becker and former Street Commissioner Parker have been charged with being "silent stockholders" in the firm.

E. L. Fleming, Glendale, who did some of the city's paving; A. A. Horwege, Oakland contractor, and others will appear during tomorrow's session, Warren disclosed.

VISALIA LIGHTING EXPENSE REDUCED

VISALIA, Feb. 27.—Rate for electrical energy used by this city in its street lighting will be reduced 18 per cent, according to announcement by the Southern California Edison Company. This means an annual saving of $840. According to M. B. Phillips, local manager for the power company, the reduction applies on metered service for street lighting and is a voluntary move on the part of the power company.

NEW SUGAR DIRECTOR

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (Exclusive) Henry N. Stetson of San Francisco was today elected a director of Savannah Sugar Refining Corporation at the annual meeting, succeeding Robert Oxnard, deceased. Other retiring directors were re-elected.

MOUNTAINS WHITE FOR WEEK-END

Forecast Cloudy Today and Showers Expected for Tomorrow

Forecasts indicate plenty of snow in the city and county mountain recreation camps for week-end outings.

Snow fell yesterday at the city's Camp Seeley in San Bernardino Mountains and a five-inch blanket mantled the ground for good skiing, tobogganing and snowy sports. Unless the weather turns warmer than is likely tomorrow and Sunday will show plenty of snow, the camp reported. Similiarly at the county's Big Pine camp, in San Gabriel Mountains, a five-inch snow covers the ground, making winter sports there probable during the week-end. Some snow fell at the county camp at Crystal Lake yesterday and a little at Mt. Lowe, but at the latter place it was melted by afternoon.

The maximum temperature in Los Angeles yesterday was 57 deg., which is 8 below February's normal maximum. The minimum was 45 deg. The forecast promises partly cloudy weather today, followed by unsettled conditions and probable showers tomorrow.

The following is the rainfall, in inches, reported from various Southern California points up to 6 p.m. yesterday:

An electric galvanoscope played strange tricks yesterday at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios when Dr. Karl T. Waugh, dean of psychology at the University of Southern California, measured the emotions of stars and players with the psychogalvanoscope, new device of science. The emotional impulses were gauged in terms of vacillation of the needle of the intricate but simple-looking machine.

The stars of the screen were used because it was found that co-eds make poor subjects because they are placid in temperament. The tiny needle jumped all over the place when the electrons were attached to the hands of film players and perfumes of different odors released under their nostrils.

Take the case of the Duncan sisters. They gave opposite reactions, one reacting to impulses of sadness and the other being impervious to these and reacting to joyful impulses. Strangely enough Rosetta, the clown of the two, reacted to sadness and Vivian to joy.

To explain the machine, Dr. Waugh cited the reaction in the case of Dorothy Sebastian, who reacted to memories of childhood when smelling the odor of new-mown hay with an emotional intensity that made the needle leap.

"Memories recalled by the smell of new-mown hay," Dr. Waugh said, "made her heart beat a fraction faster—not enough to detect with a stethoscope. But whenever the heart increases its speed, ever so slightly, it draws blood from the surface of the skin, by pumping it faster toward the interior of the body. Hence the resistance in her skin increased, and a jump of ten points on the scale of the psychogalvanograph resulted."

Put to practical use, he explained, the machine can be hooked up in such a way as to detect audience reactions while watching motion pictures, in medicine to ascertain psychological disturbances injuring health. He said, for instance, that as worry generates poison in the body other emotions probably form other toxins.

The machine is the invention of Dr. Paul Humphrey, Columbia University psychologist who, a year ago, started experiments, later taken up by Dr. Waugh. In connection with the experiments yesterday, the oleofactometer, which measures certain perfumes and administers them, to inspire various emotions, was used. It is the invention of Capt. Humphrey Read, F.P.G.S., who aided in the tests of the film stars.

Other players who were tested included Buster Keaton, Pauline Garon, Gwen Lee, Hedda Hopper, Anita Page and several others.

PROMINENT WOMAN CLUB LEADER DIES

Mrs. Fred Betts, Noted for Social Welfare Work, Passes Suddenly

Mrs. Fred Betts, prominent in Los Angeles club circles and social welfare work for the last twenty-five years, died early yesterday morning at the family residence, 1401 South St. Andrews Place, following an illness of only a few hours. Death was due to a ruptured blood vessel caused by acute indigestion.

MRS. FRED BETTS

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the First Congregational Church, with Dr. Carl S. Patton officiating. Interment will be at Rosedale Cemetery. Bresee Brothers will be in charge.

A native of Illinois and a graduate of Oberlin College, Ohio, Mrs. Betts, who was 57 years of age, had lived for many years in Colorado, in which State her husband, the late Fred Betts, was a State Senator. Coming to Los Angeles, Mrs. Betts first resided with her parents, the late Rev. and Mrs. David Baldwin, later moving to the Wilshire residence.

An active worker in civic and social affairs, Mrs. Betts was a prominent member of the First Congregational Church, the Los Angeles Country Club, and other organizations, including the Ebell Club, of which she served as a director.

Mrs. Betts leaves two daughters, Misses Katherine and Josephine Betts, and two sisters, Mrs. C. J. Heyler of Los Angeles and Mrs. Myrna Freeman, now traveling in Europe.

MISSING-PILOTS HUNT NARROWS

Three Lost Sunday Believed in Thirty-Mile Area

Doctor Tells of Seeing Blaze East of Cajon Pass

Search Both from Air and on Horses Will Continue

A thirty-square-mile area, extending into the rugged San Bernardino Mountains eastward from Devore in Cajon Pass, is believed by Western Air Express officials to hold the key to the fate of a trimotored Fokker transport and three men who were caught in a terrific storm last Sunday afternoon on their way here from Kingman, Ariz.

It has been established definitely, airline officials said, that Pilot James E. Doles, Co-Pilot Albert W. Bieber and Steward John W. Slaton circled Lake Arrowhead, east of Devore, late Sunday and then turned southwest toward Los Angeles.

A short time later Dr. Butler of San Bernardino drove into Devore and reported that he had seen a brilliant blaze on a mountain side east of the Cajon Pass Highway. It was storming and when the man returned to the spot where he had sighted the fire there was nothing but darkness.

The location, however, Western Air Express offices reported, would have been on Doles's course as he attempted to find a way through the menacing clouds that swirled about the mountain tops.

Four planes, piloted by O. W. Coyle, Monte Shelton, R. G. Fry and Eddie Martin, swept back and forth over the Cajon Pass region yesterday, but reported they found no trace of the red transport.

A party of mounted searchers, on order of Sheriff Walter Shay of San Bernardino county, will continue their ground hunt today over the district while all available aircraft will return to criss-cross the mountains from above.

Traffic Case Warrant Out for Brieglieb

For neglecting to appear in court in response to a traffic summons, Rev. Gustave A. Brieglieb, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, yesterday was ordered arrested on a bench warrant issued by Municipal Judge Bush. The warrant is addressed to the clergyman at his home, 1707 South Bronson avenue. According to court records, Traffic Officer Bickel gave Dr. Brieglieb the citation on the 3rd inst., charging him with parking his automobile overtime on Fifth street near Hill street.

Apprised of the warrant, Dr. Brieglieb last night admitted the violation as well as his absence from court at the appointed time. He stated that on the day he received the tag he had lunched with two judges who assumed responsibility for the overtime violation. Despite his expressed willingness to appear and pay the fine, he said, one of the jurists insisted on taking the summons, declaring he would see to it that the law was satisfied. A week or so later the judge in question assured him the matter had been attended, the pastor said, and, accordingly, he regarded the case as closed.

Dr. Brieglieb attributed issuance of the warrant to possible confusion of traffic court records. He said he will await the arrival of an arresting officer.

Woman Burned in Beauty Shop Denied Damages

Mrs. Maggie Bowlby is not entitled to damages in the suit she brought for $35,900 against the Sullivan College of Beauty Culture for personal injuries she asserts she received when a hair-drying machine in the beauty parlor set fire to her hair. This was the verdict of a jury in the court of Superior Judge Bowron yesterday.

Beauty parlor operators contended the plaintiff changed the heat of the machine without the operator's knowledge.

Counsel for Mrs. Bowlby said he will file a motion for a new trial.

ACTRESS DESERTS UNIVERSAL BANNER

Laura La Plante

LONG TERM OF SERVICE CONCLUDED

Miss La Plante's Release from Contract Announced by Carl Laemmle, Jr.

The contract between Laura La Plante, screen comedienne, and Universal Pictures Corporation, under whose banner she has appeared for the past eight years, has been mutually and agreeably terminated, Carl Laemmle, Jr., announced yesterday. Miss La Plante's services end two years short of her second five-year contract.

Studio officials said Miss La Plante had expressed dissatisfaction with recent roles as not being suitable to her, and requested her release. Out of courtesy to her long service the request was granted, Laemmle said. She was working in Sonora on "The Storm" when she decided to ask release.

Miss La Plante said she will rest for a few weeks and later perhaps will make a European tour with her husband, William Seiter, a director.

PRIOR GETS WATER AND POWER POST

Reseda Man Nominated for Position Vacated by Whitsett's Resignation

The nomination of A. B. Prior as a member of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners was announced yesterday by Mayor Porter. The nomination will be submitted to the City Council this morning, and, in all probability, will be referred to the Water and Power Committee for consideration of confirmation.

Mr. Prior lives at Sherman Way and Reseda, in the Reseda community. He has resided there for the past nine years. He formerly lived in Omaha, where he was in the construction business, having superintended the erection of plants for the Cudahy Packing Company.

In the event of his confirmation he will complete the membership of the board. He is nominated to the place vacated by the resignation of William P. Whitsett, who preferred to retain the chairmanship of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California. Mr. Whitsett also is a resident of the San Fernando Valley, so that region will retain representation through the new appointee.

RED DATA GOING TO GRAND JURY

Police Push Search for Fugitive Radicals

Civic Buildings Guarded Against Bombings

Many Patrolmen Nursing Injuries from Fight

A grand jury investigation of the wild disorder and street rioting of thousands of Communists and Red sympathizers at the Plaza Wednesday loomed yesterday as the District Attorney's office awaited a full report of the affair by police, who are pushing the inquiry rapidly.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hammon, in charge of grand jury matters, said last night that although no formal reports of the riot had been received he will co-operate fully with the officers over their final report and if the matter warrants it will immediately go to the grand jury.

FUGITIVE REDS HUNTED

"In addition to the element of criminal syndicalism," Hammon said, "the officers may have obtained other evidence on which the jury may wish to base indictments asserting other felonies."

While the investigation to obtain evidence for felony prosecutions and possible deportation proceedings against leaders of the Red riot swept along speedily, the police also launched widespread search yesterday for fugitive Communist organizers and agitators behind the movement that flared into riot.

While every effort is being made to prevent a recurrence of the disorders, and double shifts of police are kept on reserve duty equipped with fast cars and tear bombs to quell possible uprisings, heavy guards of officers are on duty before the City Hall and other municipal buildings and the Chamber of Commerce.

BOMBINGS THREATENED

Open threats of bombings of municipal and civic buildings muttered by the malcontents on the heels of the fighting at the Plaza has brought official alertness against the menace, and orders to act quickly against suspicious characters seen loitering about the buildings have gone down the police ranks.

Out of the wild melee of malcontents grew determination of police to enlist the government's aid in hastening deportation proceedings that are pending against a number of those arrested and bring new proceedings against other unnaturalized prosoviet leaders in Southern California.

The Communists and Red sympathizers engaged the police in the "battle of the Plaza," and the officers were forced to resort to fists, blackjacks and two barrages of tear bombs to disperse the milling, screaming, cursing mob of men and women. Twenty were arrested and jailed.

MANY POLICEMEN HURT

None of the asserted rioters charged with suspicion of criminal syndicalism has been admitted to bail. Among those in jail are Mrs. Rose Becker and Evelyn Martin, two women of the mob, whom police say gave them the most trouble.

Few of the Reds and their sympathizers suffered any injuries at the hands of the hard-pressed police, but yesterday many of the 300 officers in the battle nursed numerous bruises and lacerations. Capt. Al Slaten, acting inspector of detectives, who led the officers with Detective Lieutenant W. F. Hynes, head of the Red squad, was bedridden yesterday suffering from after-effects of tear gas and a possible fractured arm.

SOCIAL WORKER WILL ORGANIZE CLUBS

To counteract effects of communistic propaganda and to help prevent further teaching of Bolshevist doctrines, Mrs. Roman Kachmarsky, dramatist and social worker, will organize a Ukranian Civic Center Club at a meeting to be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Y.W.C.A., 437 Boyle avenue.

All Ukranian and Russian men, women and children are invited to the meeting Sunday when a drama club and a singing chorus will be formed. Plans also will be made to present, next Easter, Mrs. Kachmarsky's drama "The Unhappy Mother," an Americanization play.

Mrs. Kachmarsky, who formerly was director of the European School of Music and Fine Arts at Philadelphia, and who at one time was chairman of the Americanization department of the Civic League

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

"WE ARE not all little blond tramps," writes a young lady in a strictly society kind of penmanship on good stationery.

"Many of us have married or promised to marry these young Filipino men because we deeply love our betrotheds and wish to be together always—which is presumably the reason for marriage.

"This new ruling of one estimable and erudite Judge Smith imposes untold hardship and complications upon Filipino wives. We are denied the privilege of common decency and must endure the heartbreak of renunciation or suffer the stigma of an immoral association. In declaring the marriages null and void the little children who have been born are automatically made illegitimate. Is this America's idea of justice and fair play?

"A Filipino Wife."

AN OLD MAID'S TROUBLES

"Your article on the American hobo interested me. I feel like a hobo out here among strangers.

"Landed in Los Angeles last May. Went every place looking for work. Being on the shady side of fifty, no one would even give me a chance of work of any kind.

"At 14 years of age my father died, leaving my mother with six small children to support. I went to work and turned over my pay check to my mother to raise my brothers and sisters. Gave them an education I never had.

"Glad it was my lot to meet the struggles and hardships. Good timber does not grow in ease. The stronger the wind the tougher the trees.

"Bought out a little shop in Hollywood. Was only in it two weeks when some one broke in and stole forty-eight dresses. Even took three worn-out dresses I had to wear. A week later a large bottle of imported perfume that was sent to me was taken out of my window. Notified the police. They told me it was a good thing I was here instead of Chicago.

"Any help or suggestions will be gratefully received.

"Just a Hollywood old maid."

BURNING OUR SCENERY

While out on the desert the other day I found that various idiots—tenderfeet, I hope—are destroying the Joshua trees.

In some cases they are digging them up by the roots to put in their Hollywood yards. In other cases they are setting them on fire to see them burn against the blackness of the desert night.

The pity of it is that Joshua trees only grow in certain parts of the desert. Standing they are one of the strange and picturesque sights of the Southwest.

I don't see how anyone could bring himself to burn one. They look like old ragged desert dervishes writhing in the agony of their remembered sins.

THE OLD DUDEEN

The important fact has been discovered that co-eds prefer sheiks who smoke pipes to those who smoke cigarettes. Every woman is looking in her secret heart for men of remarkable capacity. Anyone who can keep a pipe lighted either has unusual qualities or is Irish—and still has unusual qualities.

LANGUAGE HURDLE LEAPED

New Minister to Siam Visiting Los Angeles Will Not Have to Learn Puzzling Tongue

It is of more than casual importance to America's new Minister to Siam that the Siamese train their children in foreign languages.

At least Arthur H. Geissler of Oklahoma City, Okla., just appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the Near Western country, admitted at the Biltmore yesterday that any disquieting thoughts he may have entertained as to his ability to overcome the difficulties of the Siamese language have vanished, thanks to the progressive spirit of the Siamese.

ARTHUR H. GEISSLER

"Most of the Siamese with a high-school education," said the minister, "are able to speak English; the rest, French. Therefore, I do not anticipate any great difficulty."

Minister Geissler speaks French, German and Spanish. But Siamese, which was described as "similar to but quite different from Chinese," has not fallen within his compass.

The Minister looks forward to the opportunity to be of assistance in the development of trade and increased friendly relations between Siam and the United States.

For the last seven years, Minister Geissler has been stationed in Guatemala, and he reported that he has seen trade between the United States and Guatemala double in that time.

Los Angeles, he commented, is highly and kindly regarded in Guatemala. A number of Guatemalans come to Los Angeles every year for rest and recreation, he related, and they invariably return as boosters for Southern California.

PLANE'S "CEILING" FOUND FRESCOED WITH ICICLES

It may have been a bit chilly in Los Angeles yesterday, but Marshall Heidle, test pilot for the Lockheed Aircraft Company, brought back to earth a thermometer that he declared slid down to 16 deg. below zero when he climbed an Air Express plane to 25,200 feet with 2130 pounds of dead weight aboard.

Heidle took off from the Burbank factory field, climbed to 15,000 feeet in seventeen minutes, took a few whiffs from his oxygen tube to get used to it and continued to hold the ship's nose upward until ice formed on the 425-horsepower Wasp motor.

The flight was made to test the ship's absolute ceiling carrying the weight prescribed in its United States Department of Commerce license—the equivalent of four passengers, a pilot, 300 pounds of mail, fuel and flying equipment.

There is no record for the weight lifted yesterday, but the flight was observed and recorded by Joe Nikrent, official representative of the National Aeronautic Association who pointed out that the most similar record is 28,300 feet for planes carrying 1100 pounds.

Heidle consumed fifteen cubic feet of oxygen during the altitude test. He said that he was forced to return to earth when the ice became so thick on the motor that the cylinders would not fire.

He occupied the open cockpit at the rear of the fuselage, heavily clothed. It marked the fifth time this week that he has been above 20,000 feet testing planes.

BELL VOTE DUE IN APRIL

Referendum on Cement Mill Expected to be on Ballot in Water Bond Election

In all probability Los Angeles residents will have a chance to express their disapproval of the Alphonzo Bell cement project at the special water bond election which has been ordered held on April 29 by the City Council.

Clouding the issues, without actually putting a counter-referendum petition in the field, three petitions are being circulated in the city by the Bell interests. One is a withdrawal petition to be circulated among those who signed the referendum, according to Attorney Rollin McNitt, representing the Mountain Park interests, and one of the others is a petition addressed to the City Council asking them not to repeal the ordinances granting Bell the right to exploit his quarry in the Santa Ynez Canyon nor to call a special election. A third petition is being passed about in which voters are asked to express their approval of the project and asking the Council, in the event the referendary petition is successful, to give the voters an opportunity to express their approval of the project.

PREPARATIONS MADE

City Clerk Domingues yesterday made preparations for a possible referendum when the water bond issue is voted upon. The Bell ordinance will go into effect at midnight March 15 and the referendum petition must be filed before that time. It must contain at least 25,801 names which is 10 per cent of the vote cast for all Mayoralty candidates at the last city election. If 15 per cent of the voters attach their signatures the mandatory clause, calling an immediate election is invoked.

"I am allowed twenty days by law to canvass the vote," the City Clerk said yesterday. "However, I will have the work completed within five

Mrs. Switzer Arraigned on Charge of Shooting Husband

GLENDALE MAN FIGHTING DEATH

Wife Held Under Heavy Bail for Preliminary Trial

Quarrel Denied and Firing Blamed on Accident

Unnamed Witness Tells of Seeing Gun Pointed

With her husband at death's door in the hospital, Mrs. Margaret Switzer, 35-year-old housewife, yesterday was arraigned in Glendale Municipal Court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill him. Municipal Judge Lowe set her preliminary hearing for March 6, fixing bail at $10,000 in cash or $20,000 in bonds.

Mrs. Switzer was taken in custody at her home, 1220 South Central avenue, Glendale, Wednesday night, as the result of an admission by her husband, P. E. Switzer, laboratory assistant at the Glendale Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital, that the shot that wounded him, perhaps fatally, had been fired by his wife in the course of a quarrel last Monday. Switzer told Chief of Police Fraser his wife had threatened to shoot him and when he dared her to go ahead she fired.

BLAMES ACCIDENT

The accused wife entered a denial of Switzer's statement, insisting the gun exploded accidentally while she was demonstrating that the trigger was too stiff and needed oiling.

A witness, whose name Glendale police withheld, is said to have asserted that shortly before the shooting the Switzers had quarreled and that the husband had left the house and sat for ten minutes in his automobile.

While Switzer was seated in the car, the witness is quoted as stating, Mrs. Switzer appeared in the doorway of the house and pointed a gun at him. Switzer then returned to the house.

JEALOUSY ASCRIBED

On his return to the house, the wounded man told Chief Fraser, Mrs. Switzer again threatened to shoot him while the couple were at table, and that when he "called her bluff" she pulled the trigger. The .25-caliber bullet entered Switzer's right breast, pierced a lung and severed the backbone, lodging in muscles of the back. Surgeons report he has slim chance of recovery.

Glendale police attribute the trouble between the couple to jealousy. Switzer, however, denied there were any grounds for jealousy on his wife's part. The couple have been married eight years.

House Owned by Bishop Cantwell Damaged by Fire

An apartment-house at 717 South Burlington avenue, said to be owned by Bishop Cantwell, was slightly damaged by fire early yesterday morning. Originating from a gas heater on the first floor, flames burned up through the walls to the second and top story of the frame structure, causing considerable smoke.

Early discovery of the blaze by the landlady, Miss Margaret Marshall, enabled the few occupants of the building to reach the street by the time firemen arrived. The fire was extinguished within half an hour. Damage was estimated at $800.

The building, according to police, is leased out by the P. G. McGarry Company.

ORDINANCE ORDERED ON BOND VOTE

Special Election April 29 Will Deal With Water Issue of $38,800,000

City Attorney Werner yesterday was instructed by the City Council to draft the ordinance for a special election April 29 for the submission to the people of the $38,800,000 water bonds.

After the election ordinance was ordered drafted, Councilman Williams proposed a resolution placing the Council on record as being favorable to a power bond issue at the August election. After some discussion this was referred to the Water and Power Committee.

A group of Hollywood citizens interviewed Mayor Porter yesterday morning, urging him to use his influence with the Board of Water and Power Commissioners to remove the Mulholland Dam.

Mayor Porter replied that he had been considering the matter and will continue to do so.

Institute Will Draw Western Officeholders

The third annual institute of public administration is to be held at the University of Southern California April 14-19, under the auspices of the School of Citizenship and Public Administration.

The one-week college course will be attended by State, county and city officials from Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States, as well as by mayors, city managers, department heads and personnel in public service from more than 100 California municipalities.

Dr. William Bennett Munro of Harvard University is to head a general assembly at noon each day on principles of government. Another general session for all sections will be held at the climax of each day's classes, from 4 to 5 p.m., dealing with functional analysis and interdepartment problems and relations.

A group of ten State and national leaders will lecture on such subjects as assessments, recreation and parks, government finance and police administration.

Fastest Auto Being Built in Los Angeles

A sixteen-cylinder automobile, with which an assault on the speed record of 231.36 miles an hour is to be made, is being built at the local plant of Harry Miller, according to word received from Fresno yesterday. Miller would make no comment upon the report when he was asked about it yesterday.

The car was designed by Lee Norden, Fresno automobile distributor, and he indicated yesterday that he himself may pilot it on its attempt to beat the record made by Maj. H. O. D. Seagrave. It is expected that the car will be finished in time to enter it in the annual speed trials at Daytona Beach, Fla., next month.

Nordan said yesterday that the entire car, with the exception of wheels, tires and spark plugs, is of special design and that it differs radically from recognized racing-car construction. Its power plant consists of four motors of four cylinders each, arranged in series to form two straight-eight units. He said it is expected to develop a horsepower greatly in excess of any automobile motor ever built.

•WATCH YOURSELF

AFTER 40

Over half of men and women, unknowingly, are afflicted with an "after 40" ailment. What doctors now urge UNKNOWN to yourself, because there are no warning symptoms, you may have the most prevalent after 40 ailment . . . kidney breakdown.

Wear and tear of life begins to show at 40, and delicate kidney cells are first affected. The reason is this: Kidneys excrete 75% of poisonous waste from the system, much in too concentrated form. Overburdened, kidneys begin to fail in normal functioning, and poisons which should be eliminated are thrown back into the system. And this becomes the cause of many serious ills.

Doctors now urge 6 glasses daily of Puritas mineral-free drinking water, for these two important reasons: It dilutes, absorbs and carries off poisonous waste, thus easing the load of kidneys. Leaves no mineral deposits to add further to their burden.

Although you'll find its taste different at first, each drink you will increasingly enjoy.

FREAKISH WEATHER PREVAILS THROUGH NORTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. (Exclusive)—Spotted weather was the rule rather than the exception throughout Northern and Central California today and indications are there will be a recurrence tomorrow. Eureka, usually certain to receive rain whenever there is a storm area influencing California, was without a drop, as was the bay district, although rain fell all around. In the mountains, snow fell on Mt. Diablo in the east bay, making the greatest depth of the winter to date and raised the gauge at Twin Lakes in Amador county to ninety-three inches, yet the depth at Norden, the Sierra summit, receded from seventy-nine to seventy-seven inches.

The presence of a low-pressure area of high intensity between 600 and 700 miles west of Los Angeles, moving eastward, and the presence of an unusually high-pressure area over Canada, put the weather prognosticators in a delicate position. It should rain, but they refused to say so definitely. They contented themselves with declaring conditions will be "cloudy and unsettled."

Precipitation in inches reported by official northern stations at 5 p.m. was:

SACRAMENTO MAN HURT IN ELECTRICAL STORM

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Lives were periled and one man was injured by a freak electrical storm which struck Sacramento and the valley about 6:30 o'clock tonight. Radio tubes were blown out and lights were dimmed or extinguished in various sections of the city.

Clyde Ferarri, 37 years of age, operator of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's substation at Davis, was knocked through the door of the station when lightning struck a high-tension wire.

Young Fairbanks Fined as Speeder

"My boy, that's just a little too fast," Municipal Judge Valentine told Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., yesterday in traffic court, where the film actor pleaded guilty to driving at a rate of forty-two miles an hour in a fifteen-mile zone at La Brea and Fountain avenues on the 15th inst.

Fairbanks explained that he was late in reaching the studio and had pressed the accelerator a little too hard. He paid a $15 fine.

CITY HEALTH WORK GIVEN HIGH PRAISE

President Harvey Says Average Citizens Should Get Fuller Conception

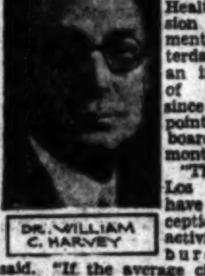
A greater conception by the public of the work being done by the Los Angeles Health Department is urged by President William C. Harvey of the Health Commission in a statement issued yesterday, following an investigation of its work since he was appointed to the board several months ago.



DR. WILLIAM C. HARVEY

"The people of Los Angeles have little conception of the activities of this bureau," he said. "If the average citizen knew the real service given the people by this health department he would be appreciative in the extreme."

President Harvey, himself a physician, declared that any man, woman or child in the city can go to the health department, if necessary, "and receive the best medical aid and advice that it is possible to receive anywhere in the nation, without cost."

He lauded the staff of the bureau as employees who are as interested in their work as though they were stockholders in the institution. He declared the commission is harmonious and hopes to put through some outstanding achievements during the present year.

He pointed out the need of removing the women's detention hospital from its present dilapidated quarters across from a public school on Riverside Drive, and its location on city property in the Chaves Ravine.

The Health Commission at its meeting today will take action on a request to the City Council for an appropriation of $110,000 for the construction of a new building as a detention home for women, with provision for 100 beds.

Wife Refutes Rumor Saying Mate Poisoned

Rumors that Jack Lyman died of poisoning were refuted, it was announced last night by the widow, Mrs. Dorothy Lyman of 3138 Redondo Boulevard, who said she received a letter stating that death was due to natural causes. Mrs. Lyman made the announcement to refute anonymously telephoned messages to Capt. Cato of the homicide squad, which inspired the police here to request an autopsy at Syracuse, N. Y., the place of burial.

Lyman died the 16th inst. following three days of illness. A doctor in attendance recorded the death as due to natural cause. After the body had been sent to Syracuse for burial, Capt. Cato received the anonymous hint of poisoning. Mrs. Lyman yesterday received a letter from her father-in-law, Edwin C. Lyman, inclosing a clipping from a Syracuse newspaper. This detailed that an analysis made in Syracuse established natural death. The father's letter verified this.

MEXICO MARRIAGE ASSAILED

Will Contest Asserts Decedent Was Not Legally Wedded to Wife Named as Beneficiary

A Tia Juana marriage assertedly solemnized in the presence of emergency witnesses who had not known the contracting parties for at least three years, as required by Mexican law, was attacked before Superior Judge Sproul in the contest of the will of the late Frederick Brunton, whose children by his first marriage are claiming the income from a trust fund, $600 monthly, which Brunton had inherited from his father.

Provisions under which Brunton inherited the money stated that he should be living with his wife at the time of his death, or the income from the estate would revert to his two children by his first marriage, Frederick, 17 years of age, and Virginia, 16, of Denver.

Attorney Lawrence Lewis of Denver, argued that Mrs. Brunton No. 3 had not been legally married to Brunton, and could not be considered his wife.

A copy of the Mexican statutes governing marriages was produced by Attorney Lewis and Jose Cantu, brother of Esteban Cantu, former Governor of Baja California, was called to the stand. Cantu said he is employed as a "confidential agent" in the border city, and that he often acts as witness in the case of marriages.

"Did you ever see Mr. and Mrs. Brunton before the wedding day?" Cantu was asked.

"No, senor," the witness replied. "A friend of mine brought the couple to me and said they are nice people. He asked me if, as a favor, I would sign the wedding certificate as a witness. I like to accommodate a friend, so I signed it."

NORMAND RITES SET FOR TODAY

Leaders of Film Industry to Pay Actress Last Tribute

Stars and Close Friends Listed as Pallbearers

Mother and Sister Due This Morning from East

Hollywood, represented by leaders of the film industry and stars, many of whom began their career with her, will pay its last respects to Mabel Normand, comedienne, when funeral services are conducted for her at 11 a.m. today from the Cunningham & O'Connor chapel, 1031 South Grand avenue. The services will be private.

Pallbearers announced yesterday by Lew Cody, her husband, include Sid Grauman, D. W. Griffith, Mack Sennett, Charles Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, Ford Sterling, Eugene Pallette, Samuel Goldwyn, United States District Judge James, Arthur Goebel and Paul Bern, her lifelong friend and adviser.

The services today will be conducted by Rev. Father Michael J. Mullins, pastor of the Good Shepherd Church of Beverly Hills. Interment will be at the new mausoleum at Calvary Cemetery. Cody has requested the public to respect his wishes for privacy during the services.

Yesterday it was learned that besides immediate members of the family, about 100 close friends of Miss Normand and Cody will attend. Mrs. Mary Normand, mother, and Gladys, sister of Miss Normand, were scheduled to arrive yesterday, but missed airplane connections. They are to arrive at 9:30 a.m. today by train in time for the services. They are coming from Staten Island, N. Y.

Miss Normand died last Sunday at a Monrovia sanatorium following a lingering illness.

BELL BALLOT DUE IN APRIL

days. I will work day and night checking the names and as soon as my work is finished I will report to the City Council that there is enough names or that the petition is insufficient. In the event that it is insufficient the petitioners will be allowed ten days to file added names. This will allow us plenty of time to have things made ready for the April election. The Council could delay until the election in June, 1931, if they cared too, providing only 10 per cent of the voters signed the petition. If 15 per cent sign the immediate election is mandatory."

EXPENSE OPPOSED

A communication was filed yesterday with the City Council by the Home Zone Defense League, which is fighting the Bell project, in which it is pointed out that the expense of a special election is not necessary and that the organization does not favor such a move. The letter, which was signed by Charles M. Conant, E. F. Leonard, Thorwald Siegfried, Arthur E. Weber, George W. Ley and Orro W. Lord, says in part:

"It has been publicly stated that our design is to cause unnecessary expense for a special election to the city of Los Angeles. We are writing this letter to deny that charge and to ask your honorable body to arrange matters that these petitions can be placed on the ballot at the special election you will call for the purpose of voting on the issuance of water bonds."

PETITION FOR PARK REFERRED TO SHEARER

The petition of the Home Zone Defense Association asking that an assessment district be formed to acquire for a public park the proposed quarry site of the Los Angeles Mountain Park Company in the Santa Ines Canyon, was referred to Supt. Shearer for an investigation and report by the Park Commission yesterday.

The petition, presented recently to the City Council by Attorney Thorwald Siegfried, had been referred to the Parks and Playground Commission of the Council, which, in turn, referred it to the Park Board, following the usual procedure when petitions are received for new parks.

Shearer stated that he would investigate the plan with a view to seeing whether the patronage for such a park would warrant the creation of an assessment district for its purchase, as in other petitions of the kind referred to him, and probably will make a report to the board next Thursday. The board, in turn, will make its report to the Council committee.

There was no discussion of the petition by the commissioners. The property sought is that in which Alphonzo Bell seeks to establish a rock quarry and cement plant, and those supporting the petition seek to avert such a program in favor of a park of about 495 acres.

FILM ACTOR PAYS FINE ON 'CELLAR'

Entertainment of Friends Costs Lionel Belmore $100 on Liquor Charge

Lionel Belmore, well-known character actor of the screen, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or spend twenty days in jail by Municipal Judge Wilson yesterday for possession of liquor in his home at 7020 Fountain avenue. He paid the fine.

Lionel Belmore

Belmore, through his attorney, admitted possession of various brands of liquor, but insisted he kept it only for his friends and never had sold any. He informed the court that he is a bachelor and that his friends who dropped in occasionally to see him were old-time gentleman acquaintances.

Belmore was arrested January 8, last, by Officer B. G. Hayworth and a squad of officers working out of Capt. Plummer's office for the District Attorney. Hayworth testified he and his men entered the actor's home on a warrant issued by the District Attorney's office following complaints from citizens that numerous men were seen going in and out of the dwelling. These, Belmore declared in court, were merely friends.

GAS FRANCHISE RULING PENDS

The State Railroad Commission today took under submission the application of the Commercial Gas Company, Ltd., to manufacture and sell gas in the city of Owensmouth. The utility also seeks permission to issue $50,000 worth of stock with which to finance the undertaking, according to the application heard by Commissioner Loutitt.

You, yourself, rarely know when you have halitosis (unpleasant breath). That's the insidious thing about it. And even your closest friends won't tell you.

Sometimes, of course, halitosis comes from some deep-seated organic disorder that requires professional advice. But usually—and fortunately—halitosis is only a local condition that yields to the regular use of Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle.

Listerine halts food fermentation in the mouth. And being a powerful deodorant, it destroys all odors, leaving the breath fresh, sweet, and clean. It puts you on the safe and polite side.

Moreover, in using Listerine to combat halitosis, you are quite sure to avoid sore throat and those more serious illnesses that start with throat infections. Because such infections are caused by germs—and Listerine kills germs. Even the stubborn Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid) germs in counts ranging to 200,000,000 yield to it in 15 seconds.

In a collision between a taxicab and passenger automobile at Eighty-third street and Normandie avenue yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Cenna Smith, 28 years of age, of 1127½ Compton avenue, and her 3-year-old son, William, were seriously injured. Mrs. Smith received possible internal injuries. The child suffered severe head lacerations.

They were riding in a car driven by Miss Pearl Fant of 1621 West Thirty-sixth street, according to police. The taxicab was driven by James Cole of 123 North San Pedro street. Neither driver was seriously hurt, police said. Mrs. Smith and her son received emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Classrooms for Officers Voted

The Board of Education yesterday voted to grant the request of the Police Commission to establish special classes for policemen who have not had a high-school education. At present there are 1500 such policemen on the force and about 1000 of them have expressed their willingness to attend the classes to be established by the board. For the time being the courses to be given will be only in English and in civil government. It is estimated that the special instruction to be provided for policemen will require the full time services of only three teachers.

SINGER TO MARRY AIR EXECUTIVE

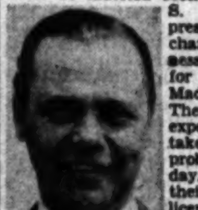
Mrs. M. M. Morris Will Wed W. S. Belt, Official of T.A.T.-Maddux Lines

Mrs. Margaret Messer Morris, soprano, exponent of Cadman songs, is to be married soon to William S. Belt, vice-president in charge of business operations for T. A. T.-Maddux Lines. The wedding is expected to take place probably Sunday. They got their marriage license yesterday.



WILLIAM S. BELT

Belt has been here some years in the business department of Arrowhead Springs Hotel, Edgewater Beach Club, Maddux Airlines and last November became vice-president of the merged T.A.T.-Maddux lines. He came from Dayton, O.

Mrs. Morris is known in concert circles throughout the Southland. She has appeared in Hollywood Bowl and elsewhere. Her first husband died nearly five years ago. He was C. L. Morris, advertising man and once secretary of the Kiwanis Club.

Wife's Tale of Triangle Wins Divorce Decree

Mrs. Jennie Pfeifer, 61 years of age, went before Superior Judge Tuttle yesterday seeking a divorce from Martin E. Pfeifer, 46, on the grounds he was associating with another woman, who has since died. A decree was granted.

The wife declared her husband, who is a carpenter, spent the night with the other woman at a hotel in Ventura, where they were registered as man and wife.

"I also spent the night there," Mrs. Pfeifer said. "In the morning I waited in the lobby and when my husband and the other woman appeared I asked him to explain his conduct."

"What did he say?" asked her attorney.

"He said he didn't need to explain."

The couple married at Santa Ana on March 1, 1915, and separated on May 11, 1929.

Ire of Judge Aroused Over Girl's Plight

Aroused when he discovered that Miss Lilith Dusenberry, 18-year-old stenographer of 1590 East Fortieth street, had been held in the County Jail since January 29, last, without having been granted an arraignment, Superior Judge Wood yesterday ordered the girl released from custody at once on her own recognizance. Miss Dusenberry is charged with driving while intoxicated.

The court instructed the woman to obtain legal advice from the Public Defender and return to court at 2 p.m. next Monday to enter her plea.

When she was brought into court Miss Dusenberry complained to the judge, explaining that she had no money and did not know how to obtain her release from prison.

Case Against Redondo Beach Man Dismissed

Prosecution of James E. Riddle, Jr., Redondo Beach electrician accused of presenting seven false claims to that city for material used in street lighting repair work, was ended in Superior Judge Schauer's court yesterday when the judge ordered the case dismissed for lack of evidence.

The technical stumbling block was the inability of witnesses to identify positively wiring used in repairing street lights. As a result it was impossible to disprove Riddle's claim that he had made the repairs.

Trial on a second indictment charging grand theft of $2500 from the City of Redondo Beach was deferred until March 25.

WATERSHED SITE URGED FOR PRISON

Magazine Editor Suggests Owens Valley as Ideal for New State Penitentiary

The suggestion that the new State penitentiary be located upon Los Angeles municipal water lands in Owens Valley is contained in a letter P. M. Abbott, editor of Government, has sent to Gov. Young, Mayor Porter and President Haynes of the Municipal Bureau of Water and Power.

Abbott says the lands there are returning to desert, that a site could be found far from any residents who might object to proximity of such an institution and that prisoners could be used to carry out a reforestation project on the watershed. He sets forth that the climate and general surroundings are ideal for such an institution.

A site, he believes, could be obtained from the city, having no use for the lands but purchased merely in order to provide for water supplies, much more reasonably than a site could be bought from some private owner.

Hospital Drive Workers Will Report Today

The second workers' report luncheon for the $1,000,000 Cedars of Lebanon Hospital Building Fund campaign will be held this noon at the Elite Cafe, 633 South Flower street. All reports of the first week of active solicitation on the part of more than 1000 volunteer solicitors will be announced. Jay B. Jacobs, campaign chairman, will preside.

The following contributions were received yesterday, as announced by General Chairman Baruh: Ludwig Schiff, $10,000; M. A. Newmark, $5000; Maurice S. Hellman, $5000; Behrendt-Levy, $5000; Samuel Goldwyn, $5000; Robert Crawford, $5000; J. E. ## Judge Decides $85,880 Due on Collateral

Superior Judge Jorgenson yesterday sent to the County Clerk his decision in the case of the Stockholders' Auxiliary Corporation against Arthur Bard, the Bank of America and the Breakers Club Holding Company.

According to the plaintiff's testimony, it had deposited collateral in the bank as security on a note. The bank, it was argued by Attorney H. H. Harris for the plaintiff, valued the collateral at $16,000, and credited the corporation with that amount. Suit was entered against the bank for the difference between the $16,000 and the amount at which the court might value the securities.

Judge Jorgenson found this amount to be $101,880, and rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff for the balance, $85,880.

"STORK" SHOWER BURGLAR GETS RICH HAUL IN PURSES

A burglar who rudely climaxed a "stork" shower at the home of Mrs. George I. Smith, 2702 Live Oak street, Walnut Park, late Wednesday night by making away with the purses and handbags of Mrs. Smith and nine women guests during the festivities, was the object of a search yesterday by deputy sheriffs.

After cutting a screen and entering through a bedroom window, the thief gathered up the purses and handbags, valued with the cash and other effects at close to $200, and escaped, according to a report made by Mrs. Smith.

Those reporting losses are Mrs. Marvel Wasson, 6409 1-2 Rita street, Huntington Park; Mrs. Albert Platt, 6417 South Woodward street, Bell; Mrs. R. T. Bacon, 6114 Clarkson street, Maywood; Mrs. Gladys Aker, 1832 South Sierra Vista, Alhambra; Mrs. Lynn A. Brinkley, 6409 1-2 Rita street, Huntington Park; Mrs. S. E. Rextrew, 6206 Templton street, Huntington Park; Mrs. B. A. Shiver, 118 North Westmoreland street; Mrs. Janet Wutke, 1849 South Highland avenue, and Mary V. Platt, 7008 Seville street, Huntington Park.

LEWIS AND JULIAN OIL DEALS TOLD

Convicted President on Stand Fifth Day Under Questioning of Lawyers

Financial transactions between the Lewis Oil Company and the Julian Petroleum Corporation as explained by S. C. Lewis, former president of both organizations marked the fifth day of the oil man's cross-examination in Superior Judge Tappaan's court yesterday.

Lewis's testimony taken in the form of a deposition, is for later use in the $15,000,000 recovery suit brought by former Julian stockholders against the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and a group of local brokers. He is being cross-examined by Attorney H. T. Morrow.

Almost the entire day went to the identification by Lewis and the reading into the records of various documents and testimony taken from the transcripts of the recent mail-fraud case against Lewis and Jacob Berman in Federal Court which resulted in the conviction of both defendants.

From indications by counsel it appeared doubtful last night that the Lewis deposition will be completed this week.

CHANGE IN RUM DEATH CASE FILED

Delinquency Accusation Brought Against Youth Who Sold Liquor

A charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor was filed yesterday against Alick Karam, 20 years of age, of 3106 Darwin street, by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Coleman, following an investigation into the death of Donald Ashworth, 16, from acute alcoholism.

It is charged that Karam sold a half gallon of whisky to Paul Phelps, 17, who, with young Ashworth and Charles Post, 17, and two girls, drove to Lancaster and drank it.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Coleman also is investigating the case further to determine whether or not any charge shall be filed against Karam because of Ashworth's death. According to Coleman, Francis Nicholas Burns, who is asserted to have sold the liquor to Karam, is being held for questioning in the case.

Leslie Shooting Inquisition Set This Afternoon

An inquest will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today into the fatal shooting last Tuesday night of Robert Leslie, 32-year-old asserted bootlegger of 604½ East Fifth street, in connection with which two suspects are being held by police. The two in custody are Joseph (Cockeyed) C. Herring, 21, and Morris (Red) Fulton, 45. They are booked on suspicion of murder.

Continuing their investigation of the affray, Detective Lieutenants Condaffer and Ryan yesterday interrogated several unnamed women acquaintances of the dead man and his companion, James (Well-Fed) Murphy, 45, of 511 San Julian street, who is in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital with a possible fatal bullet wound in his body.

Leslie and Murphy were shot at Griffith and Clanton streets, in the execution of what police believe was an underworld plot to rob Murphy. When Herring was taken to Murphy's cot in the hospital, the wounded man pointed at him, police reported.

Bars Against Subway and 'L' Road Asked

The Anti-Elevated Association of Los Angeles yesterday filed with the City Council a petition protesting against the formation of assessment districts for the construction of elevated railways or subways and asking that the City Charter be amended so as to prohibit such districts.

The petition also includes the suggested amendment, drawn by Leslie Hewitt, E. O. Leake, Chauncey G. Kolts and Peter Hornbrook. The petitioners ask that the Council either take action to place the amendment on the ballot for the November election or else advise against it in time to permit the petitioners to circulate an initiative petition.

The petition is signed by the representatives of thirty-three improvement associations.

TEACHER WILL ATTEND SERVICES FOR BROTHER

Mrs. Mildred Wentworth, member of the faculty of the Metropolitan High School, left for Albuquerque yesterday to attend memorial services for her brother, Charles Florus Coan, Ph.D., who was head of the history department of the University of New Mexico. Dr. Coan was a graduate of the University of California and was well known in educational circles of the Southwest. He was the author of a history of New Mexico. The memorial services which will be conducted at the university this evening, will mark the establishment of a scholarship fund in history by his friends at the university in his honor.

CO-EDS WILL SING

More than 300 young women are expected to gather in the Student Union, Thirty-sixth street and University avenue, at 3:15 p.m. Monday for the second annual co-ed songfest of University of Southern California. Only two men will be present, Jack Cornett and Herbert Drew, who will provide accordion and banjo accompaniment. A dinner will follow the sing. Doris Tennant, president of the Women's Self-Government Association, will preside.

Today's Bible Text

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth is unrighteousness.—Romans 1, 18.

BACK-FENCE BROADCASTERS

And now women are invading the broadcasting field. What chance will mere man stand?

DOES ALL THE TALKING

That fellow whose vote cannot be "gotten out" because he failed to register is the one whose voice rises above all the rest when political issues are discussed.

MODERN CHIVALRY

Yeggmen in New York the other day refrained from blowing off the door of a safe when they learned it was near a hospital and might disturb the patients. No, it didn't go that far, they got the money in another way.

MATTER OF TASTE

Anything that has a "kick" in it seems to taste the same to modern drinkers. The four youths who died at Orchard, Neb., from drinking antifreeze concoction used in radiators couldn't tell it from ordinary bootleg.

BUT NOT TO BATHE

New York news agencies send out a report that a high temperature of 68 deg. sent thousands scurrying to the beaches. But like "the darling daughter" they didn't go near the water. Sixty-eight would be nearer the temperature of the water out here.

HOW ABOUT GREASE?

England experiments with pink and blue colorings in road surfacings, hoping to improve the visibility in wet weather. Will we have pink and blue oil in the engine, too? The stuff they use now, and that leaks out in spite of improved machinery, would blacken any colored surface that might be laid.

NOT ALL EXPLAINED

Daniel Flores told newspaper men that he had no thought of killing President Ortiz Rubio when he went to the inauguration and declares it was "a sudden impulse" after hearing the national anthem played. But he failed to explain why he carried the automatic pistol to the scene.

THAT TANTALIZING MENU

The odor of orange blossoms and fresh fruit from the Golden State featured the dinner given in Washington by Secretary Wilbur to President Hoover. Was that intended as a lure to induce the Chief Executive to include a home trip to California in his program of coming events?

JAZZ ADS DISAPPEARING

While the ultra-modernists boast of progress through being permitted to hold an exhibition of their guess-'em-if-you-can paintings at the Grand Central Galleries, New York, ads in the distortion motif seem about played out. A good indication that the people want to see what they can understand.

HABITS HARD TO BREAK

Americans who go to England learn that the British say "cahn't" and "glahss" not "cawn't" and "glawss," as humorists and comedians on this side would have you believe. But the American style has been written and spoken so many times that it would be a stupendous task to attempt a reform.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAYS

George Washington was born on February 11 and celebrated that date until the winter of 1753, when he attained his majority on February 22. And if the calendar reform is put through, America will honor the memory of the first leader February 19, 1933. No wonder we get our dates mixed once in a while.

PARENTS AID CRIME

The Chicago lad who alleges that his mother taught him to steal has had no worse an example set him than thousands of American children who see their parents openly violate the liquor and automobile laws. Every time daddy "steps on it" or drinks in defiance of the law he is undermining what has been taught in the schoolroom and the Sunday-school.

THE RED RIOTS

The Communist demonstration which the police broke up at the Plaza Wednesday night was synchronous with similar demonstrations in Seattle, Chicago, New York and other cities—an aimless, pointless riot said to be in celebration of "international day." In all probability it was a form of protest against the international criticism directed at the Russian dictatorship, and a follow-up of the war scare with which the soviet press a few days ago regaled its readers. The anniversary of the founding of the Red army was seized upon to urge Russians to be ready to repel invasion, which was equivalent to urging them to forget their home troubles.

Virtually all of those arrested here, it was noticeable, bore Russian names and the majority are presumably aliens. In Russia, such demonstrators would be court-martialed and shot with a minimum of ceremony or delay. This being a capitalist nation with no mercy on the proletariat, a few will presumably serve short jail sentences with food and clothing supplied at the taxpayers' expense, though there is a possibility that some may be sent to San Quentin under the criminal syndicalist act, which, fortunately, has not been repealed, as the radicals demanded. As many as possible should be deported.

There is no reason why aliens should make a living here stirring up trouble for the government which shelters and protects them, and on behalf of a regime which openly declares itself the enemy of all mankind, at the same time professing not to understand why it is disliked.

As for the alarmist campaign in Russia, it probably was promoted by Stalin and his assistant czars because internal conditions in the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics were causing them a good deal of worry. Stirring up a war scare is a familiar device of dictators, age-old in origin, worked very successfully during the French revolution and found useful even by Mussolini among the more sophisticated Italians. The Russian primitives are easy victims.

Last year it was poor, disorganized China that was threatening the existence of the "dictatorship of the proletariat;" now it is Europe and America which are pictured as "jealous of the soviet's economic and industrial progress." According to Izvestia, a leading soviet organ, "the Pope, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the French police, the English die-hards, Socialists, Fascists, foreign counterfeiters of soviet money and the German bourgeoisie have united into one holy union to launch new bandit attacks upon our country." The ignorance of its readers concerning world affairs protects Izvestia from being called to account for the absurdity of its assertion.

Nothing but continuing domestic resentment at the burdens heaped upon the people by the Stalin regime could account for the putting out by the dictatorship of this chauvinistic and dangerous propaganda—dangerous, because it may alarm Russia's neighbors into really taking up arms against her.

It is true that the soviet government has been subjected to rather more than the usual amount of foreign criticism lately, because of its religious persecutions directed at all creeds, the inhumanity with which it has been handling the Kulak problem, and the intrigues of its agitators abroad. The reference to the French police doubtless arises from the inquiry into the mysterious disappearance of a Russian general in Paris, resulting in suspicion of kidnaping and even murder being directed toward the soviet embassy. This followed on the heels of a similar discovery being made about the soviet diplomatic representation in Greece, which is rather more than suspected of having taken part in the assassination of several men regarded as political enemies of Stalin. It was not without reason, therefore, that the Mexican police inquired about a possible connection of soviet emissaries with the attack upon President Ortiz Rubio.

While foreigners thus have had plenty of grounds for complaint against soviet activities, this does not mean that Russia has been in any danger of attack. Indeed, no nation on earth is in less danger of a military invasion so long as the recollection of Napoleon's disaster lasts. If there is any banding together of the European nations against Russia, it will be for defensive purposes only.

If the soviet dictatorship really desires to improve its relations with the world the way is open and clear, though perhaps difficult to men of the Stalin temperament. Common honesty and common decency in the fulfilment of international obligations is one requirement. Adoption of internal policies that will not shock and alarm, as have the executions of hapless priests and rabbis, and the shooting of peasants for no other offense than that of having a little property, is another. And the government must refrain from organizing artificial fright among its own subjects in such a way as to produce real fear among its neighbors.

MUSICAL UNEMPLOYMENT

That a serious condition of unemployment exists among professional musicians is not to be denied. Nearly all of those who formerly found employment in theaters are now out of work. In part this has been due to the expense incidental to sound-film equipment, which has required managements to cut down wherever possible, but orchestras have not only been eliminated from film theaters, but from many in which stage plays are given also. The American Federation of Musicians, commonly known as the musicians' union, is attempting to remedy the situation by a national advertising campaign, seeking to persuade the public to demand instrumental music, hand-made on the spot.

While this campaign may here and there have some effect, and afford relief to a few of the federation's members, there is little doubt that the plight of the players, in general, will continue to be such as to arouse public sympathy. The reason for this is that the fundamental cause of the musicians' difficulties is not lack of public demand for good music with pictures and plays, but the mistaken and shortsighted policy of the union leaders, and that until this policy is reversed, or conditions change so that open-shop orchestras are again possible, general employment of musicians is not to be expected.

This is a loss both ways—to the public and to the musicians. The union restrictions are the sticking point. An excellent example of the sort of rules that frighten away prospective employers are those just imposed upon the broadcasting stations. No station operating here rated by the union as Class A may hire any musicians at all unless it keeps a ten-piece orchestra of strictly union players continuously employed, and no Class B station can hire any unless it loads its pay roll regularly with six. Obviously, there are times when the stations which do not care to assume such large pay rolls might care to use two or three or four musicians, and could thus give employment to a lesser number, but union rules forbid. So far the rules apply only to "sponsored programs" produced in the studio, but these are the programs which keep the stations going.

These rules setting a minimum number of musicians to be employed killed the theater orchestras. Managers who were told that they must either employ so many musicians or none regretfully accepted the latter alternative and gave their shows without music. Other shows which attempted to comply with the rules were forced to shorten their runs because of the heavy unnecessary expense. It is obvious that the theater management ought to be the best judge of how many musicians are needed, and how many can be afforded, and that in the aggregate many more musicians would be employed if the matter were left to individual judgment.

No employer likes to have employees forced upon him, and his resentment is certain to recoil on those who do the forcing. Officials of the musicians' union set up these rules and the members are reaping the harvest.

THE CORNSTALK

The law of compensation works in unsuspected places. The retiring cornstalk has been treated with neglect for ages. Attempts to cut it into feed have even got on the cows' nerves. Putting salad dressing on it in the silo has not improved its disposition. Leaving it with its rags to flap in the winter's wind has not solved the problem.

But now an industrial scientist at the Iowa State College has discovered after twenty years' experimentation that a fine quality of thin lumber substitute may be made of the cornstalk. So its stock has gone up a few points.

For a time it acquired some dignity by being made into rayon for silk hose. But with the advent of long skirts, it grew discouraged and began to cast about for other avenues of effort.

It has long been regarded half-heartedly as a sort of fertilizer. But its unyielding nature kept it straggling over the field. It has never been willing to sacrifice itself easily. It refused to be plowed under and insisted on entangling alliances with the plow and harrow. As a result it has not been highly esteemed even as a food for plants.

Not long ago a dream that it might be turned into paper for the daily press seemed to brighten its future; but the dream did not come true. Even a newspaper wanted something more lasting. For this reason it has not prospered in its literary career. Its authorship ambitions were rudely blighted.

The cornstalk has always been plentiful and useless. Packers have been able to utilize everything about the pig, but the grunt, and even that sometimes seems to be employed over the radio. But neither scientist nor farmer has been able to make anything out of the ear muff after the nubbin has been extracted. It does not even stand as a scarecrow; for it is an invitation to the ravens.

But now that it can be turned into boards for housing something besides field mice and furnishing a wigwam for jackrabbits, a new door of opportunity is open and it enjoys a new lease on life.

A CAPITOL OFFENSE

A fountain pen is said to run faster the emptier it is. What an institution for a Congressman to own!

THE BOY NEXT DOOR

By James J. Montague

When Jack's a little older
He knows that he'll be bolder—
More quick and deft
And tall and strong of limb.
And then he'll learn some punches
That land on fellows' lunches,
And he'll be rid
Of that big kid
Who lives next door to him.

He'll walk right up and poke him;
He'll biff and paste and soak him;
He'll black his eye
And make him cry
And whimper like a hound.
And Jack won't need to bother
To hurry home to father,
Or hide away
Alone all day
When bad boys come around.

But, though it's most unpleasant,
That next-door boy at present
Is large and mean
And always keen
To bully and to fight.
And so, until he's stronger
And his two arms are longer,
Jack won't destroy
That next-door boy;
He'll wait and get him right!

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

AS LOS ANGELES is said to contain more inventors to the block than any other city, some of them should be interested in the prizes offered by the American Humane Association for the invention of effective traps which will capture wild animals without torturing them.

Though American women are very tender-hearted and like to belong to societies for the prevention of cruelty, there still seems no hope of getting them to give up wearing furs. They all like to believe that the furs they wear come from animals humanely killed, but the fact remains that more than 100,000,000 animals a year are trapped in the United States for commercial purposes, humane society workers say. And a high percentage of the animals trapped suffer agonies, sometimes for days, before they are put to death.

So the Humane Association hopes to have effective humane traps put on the market and then secure State laws to make the use of any other kind illegal.

Numerous Trappers Here

"One usually thinks of trapping as confined to the far North," H. H. Hallett, secretary of the State Commission for the Protection of Children and Animals, which is fostering the prize competitions here, said yesterday. "But the fact is that one does not have to go outside of Los Angeles county to find a good deal of trapping. Certain magazines carry advertisements which make boys imagine there is a good deal of money to be gained by trapping, and the result is that there are canyons within the city limits of Los Angeles and Pasadena, as well as in more distant parts of the county, in which many traps are set. Ringtailed cats have completely disappeared from this area within recent years and other species of wild life are becoming extinct. The worst effect, however, is the fostering of cruel tendencies in children too young to be discriminating."

PAGING JUDGE FRICKE!

Hearsay

Isadore Moldel, an Ohio columnist who recently came to Los Angeles to practice law, thinks our colyum ought to award a special medal to Judge Fricke of the Criminal Court for never cracking a smile during the cult trial, when even New Yorkers are laughing about it. Moldel reported part of the trial for the New York Herald-Tribune, as follows:

A witness for the defense was being examined by Asst. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson.

Mr. Ferguson: Did God ever speak to you directly?

Witness: Yes.

Mr. Ferguson: What did God say to you?

Defense Counsel, Mr. Cochrane, objected and his objection was sustained on the hearsay rule.

Mr. Ferguson: Have you ever heard supernatural voices?

Witness: Yes.

Mr. Ferguson: Audible or inaudible?

Witness: Audible.

Mr. Ferguson: What did these supernatural voices say to you?

Again Mr. Cochrane objected and was sustained.

Wonderful Schooling

Being a newcomer, Isadore, you can't imagine how many funny things our judges have to learn to sit through with straight faces.

Can't Escape 'Em by Dying

On through life we daily go, dependent on some trust!
We patronize the mergers that are formed because we must!
The doctors' trust will grab us every time that we are sick;
We patronize the drug trust and we never make a kick!
The coal trust warms us winters, when the blizzards come and go;
The ice trust cools us summers, when the torrid zephyrs blow!
And when we pass from earthly joys up to our heavenly rest,
The undertakers' trust steps in and kindly does the rest!

E. A. BRININSTOOL.

No Game For Scotchmen

We have experienced many excitements, but there are a few for which we never could get up sufficient courage. For instance, we never have had our hands held by a manicurist.

When we go home with finger nails bitten and torn, after a hard day's bluffing, we often meet with stern reproaches from our faithful helpspend. But they might be worse.

Yesterday we asked our barber if most Los Angeles men were as timid. He told us that 30 per cent of the men entering that shop employed the manicurists. So three men out of ten are braver than we are.

"That's the ratio we figure, he said: "Three girls to ten barbers. And they are kept just about as busy as we are. But they make more money. Men who rarely think of tipping a barber never fail to tip the manicurist. And often the tip amounts to 75 cents or $1."

And so, alas, we suppose we never shall be manicured.

LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

A Correction

LA HABRA, Feb. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Some one on The Times staff should check up on his geography.

In an article on Page 22, Part II of The Times of February 20 (column 2) the statement is made that Isaac Sacks "at Butte, Mont., camped on the lawn of the capitol," etc.

As a former resident of Montana I would like to say that when I lived in Helena the capitol was in that city, and if it has been moved from there to Butte, I have not heard of it.

Also, as a former employee at the capitol, I'd say that the very efficient custodians of that building would certainly interfere with anyone who attempted to "camp" on its very beautiful grounds.

A correction is requested of this absurdity.

CECILE S. PRATT.

Easy Going, Hell Bent

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] February 17, at 7 p.m. Melrose at June street. Two expensive sport roadsters madly careening west on Melrose at sixty miles per hour, darting in and out—brakes screeching—flirting with death, in which event the drivers would probably have innocent company.

February 19. Headlines in The Times informing us that liability insurance rates for autos is to go up 20 per cent in Los Angeles.

Not long ago burglary insurance rates jumped 50 per cent and now auto liability insurance rates follow suit. Of course they would! And 99 per cent of the public, those who are considerate enough to drive in a sane manner, will pay the freight for a few damphools who are not, and at the same time the former run the risk of getting their necks broken by one of the latter.

Are we not violating those natural laws which are responsible for the "survival of the fittest" when we try by every scientific means to keep alive those who are physically or mentally a menace and burden to future generations—when we allow habitual criminals to exist, or at least to gain their liberty at any time, for any reason whatever—when we deal too leniently with people who have so little physical or mental aptness for driving a motor car safely?

We make laws for our protection.

Punishment for breaking these laws is loosely administered.

We are not protected.

Therefore, ruthlessness in meting out punishment is necessary.

DR. HERSCHEL S. GLICK.

Bad For Everyone

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Autoists run too fast over crossings downtown and on the roads everywhere. The results are terrible. Many of the drivers are drunk and all are crazy. Safety zones are safe only in name. The speed allowed is too high. Thousands of tourists will go home with reports of the danger from autos in Southern California.

Can't you work up a line of stuff warning the people of the danger of a loss of business if these conditions continue? A threatened loss of tourist trade ought to get under their hide. Get the Chamber of Commerce on it, too.

The writer has been spending the winter here for years. What shall he say on his return to Iowa?

IOWAN.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Indoor Baseball?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

Twenty industrial teams will be scheduled in the indoor baseball league now being organized at the Bell Evening High School, 4328 East Bell avenue, Bell, and representatives from business firms in the vicinity should enroll at once in order to assure their organizations a place in the contests. The entrance fee for each organization is $3 and this goes to provide trophies for the fortunate teams. Outside of this sum, the only requirement is a gym suit and soft-soled shoes, which should not cost more than $1.50 each. A hearty welcome is extended to newcomers and oldtimers of all ages.

Besides baseball, there is tennis every night on the lighted courts and track men are being lined up for the spring events in shot put, high jump, broad jump, sprints and distance races. Handball and basketball teams may secure the use of the gymnasium by requesting this privilege. Tuesday and Thursday, from 7 to 9 p.m., the coach is in the gymnasium to talk with men about all arrangements.

Chatted With the Family

The biggest telephone bill ever run up by a guest in a New York hotel totaled $875 for one week's calls. A big business man he must have been, surely. Not at all. He was a recent visitor from San Francisco and his long-distance calls were all for his wife and six children at home. "Speaking" well for at least one husband and father.

PRESIDENTIAL PORTRAITURE

BY ARTHUR L. MacKAYE

Among the hundreds of thousands of postage-stamp collectors in the United States there is at this time much interest in the report that an entirely new series of stamps may be issued by the Postoffice Department this year. Few countries have issued such a great variety of postage stamps as has the United States, and collectors are now asking "What need is there at this time for a new issue?" The issue now in use is comprehensive, ranging from one-half cent to $5, showing both portraits and scenes.

However, should a new set of postage stamps be engraved it is now suggested that the issue be more representative of our Presidents than has heretofore been the case. Thousands of grammar and high school children in Los Angeles are members of school stamp clubs, while more and more the lowly postage stamp is being used for the promotion of the study of history, geography and the money values of various countries. Only the portraits of fifteen of our Presidents, out of thirty, have been given a place on our postage stamps since 1847, when the first general issue of two stamps, 5 and 10 cents values, was issued; the 5 cents carried the portrait of Benjamin Franklin, first Postmaster-General of the United States, the 10 cents the portrait of Washington, the country's first President.

Other than Washington the Presidents which have so far been honored by the Postoffice Department, in the order of their inauguration, include Thomas Jefferson, third President; James Monroe, fifth President; Andrew Jackson, seventh President; Zachary Taylor, twelfth President; Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth President; U. S. Grant, eighteenth President; Rutherford B. Hayes and James A. Garfield, nineteenth and twentieth Presidents, respectively. Beginning with President Grover Cleveland, 1884, all of our Presidents who have since died can be found in the issues of 1902 and in the set now in use; also special stamps have been issued in honor of Lincoln and in mourning for Harding. The only living past Presidents today are William Howard Taft and Calvin Coolidge.

The likeness of James Madison, fourth President, during whose two terms of office was fought the war of 1812, appears on the $2 stamp of the 1902 issue. Chief Justice Marshall's portrait appears on the $5 stamp of this same issue.

Among the Presidents who have failed to achieve the fame of postal reproduction are John Adams, James Madison, John Quincy Adams, Martin Van Buren, William Henry Harrison, John Tyler, James Knox Polk, Millard Fillmore, Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan, our only bachelor President; Andrew Johnson, Chester A. Arthur. None of our Vice-Presidents have been honored on postage stamps just because they held that office, although several are who became President.

More than half of our Presidents, eighteen altogether, were clean-shaven. The first President to wear a beard was Lincoln. The only other Chief Executives to wear beards were Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Benjamin Harrison. Side-whiskers were worn by only three, John Q. Adams, Martin Van Buren and Chester A. Arthur. President Grant was the first President to sport a mustache, in combination with his beard; so did Hayes, Garfield and Harrison, while Arthur wore one with his whiskers. Cleveland was the first President to wear a mustache by itself, but his example was followed by Roosevelt and Taft.

Quite a number of other famous Americans, who did not achieve the Presidency, have been made familiar to history students of the rising generation through postage stamps, including generals, admirals and statesmen. Among them are Gen. Winfield Scott, Admirals Perry and Farragut and such statesmen as Webster, Clay and Stanton. But in all series, except some commemorative ones, the portraits of Franklin and Washington are to be found.

Any boy or girl who collects postage stamps should be able to name all the Presidents of the United States and know how they look by familiarity with their United States stamps. But at present this cannot be, as less than half of our Presidents are shown on stamps. If a new issue is to be placed on sale in the future it might be well for the Postmaster-General to consider the advisability of sacrificing some of the natural scenery and substitute Presidents of the United States, thus making the issue more valuable from a historical point of view as well as adding to its educational value.

FOREIGN-TRADE POOKS

"The export business in automobiles and parts last year was the largest ever recorded and is greater than the entire domestic production of the industry in 1914," according to a report printed in the Merchant Marine Bulletin. "During the past year more than $40,000,000 in food products moved through Los Angeles Harbor alone," is another startling statement from the same publication.

All sorts of interesting data and surveys of foreign trade conditions and possibilities are given in the magazines on file in the sociology room of the Central Library, such as "Foreign Trade," "Pacific Shipper," "Trans-Atlantic Trade" and "Pacific Overseas Commerce." Other standard aids which are in constant use in the library are the publications of the United States Bureau of Navigation and the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce and the Shipping World Year Book.

True ambition is the desire to be as useful as a coat [illegible] to a small boy with a bad [illegible]

Money talks louder when [illegible] gets tight, too.

But don't boast of your [illegible] terialism if you haven't any [illegible] terial to show for it.

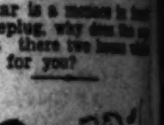
And when the roll is called up yonder, the big ones will be [illegible] the outside as usual.

Americanism: Butchering pedestrians to save a little time [illegible] wondering what to do with the time we save.

The final proof of a forgiving spirit is to have a faster car pass you on the highway and wish it no ill luck.

When the doctor says you need a change of climate, [illegible] means he's tired of treating you with an imaginary ailment.

If a car is a menace in front of a fireplug, why does the [illegible] keep it there two hours while waiting for you?



"The average woman has a vocabulary of only [illegible] words." And Alexander, with 32,000 veterans, licked 300,000 Persians.

Perhaps the States that wish to abolish prize fighting could compromise on gloves of light weight.

Nature keeps the balance. The lower the car, the [illegible] is elevated.

Speaking of talkies, we are [illegible] to discover that a beautiful woman is no better than others in pronunciation.

Senate quarrels that interfere with work seem natural to one who has seen a pair of young mules function when one starts kicking.

Correct this sentence: "My, I like your new frock," said the husband; "especially those little tails that hang down below your coat."

The man who thinks the world is against him should think more about his [illegible] and less about the world.

The majority of the girls are not paying much attention to the change of styles to the long skirt, and continue to run true to form.

RIPPLING RHYMES

by Walt Mason

HUMAN NATURE

The snow was drifted high and deep upon the mountain roads, and citizens were urged to keep quite close to their abodes. "It isn't safe," the wardens said, "to use the highways now; let every voter use his head, and stay home with his frau." They sent their warnings on the air, and put them in the press, exhorting people everywhere to sidestep much distress. A lot of people never planned on driving in the snow, [illegible] these warnings came to hand; then they were bound to go. The voter sees a danger sign and cries aloud, "Oh, cheer! [illegible] other people that is fine—[illegible] meant for me." So when the roads and wardens [illegible] their warnings dire, the people left their snug abodes, [illegible] seats beside the fire. [illegible] to see how bad it is," they said, and did not quail, and each cranked his trusty [illegible] started up the trail. It had been snowing days and nights, the storm took all the [illegible] slithering, thickening on the heights, the snow [illegible] tons. And countless [illegible] were there, amid the [illegible] snow; they clawed the [illegible] from their hair, and [illegible] bitter woe. They hadn't a thing to eat save [illegible] cooked, and they had frozen ears and feet, and like [illegible] they looked. They hadn't a thing to drink, [illegible] saken men, save where [illegible] pilgrim sipped the ink from his fountain pen. [illegible] business to be there, they had been warned away, and [illegible] good it did to swear [illegible] the gloomy day. Contrariness in the spine of every mortal [illegible] let him behold a danger sign and he will go that way.

Of Interest to Women

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

With only members of the immediate families in attendance Miss Susanna Patterson Bryant, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Albert Bryant, became the bride of Richard Young Dakin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Dakin of Pasadena, yesterday. The ceremony was read at 6 o'clock by Rt. Rev. Bishop William Bertrand Stevens in the drawing-room of the family home.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of twenty-five years ago, of soft ivory satin with trimmings of rare old rose point lace, the veil of tulle and lace being held in place by a cap of lace, and she carried an immense shower of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. George Tallant (Ida Belle Wheaton) of San Francisco was the only attendant, and she wore a gown of ivory satin, also of the same period as that of the bride's, with touches of old lace and tulle, and carried an arm shower of pink camellias.

Morris Barnes Miller of Pasadena served as best man. Following the ceremony there was a wedding dinner, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dakin left for a brief wedding trip. After April 1 they will be at home to their many friends at 2050 Monterey Road, South Pasadena, where a home completely furnished is awaiting their occupancy.

The Bryant home in West Adams street last evening was transformed into a growing garden of fragrant spring flowers and fruit blossoms, against a background of ferns and foliage.

Home Ceremony

Another wedding of interest last evening was that of Miss Charlotte Dabney, daughter of Mrs. Richard Temple Dabney, and Robert N. Halloran, son of Mrs. William Richard Halloran of Cleveland, and the late Col. Halloran, Royal Arms Medical Corps of London.

Rev. Herbert Boothe Smith officiated and the bride, given in marriage by her brother Henry, was charming in a gown of white satin, the veil of princess lace caught into a cap of lace. She carried an arm shower of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Eleanor Dabney assisted her sister as maid of honor, wearing a frock of green satin and carrying sweet peas in pastel shades while the other attendants, Mrs. Edward Dick Badham (Virginia Dabney,) sister of the bride; Miss Juanita Wagner and Miss Dorothy Llewellyn wore frocks of tulle over satin slips and carried armfuls of roses and sweet peas.

Edward Dick Badham served as best man and a musical program preceded the ceremony with Mrs. Elizabeth Green Happ singing several numbers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Geraldine Smith, Kappa Delta Phi Sorority sister of the bride, who also played the wedding march.

Mrs. Dabney, who received her guests in a gown of gold lace, was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Neth (Doris Dabney,) Mrs. Henry Dabney and Mrs. Clifford Dabney.

After their return from an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Halloran will make their home in Long Beach.

The bride, who was graduated from Marlborough School and also attended the Chouinard School of Art, traveled extensively abroad with her mother, while Mr. Halloran is an alumnus of Syracuse University and University of Southern California and is a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Smart Affair

Honoring Miss Lois McQuistion, one of the most popular brides-elect of the season, and Mrs. Frank Root (Gladys Toll,) a smartly appointed affair was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Hayes Halverson and Mrs. Lawrence Hauge at the home of the former in North Bronson avenue, more than 150 guests were bidden. Spring flowers in a riot of color with a profusion of roses were effectively used in the decorations of the house and among those assisting at the tea urns were Mrs. Alfred Dewey Davey, Miss Pauline Hoffman, Miss Winifred Huntington and Miss Ruth Morrison.

Last week Miss McQuistion, whose wedding with Frederick Richman is to be an event of June, was honor guest at a beautifully appointed luncheon of thirty covers with which Mrs. Max Hebgen entertained at the Los Angeles Country Club, bridge being featured after the luncheon.

Roses, delphinia and a profusion of cherry blossoms furnished the motif of floral decorations.

Another affair to be given shortly for Miss McQuistion will be the luncheon Miss Pauline Hoffman is planning for March 15.

Luncheon Bridge

Mrs. S. M. Anderson of Aberdeen, Wash., was hostess at a bridge luncheon held in the Louis Seize Room of the Ambassador Monday afternoon. The spring motif was carried out in the table decorations of lovely spring blossoms. Those bidden were Mrs. E. K. Bishop, Mrs. D. D. Matthews, Mrs. Charles Lund, Mrs. R. D. Emerson, Mrs. J. B. Dabney, Mrs. Thomas L. Blyth, Mrs. Charles Ewart, Mrs. O. M. Kellogg, Mrs. S. E. Slade, Mrs. A. Finley, Mrs. Jessie Johnson, Mrs. Robert Ewart, Mrs. L. A. Wolff, Mrs. Thomas Soule, Mrs. A. L. Paine, and Mrs. T. L. Douglas.

For Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dace of San Fernando are giving a series of parties for their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Wilber Dace, who are passing the winter here from Illinois, and entertained with a dinner at their home Wednesday evening. The living rooms were lovely with great bowls of spring flowers. The dinner was served in the sunroom where jonquils, sweet peas and golden freesias, for which the valley is famous, were used. Dainty baskets of wee spring flowers marked the places for Dr. and Mrs. Wilber Dace, Judge and Mrs. H. A. Dacker, Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maclay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods of North Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Taft and Mrs. A. E. Curtis of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Henry of Pasadena and the hosts.

JUNIOR LEAGUE SHOWS LINENS

German Displays Beautiful Wares

[Ray Huff studios]

Mrs. J. Clark Smith

ACTIVITIES of the Los Angeles Junior League continue to be most interesting as well as beneficial, and every month of the year some new and vitally valuable feature is added.

For this past week and until March 4, at the clubrooms of the league at the Town House in Commonwealth avenue there is a showing of unusually beautiful linens by C. W. Thiel of Dresden, Germany, and each day many visitors are availing themselves of the rare opportunity of replenishing their linens, which at this time of the year is an old custom of housewives.

Under the capable management of Mrs. J. Clark Smith, much active charity work is accomplished by this organization. The Town House is the setting for its monthly business meetings and there are many exhibits of interest and beauty held there at various times.

Why?

You might think it unnecessary bother to raise tomatoes from special seed—to send experts to the Indian Ocean for spices—to age cider vinegar for months in wood . . . just to make Ketchup.

But how else could Heinz make a tomato ketchup so flavorful, so irresistible, that it outsells all others year in and year out?

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

SCALLOPED CORN BEEF

Two cupfuls of cooked corn beef, cut in small cubes, one cupful of medium white sauce, two stalks of celery, chopped fine, one small onion, chopped. Make the white sauce with three tablespoonfuls of butter, three tablespoonfuls of flour and one and one-half cupfuls of milk. Add the onion and celery to the sauce and allow to simmer for ten minutes. Combine the sauce with the corn beef, pour into a buttered baking dish, cover with bread crumbs that have been moistened with melted butter, sprinkle with paprika and chopped parsley. Place in the oven and brown.

ORANGE SPONGE CAKE

Three eggs, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one cupful of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of grated orange rind, one-third of a cupful of orange juice, one and one-fourth cupfuls of flour, two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt; separate the eggs, beat the whites until foamy, then add the cream of tartar and beat until stiff. Add the yolks of the eggs one at a time and continue the beating. Gradually add the sugar, beating in a little at a time. Add the grated orange rind and the orange juice, sift the flour, with the baking powder and salt and fold into the mixture. Place in oiled and floured layer cake tins, and bake in a moderate oven.

ORANGE FILLING

One-fourth of a cupful of sugar, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of flour, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of grated orange rind, two teaspoonfuls of butter, one-half a cupful of orange juice, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, the yolk of one egg; place the sugar, flour and salt in the top of a double boiler, mix thoroughly, add the orange rind and juice, allow to cook until thick; then add the butter, and the well-beaten yolk of the egg. Stir constantly for two minutes longer. Remove from the fire, and add the lemon juice.

HAM BISCUITS

Mix and sift together one cupful of flour, two and one-half level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, chop four tablespoonfuls of cold boiled ham, and two tablespoonfuls of butter or shortening into the sifted flour and baking powder. Add one-third of a cupful of milk, roll out lightly, cut with a biscuit cutter, brush with milk, and bake in a hot oven.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, eyes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

SATISFY THE BABY'S HUNGER AT ALL COSTS

With the best intentions in the world of wanting to nurse the baby, the mother not infrequently finds herself incapable of satisfying the 2 or 3-weeks-old mite. At this time the care of the baby has been thrown on the mother and, even if she has help, there is always a certain responsibility that wears on her, tires her out, makes her sleep and eat poorly and affects her ability to nurse the baby.

This is often just a transitory period, but meanwhile the baby is screaming from hunger and this in no way adds to the mother's placidity.

Complementary feedings are exceedingly helpful at this time and this addition of one or two bottle feedings following a nursing that is inadequate, does not affect the milk supply and later on it is possible to discard the bottle entirely or use it occasionally as a relief feeding.

SUPPLEMENT INADEQUATE FEEDINGS

Complementary feedings are given directly after a nursing, not between nursings. They are usually of milk, water and sugar, and are designed to supplement the inadequate breast feeding. For those who are in doubt as to what constitutes a complementary feeding we have a leaflet explaining it in detail which will be sent any reader for the usual self-addressed and stamped envelope (and please don't forget that, or forget to put the name of your city and State on the envelope.)

They are most often needed after the later feedings of the day, the afternoon and going to bed feedings being the most scanty. The extra amount of milk puts baby in a mood to shut his eyes and go to sleep, instead of fretting or howling until the next feeding time is due.

If a mother is doubtful about the amount of milk the baby is getting at each feeding she should weigh the baby directly before and directly after a nursing. She may find to her surprise that at some meals he gets five or six ounces and at another only two. With such definite evidence the mother will have no further doubt why baby sleeps peacefully after the first feeding and "fights" sleep after the second.

If one gives alternate bottle feedings and then breast feedings the breasts rapidly dry up and weaning is only a matter of time. If the nursing is done regularly and its deficiencies supplied by a bottle feeding, the breast may respond by a better supply and the bottle can be discarded altogether.

*Date Pie—One pound of dates, stoned and cut in small pieces. Soak overnight, or for several hours, in one pint of thin, sweet cream. In the morning, add one whole egg and the yolks of two more, reserving the remaining white for meringue. Bake in one crust made of real wholewheat flour.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Wire Drainer

A wire drainer for dishes is invaluable to the woman who is employed. She can wash her few breakfast things, pour boiling water over them and let them stand in the wire drainer until she returns at night. Her dishes will be perfectly dry and ready to put away.

Longer Cooking

When pies are made from raw meat and vegetables, it necessitates longer cooking which proves too much for the crust. In such cases it is well to cover the pie pan with a plate, cook until the pie is nearly done, then remove plate and add top crust. Return to the oven until the crust is nicely browned.

A DROP OF VAPEX BRINGS INSTANT RELIEF FOR COLDS

Every cold has its day, but it's a short day when you use Vapex. For Vapex is swift and sure. A drop on the handkerchief—breathe the crisp, cool vapor—instantly your head clears, sniffling stops, you breathe your cold away. A drop at each end of your pillow at night fights your cold while you sleep. . . . Vapex was discovered during the war. In England, chemists experimenting with the ingredients now in Vapex, were immune to a raging epidemic of influenza. The vapor protected them. Test proved that the Vapex vapor kills the germs of common colds. . . . Buy a $1 bottle of Vapex at your druggist's. A dollar now saves dollars and distress later. Insist on V-A-P-E-X, in the trim white box with the green triangle. Don't expect the same results with cheaper imitations. . . . A bottle of Vapex contains fifty applications. Each application keeps its strength all day or all night. . . . Distributed by E. Fougera & Company, Incorporated, New York City.

Pumpkin Pie?

Mash fine 2 cups cooked pumpkin. Add 1½ cups milk. Beat 3 eggs and to them add a pinch of salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon cloves, ½ teaspoon nutmeg. Stir this into pumpkin mixture and then fill baked pie-crust with it. Bake until custard has set and crust is done.

Now that you've read it—what's missing? Sugar! And if you include one-half cup with the beaten eggs you can proceed to make a fine pumpkin pie.

ACTICAL CIPES

S ANSWERS

CAKE

Los Angeles, Cal., K. P. Cal.: Four cupfuls of cheese, one-half a cup cream, six eggs, one cupfuls of sugar, two of grated lemon rind, through a colander then add the cream, beat the eggs with the sugar into the cheese mix grated lemon rind and one teaspoonful of nutmeg. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, line a baking dish with a rich pastry or a cookie crust, place the cheese mixture in it and bake in a medium oven; remove from the oven, sprinkle with a mixture of powdered sugar and cinnamon, place in the broiler part of the oven and allow to brown.

VEAL SCRAPPLE

K. P. W., Pasadena, Cal.: Take five pounds of veal, shoulder or leg, cover with cold water and allow to come to a boil; skim well and when beginning to get tender season with salt and allow to cook until the meat will drop from the bones. Remove the meat, strain the liquor, place it in a saucepan and add enough hot water to make two and one-half quarters, add one finely chopped onion and a seasoning of black pepper and sage. Bring to a boil and stir in enough corn meal to make a stiff mush. Remove the meat from the bones and chop fine, add to the mush and stir and cook in a double boiler for one hour. Pour into square pans and when cold cut in slices and fry until brown on both sides.

SOFT GINGER BREAD

J. D. S., Pasadena, Cal.: One-half cupful of shortening or butter, one-half a cupful of brown sugar, one cupful of molasses, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful level of soda, two teaspoonfuls of ginger, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half a teaspoonful of salt, two eggs, three-quarters of a cupful of boiling water, cream the shortening, gradually cream into it the sugar, add the molasses and beat well, then add the well-beaten eggs, sift the flour, soda, salt, cinnamon and ginger together and add alternately with the boiling water, place in an oiled and floured baking tin and bake in a moderate oven.

MAPLE PUFFED RICE COOKIES

I. F. R., Glendale, Cal.: Place two cupfuls of puffed rice in a pan, add three tablespoonfuls of butter and place in a moderate oven to crisp, shaking occasionally so the rice will become coated with the butter; cream two-thirds of a cupful of butter and cream into it a little at a time two-thirds of a cupful of light brown sugar, add one well-beaten egg, sift one cupful of flour with one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda and beat into the mixture; add one teaspoonful of maple flavoring and lastly stir in the hot puffed rice. Mix thoroughly and drop from a teaspoon onto an oiled and floured baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

ORANGE PASTRY

One cupful of flour, six tablespoonfuls of ice cold shortening, one teaspoonful of grated orange rind, one tablespoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt; sift the flour, salt and sugar together, add the grated orange rind and then chop in the shortening, being careful not to get it too fine; take out one-third of a cupful of the crumbs and set them aside, add just enough orange juice to the remaining crumbs to hold them together, roll the dough out on a floured board and sprinkle with half of the reserved crumbs, then fold the crust over to the middle in enveloping shape, roll again and sprinkle the rest of the crumbs over it. Fold again and roll. Wrap in paraffin paper and place in the ice box for several hours or overnight. Line a pie tin with the pastry and bake in a hot oven.

ORANGE FILLING

One cupful of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, two tablespoonfuls of grated orange rind, two tablespoonfuls of butter, the yolks of three eggs, one-third of a cupful of flour, one cupful of orange juice; mix the flour, sugar, salt, orange juice, lemon juice and orange rind, place in a double boiler and cook until thick and smooth; remove from the fire, add the butter and the well-beaten egg yolks, before stirring in the egg yolks add a little of the hot mixture to them and then add them to the mixture. Return to the fire and cook slowly for two minutes longer. Cool and pour into the baked pie shell.

MERINGUE

Beat the whites of three eggs until stiff and dry, then add a little at a time one-fourth of a cupful of sugar that has been mixed with one-fourth of a teaspoonful of baking powder and beat until stiff enough to stand alone, pour on top of the pie and place in a very slow oven; the meringue should not show color for the first ten minutes and should taken twenty-five minutes to brown. When it is brown turn off the heat, open the oven door and let the pie remain in the oven until cold.

Note: Your other two recipes will be answered next week.

PLEA FILED BY BOLTON ON SLAYING

Convicted Wife Murderer Appeals to Cheat Prison by Attacking Evidence

Filing of necessary documents with the District Court of Appeal in his fight to escape life imprisonment for the murder of his wife, Lucille Grace Bolton, 22 years of age, was begun yesterday by John Dewey Bolton, 26, found guilty in Superior Court of having shot his wife while driving in the Roosevelt Highway last November. The first paper filed was a clerk's transcript of Superior Court proceedings.

Later, Bolton will file a transcript of the testimony and briefs setting forth his arguments. When Bolton filed notice of appeal, he asserted that the evidence did not warrant a guilty verdict and that the court had erred in connection with admission and rejection of testimony, as well as in instructions to the jury.

When arrested, Bolton related that he and his wife had been held up by bandits, who wounded him and killed his wife. It was contended by the State that Bolton slew his wife to obtain $10,000 life insurance. The prosecution insisted Bolton shot himself in the shoulder to give color to his account of a hold-up.

Steam Shovel Charges Filed

The hissing of the steam shovel at Victory Boulevard and Vineland street which has kept up steam for more than a month but seldom moved a yard of earth, was recalled yesterday when Dep. Dist.-Atty. McIsaac issued a complaint charging Walter Stine, Fred L. Anderson, David J. Duke and Karl Sworfford with possession of a still.

According to McIsaac, the still was located in a shed near the steam shovel and was operated on steam taken from the shovel boiler. The entire plant was in the bottom of a deep excavation.

The officers assert that they found a 1000-gallon still, fifty gallons of mash and five gallons of liquor.

FEDERAL RADIO USE INCREASES

Taxpayers Brought Closer to Their Government

State Department Only One Failing to Broadcast

Varied Offerings Listed by Stations for Today

> The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. presents Dr. Philip M. Lovell, in charge of Care of the Body department, Times Magazine.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Taxpayers of the United States are being brought closer than ever before to the government they support in Washington by means of radio. Officials and members of Congress who used the facilities of the two large radio chains during the last year included both Presidents Coolidge and Hoover, Vice-Presidents Dawes and Curtis, and the head of every Cabinet department except the Department of State. Twenty-eight Senators, twelve Representatives and eight assistant secretaries of the various departments also used the facilities offered in network hook-ups.

The largest user of the radio from a government standpoint was the Department of Agriculture. Two hundred and twenty-seven officials and workers of this department were heard in 294 agricultural broadcasts conducted during the year over the N.B.C. network.

From an educational standpoint radio probably is bringing news of the world and international conditions closer to the public than has been attained through the columns of the press.

THOUSANDS LISTEN

Students of economics or political economy will follow developments of a national or international nature in the daily papers, but the quota of men and women so doing is comparatively small. The direct benefit of radio is that thousands of people who ordinarily will not take the time or lack interest in newspaper reports from Washington or from London, where the naval parley is now in session, will listen in to news items as read over the radio. This is particularly true of growing children, and it is reasonable to presume that the coming generation will be better informed concerning conditions because of the attention given news items over the air.

The presentation of the items constitutes a daily lesson to the broadcaster who gives them careful thought and study, and in the same way news items read over the radio can become a splendid educational influence in the American home. It is only a matter of ten or fifteen minutes for two or three periods a day, but the direct benefit will not result unless the listener-in makes an effort to be faithful in his attention to the news periods.

DIAL LOG FOR TODAY

KHJ at 7 p.m. will present the Ballad Crooners and Raymond Paige's orchestra in a half-hour of modern melodies and songs. At 7:30 p.m. a light opera program will be heard. Leslie Brigham, guest artist, will include "Prologue to Pagliacci," while an orchestral and vocal ensemble will render selections from "Show Boat" and "Good News."

At 8 tonight over the C.B.S. network Stan Davis, saw virtuoso, and Brook Louis, composer, are to be heard as guest stars. Also to be heard on this program are the Robin Hood Quartet and Buster Brown and his dog Tige. At 9 p.m. True Story Hour will introduce Mary and Bob at a North Carolina winter resort.

KFI will begin the evening at 6 p.m. with a N.B.C. program, with Billy Jones and Ernie Hare in a half-hour of popular music. At 6:30 p.m. a thirty-piece concert orchestra and mixed chorus, led by Joseph Koestner, will be heard. Lois Bennett, soprano; Mary Hopple, contralto, and a male quartet will present thirty minutes of excerpts from Friml's operetta, "Katinka," at 7 o'clock tonight.

CHAIN OFFERING

KECA at 5 tonight will feature Jessica Dragonette and the Cavaliers, with the Cities Service Orchestra over the N.B.C. network. At 8 p.m. the modern problem of a woman's career is to be presented in vivid fashion in a radio drama from the Chicago studio.

KNX at 12 noon will present its Little Symphony, with Marjorie Healy as guest artist. At 6:30 p.m. the Dinner Hour Symphony will include selections from the opera fantastique, "Tales of Hoffman," and two numbers from the "Nutcracker Suite," by Tschaikowsky. At 9:45 p.m. the Vigo Doman-Harry Beum heavyweight fight at the Legion Stadium will be heard.

KMTR at 8 p.m. will broadcast the premiere of "Happy Days" at Carthay Circle Theater. Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe will be joint masters of ceremonies.

CHAMBER RECEIVES NEW GLIDER RULES

New Federal rules governing the construction of gliders and their operation were received yesterday by the aviation department of the Chamber of Commerce for distribution. According to A. W. Poole, aviation manager for the chamber, all gliders in California require Federal licenses under the State law governing heavier-than-air craft. The new rules were prepared by the aeronautics branch of the Department of Commerce. Many useful suggestions for amateur glider pilots and builders are incorporated. Copies of the rules may be obtained without charge from Mr. Poole's office.

THREE-STATE RALLY SET

Angelenos from three States are to join tonight at Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, for an entertainment arranged by the Kentucky Blue Grass Club, the Tennessee State Society and the Arkansas State Society. Dancing is to follow.

Fund for Border Irrigated Lands Survey Sought

Urging that Federal funds be made available for a complete aerial survey of the international boundary from Yuma, Ariz., to San Diego, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday approved a suggestion that such a survey is essential to the proper preparation of a record of lands actually irrigated by the Colorado River, on both sides of the boundary.

In taking this action on the survey proposal, the directors approved the study made by the chamber's water and power resources committee, which declared in its report to the board that a recent and successful survey was made by the International Boundary Commission from El Paso to the Gulf of Mexico. In addition to its value in assisting to obtain further data on irrigation, the survey is also highly important from the standpoint of enforcement of national immigration and customs laws as well as assisting in aviation communication. Funds should be provided by Congress to the American section of the International Boundary Commission for the survey, the chamber believes.

Yells Betray Bandit Suspect

When Parkin H. Reed of 820 South Carondolet street was held up in an alley near Ninth and Alvarado streets early yesterday morning he yelled for help. Officers Phelps and Loomis in a patrol car heard the cry and responded.

They took into custody a youth who gave his name as Patrick B. Fenning of 847 South Alvarado street and booked him on suspicion of attempted robbery.

RESETTING OF TRIAL IN BURGLARY DELAYED

Resetting of the trial of Dalas Van Cleve, accused of burglarizing the home of Josephine Hill, a friend, taking $140 in cash and jewelry valued at $4000, was continued until next Monday by Superior Judge Wood yesterday. Van Cleve was tried in Superior Judge Aggeler's court on the same charge last week but the jury was discharged when it failed to reach a verdict.

ASSESSMENTS TO BE TOPIC

Special assessments will be debated tonight at the monthly debate session of the Civic Discussion Club in the Los Angeles High School. The question to be debated will be: "Is the present system of special assessments against individual property economically and fundamentally sound?" Speakers on the affirmative are to be W. H. Lykins, R. O. Knoblock and Mrs. E. E. Short, and those for the negative are J. D. McCarthy, Mrs. B. M. Beam and W. S. Brakenridge. Superior Judge Fleming will be guest of the evening. The debate will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

RUSSIA TO BE TOPIC

"Religious Conditions in Russia" will be discussed by Baroness Ottily de Ropp at 11 a.m. tomorrow at a missionary meeting at Peniel Hall, 227 South Main street. At 2 p.m. Miss Lucy Daniels will give an address on "China."

Hotel Reserved at Toronto for Shrine Party

Los Angeles Shriners planning to attend the Shrine convention at Toronto in June are assured of comfortable quarters, Fred J. Wadley, Jr., Illustrious Potentate, reported yesterday at the Shrine luncheon in the Biltmore.

Wadley, who has just returned from Toronto, said that he had reserved an entire hotel for the Los Angeles delegation. It was stated that two or three special trains will be required to transport the Los Angeles representatives.

Potentate Wadley presided at the luncheon. An entertainment program was given, with Noodles Fagan, comedian, featured.

Railway Loses Damage Appeal

When the Santa Fe Railway Company blocked a street crossing in Fresno one night recently with a train and Calvin H. Herbold ran his automobile into it, his machine was damaged to the extent of $515, which expense the corporation must pay, according to a ruling yesterday of Superior Judges McLucas, Shaw and Bishop, sitting in the Appellate department of the Superior Court.

Evidence was adduced in the lower court to prove that the railway tracks over the crossing were on an elevation and that Herbold's lights shone beneath the train in a way he could not see the highway was blocked.

Concrete Curing Hearing Monday

A public hearing on the matter of establishing a policy for the use of concrete-curing methods will be conducted Monday morning by the City Council.

At that time, it is understood, the Council will have before it a majority report from its Public Works Committee, signed by Councilmen Randall and McAllister, calling for open competition, and a minority report by Councilman Martin opposing this policy.

WIFE DECLARES MATE FAILED AS PROVIDER

Nick Serris told his wife Dorothy before she was married that he was a cafe man, and that if there was anything he would supply her after the marriage, that was plenty to eat. Then Mrs. Serris found, she told Superior Judge Guerin, that if she hadn't saved up money she would have gone hungry. Judge Guerin annulled the marriage.

RAILWAY COMPANY SUED

Injured when a Pacific Electric car struck his automobile September 22 on East Las Tunas Drive in San Gabriel, Raymond W. Campbell yesterday sued the railway company for $52,500 damages. According to the petition, filed by Attorney Marion P. Betty, Campbell suffered eleven broken ribs and other injuries.

CLUB NOTES

Gov. Young will be the principal speaker this afternoon for the Republican Study Club, which will meet in Barker Brothers' Auditorium, and he will talk on California finances, under the title "What the State Gets for Its Money." He will be introduced, by Mrs. Harry A. Chamberlin, president of the club.

Current politics is to be reviewed briefly by Mrs. Sidney T. Creager, after which a musical program will be presented by Jane Davis Morris.

With Gov. Young, Mrs. O. P. Clark and Mrs. Florence Collins Porter as guests of honor, a tea will be given in the Mary Louise Tea Room at the close of the meeting.

At noon today a luncheon given by the committee on State legislation in the tea room will have as the topic for a round table discussion, "Shall We Amend Our Constitution?" Reservations are to be made with Mrs. C. W. Decker, luncheon chairman.

Friday Morning Club

"Bali—the Garden of the Gods," a lecture illustrated with slides and motion pictures, made by Andre Roosevelt, comprises this morning's program for the Friday Morning Club.

Mr. Roosevelt returned in December after nine months on the island paradise, Bali, and will take to the club women through word and picture its wonder, beauty and impenetrable mystery of the past. He calls the island "the last reminder of the Garden of Eden."

Federation Conferences

Contacting western civilization, Dr. Manilal Parekh of India, friend of Mahatma Gandhi and a Christian, will speak on "India, her Aims and Hopes," at the international relations conference which will take place at 10:30 a.m. today in federation headquarters, 2108 South Hobart Boulevard. Mrs. W. I. Clendenon, chairman, states that all club women will be welcome at the conference.

With Mrs. Estelle Dyke and Mrs. John E. Coffin presiding, a conservation conference will take place at 10 a.m. today in headquarters. Mrs. Dyke will present "The Chaparral" with special reference to the folk lore and superstitions associated with this group of mountain flowering plants.

Notre Dame Club

Rev. Joseph Sullivan of Loyola College will address the St. Marys-Notre Dame Club at 4 p.m. today in the Victoria Arms Apartments, 2424 Wilshire Boulevard. Election of officers will follow.

First Opera Hearing

An opera reading under the direction of Mme. Gloria Mayne, chairman of program, will be the attraction for the meeting of the Los Angeles Opera and Fine Arts Club at 8 p.m. today in the Women's University Club, where "The Witches Well" will be presented for the first time here. Dorothy Norris, Madeline Dvorak, and Archer Appleton are the artists to appear, while the author and composer of the vehicle, Mrs. Adeline Carola Appleton of Seattle, will be at the piano.

Members and officers of the MacDowell Club and Cadman Creative Club will be guests of honor.

P.T.A. Fathers' Night

Tonight will be "Fathers' Night" in the One Hundred and Eighteenth street Parent-Teacher Association, a program to include a welcoming address by Miss Edith Connor, principal, and a one-act play being scheduled for 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Stedman Gould, of the division of woodcraft of the Western Rangers, will speak on "Dad's Place in a Boy's Life," and Wayne Fisher, president of the South Los Angeles Improvement Association, also will give a brief address. Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria.

Basketball Game

Following a buffet luncheon to be given by the clubs to their friends and alumnae, the annual basketball contest between the Beta and Kappa clubs of Girls' Collegiate School will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Glendora campus. This is the third of a series of athletic contests played to determine the athletic supremacy of the clubs.

Through the ability of Janet Vosburg and Nancy Nell Swaffield, the school won numerous prizes and cups at the Children's Horse Show recently conducted in Flintridge. The girls are the winners in a group of riders comprising some twenty-five riders at the school, many of whom have their own horses.

One of the sweepstake prizes at the San Bernardino Orange Show was also awarded the Girls' Collegiate School for its showing of Washington navel oranges grown on the school property.

Scribblers' League

"Fiction Writing" will be discussed by Allen Vaughn Elston, short-story writer, at 8 p.m. tomorrow before the Scribblers' League, which meets at the Alexandria. Mrs. Snow Longley Housh also will address the league, speaking on "The Modern Movement in Poetry."

Benefit Bridge Luncheon

The annual benefit bridge luncheon of Robert E. Lee Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be given at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Arcady Apartments. Reservations for the affair, at which many bridge and door prizes will be given, are to be made with Mrs. W. G. Prickett.

ROBBER THE RAT LIVES UP TO HIS NAME

A bad name sticks—I don't know why;
It sticks and sticks until you die.
—Robber the Rat.

Robber's mean little eyes glared at the Happy family

Robber the Rat is an outcast, as everyone knows. He hasn't a friend outside of his own kind in all the world. None of the four-footed folk will have anything to do with him. Robber doesn't care. He does not want friends. It doesn't trouble him in the least to know that he is despised by all the furred and feathered folk. He is bad tempered, dirty and a thief, and he wouldn't be any different if he could.

Robber knew that Farmer Brown's Boy put that food on a certain big flat stone in the old stone wall, just for Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel and his family. It really belonged to the Squirrels, but this made no difference to Robber. Having frightened Happy Jack away once, he was sure that he could do it again. So he planned to have those breakfasts all for himself.

The morning following the one on which he had driven Happy Jack away, Robber was a little late. He had been out all night on dark business of some kind and he had curled up for a wink of sleep. When he awoke and hurried to look out of his hole, he discovered the whole Squirrel family eating breakfast on that flat stone. There were Happy Jack, Mrs. Happy Jack and four half-grown children. Robber's mean little eyes glared at the happy family. It was one thing to frighten one Squirrel away, but it was altogether another matter to try to put six Squirrels to flight.

"Well, there is nothing like trying," thought Robber. "Of course, I can't fight all of them at one time, but if I can surprise them, I may be able to frighten them so that they will run away. It is worth trying anyway."

Robber crept out of his hole. Carefully, so as to make no sound, he crept up on the old stone wall. Happy Jack and his family were so busy that they were paying no attention to anything but their breakfast. Nearer and nearer crept Robber. When he was near enough he rushed. His lips were drawn back, showing his sharp teeth. The hair along his back was on end, making him look much bigger than he really was. With a savage sounding squeal, he jumped right into the middle of that breakfast party.

That breakfast party broke up in a hurry. Yes, sir, that breakfast party broke up in a hurry. There was a rush for the nearest tree. Up into it scrambled the four young Squirrels, with Happy Jack and Mrs. Happy Jack right at their heels. Not until they were well up in the tree did they turn to find out who had frightened them. Then such a chattering as broke loose. How those Squirrels did scold.

"Robber! Robber! Robber!" shrieked Happy Jack.

"Thief! Thief! Thief!" cried Mrs. Happy Jack.

Robber the Rat merely grinned and continued to stuff himself. He was used to being called names. "Names don't hurt," thought he. "It's teeth and claws that hurt. As long as those Squirrels want to fight with their tongues, I'll be satisfied."

He turned his back on the tree where Happy Jack and his family were and gobbled up the food as fast as he could.

Meanwhile Happy Jack and his family were making such a racket that Farmer Brown's Boy came out to see what the trouble was about. Robber the Rat heard the door open and at once ran for his hole. Farmer Brown's Boy saw him, however, and at once he understood what all the fuss was about. "Tomorrow morning," thought he, "I shall have to watch to see what happens."

NEWS OF THE CAFES

Hollywood and the film colony will fete the beautiful and talented Sisters G, of international renown, Monday night when they will be guests of honor in the Blossom Room of the Roosevelt Hotel. They will offer a number of the singing and dancing presentations which made them the toast of Paris and the continental capitals on their recent European tour, it is announced.

Featured on the all-star floor show Monday night will be George Olsen and his orchestra in unique musical offerings and other outstanding entertainment events.

INN DISTINCTIVE

The fruits of years of travel, study and planning have been unfolded by Mark Collins, pioneer La Crescenta Valley resident, in the construction and appointments of the Hill Top Inn, Montrose. Many deft touches have been added to give the inn distinction. One is the beautiful Chinese lanterns imported from the Orient, and the wrought-iron lanterns marking the main entrance. Table appointments are of the finest, vacuum coffee urns and coffee glasses being unusual features. Chicken and steak dinners are served.

CONVENIENT DINING

Located in the immediate vicinity of many downtown theaters makes Jahnkes, between Spring street and Broadway on Ninth street, a convenient dining-place evenings for many theater patrons. A special plate dinner and a full-course dinner are featured nightly until 9 o'clock, together with a large variety of tempting sandwiches and salads. Prompt and courteous waitress service is one of the reasons for the popularity of Jahnkes.

HISTORIC EATING PLACE

Residents of Los Angeles as well as tourists will find interest in seeing the 200-year-old adobe walls and patios that now house the La Ramada Inn, Huntington Drive at San Gabriel Boulevard. The architecture of the inn is typical of early California ranch houses with adobe walls two feet thick and giant beams, brought laboriously down from the Sierra Madre Mountains. Luncheons, afternoon teas and dinners are served daily by the hostess, Lorrol G. Doharr.

BALLOON SHOWERS

Midnight "balloon showers" have been revived in the Cocoanut Grove at the Ambassador, where Johnny Hamp and his Kentucky Serenaders are now in their eighth week.

This custom was originated here several years ago. Promptly on the stroke of 12 a huge ceiling cradle is released, showering hundreds of Venetian balloons upon the patrons on the dance floor.

MERCHANTS' LUNCHEON

The Vermontshire Merchants' Association will hold its semimonthly luncheon next Wednesday noon in the Cliff Dwellers Cafe, Beverly Boulevard at Virgil street, it is announced. Reservations indicate an exceptionally large attendance and Cort Fox, proprietor, will serve a special luncheon for the occasion. Chicken, steak and squab dinners are featured evenings amid an atmosphere of the old Indian tribes.

AWARD TO ACTRESS APPROVED BY COURT

Miss Evelyn Manis

Evelyn Manis, 18-year-old motion-picture actress, appeared in Superior Judge McComb's court yesterday and had the judge approve a settlement for an automobile injury suffered when Miss Manis was hurt in an automobile struck by a car driven by William Rosenbloom.

The accident occurred December 4, 1929, at Melrose and Vermont avenues. Miss Manis will receive $45 by terms of the agreement. She was represented by Attorney C. M. Mocslin.

Obsequies for Engineer Set for Tomorrow

The body of Walter Robert Wheaton is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow morning for interment in Rosedale Cemetery. Wheaton, a civil engineer, for ten years had a large part in the development of California. He is credited with introducing in 1905 the methods now in use for doubling the life of wood poles and ties, which process was adopted later in all parts of the United States. He left California in 1915.

Death came in Appleton, Wis., where he was prominent in his profession and civic affairs. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Georgia Whittaker Wheaton, formerly of Los Angeles. He was a brother-in-law of Carl F. McStay, field secretary of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Masonic and church services were conducted in Appleton. A short service will be conducted at Rosedale Cemetery at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Request Dishes to be Cooked

The Los Angeles Times Cooking School, which is held every Friday and Tuesday at 2 p.m., is conducted with the idea of giving Times readers every possible assistance in cooking problems, therefore Chef Wyman is always glad to demonstrate any recipe requested by members of the class.

Today's program contains several request dishes—an orange pie with meringue, two recipes for using sour cream; a sour-cream pastry for pies and tarts and a golden tart filling. Another requested dish, delicious to serve with steaks and meats, is fresh mushrooms in a potato crust.

Chef Wyman also will prepare a cucumber pickle gelatine salad. These classes are held in the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway, and The Times invites everyone interested in cooking to be its guest.

Review Planned of Two Dramas

Mrs. Alice Grannis Botsford's monthly play review at Bullock's tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. will take up "Berkeley Square" by John Balderson, an American play by an American author.

The play enjoyed a long run in London before being produced in this country and is based on the relativity of time. Peter Standish, a modern American, decides to live in the atmosphere of the eighteenth century, assumes his grandfather's identity and havoc follows.

Mrs. Botsford will also speak on "Criminal Code" by Martin Flavin, a drama of the unwritten code of criminals' honor beyond the indictment of the court.

WEARING FOWL'S NAME NO JOKE

So Mr. Goose Goes And Has It Changed To Miles

From his childhood days, Roy Miles Goose deposed in a petition heard by Superior Judge McComb yesterday, his homely, Anglo-Saxon name has caused him much discomfort when friends and acquaintances would make thoughtless puns.

Yesterday Judge McComb granted him relief. Taking his second name, Goose will henceforth be known as Roy Morton Miles.

SUSPECT TELLS OF FATAL SHOT

Admits Street Killing But Pleads Self-Defense

Plot to Beat Up Asserted Bootleggers Told

Second Prisoner Blamed in Wounding of Pair

Setting up a plea of self-defense, Joseph C. (Cockeyed) Herring, 21 years of age, of 516 San Julian street, last night confessed responsibility for the shooting affray at Griffith and Clanton streets, Tuesday night, in which two asserted bootleggers fell, one shot fatally and the other with wounds which probably will result in his death. The confession was made to Detective Lieutenants Condaffer and Ryan, following a grilling which began with the arrest of Herring and Morris (Red) Fulton, 45, some hours after the shooting.

The man killed in the affray was Robert Leslie, 32, of 604 1-2 East Fifth street. He died of his wounds early Wednesday. His seriously wounded companion is James (Well-Fed) Murphy, 45, of 511 San Julian street. He is not expected to live.

BLAMES OLDER MAN

Although he cleared Fulton of actual participation in the encounter, according to the detectives, Herring placed the blame indirectly at the elder man's door. He said Fulton had promised him $50 if he would lay in wait for Leslie and Murphy and "beat them up" in retaliation of an old grudge, the details of which he did not disclose.

Armed with a revolver which was not loaded, he said, Herring met Leslie and Murphy, intending to "get the drop on them" with the unloaded gun, frisk them for weapons and then administer the beating.

ASKS FULTON'S RELEASE

Disregarding the gun which he pointed at them, Herring explained, Leslie and Murphy rushed at him, hands on hips. It was then, he said, that he loaded his pistol and fired at them. Then he returned to his rooms, returning before daybreak to retrieve the automobile he had abandoned at the scene and which led to his arrest and later the arrest of Fulton.

Before returning for the car, Herring asserted, he telephoned to Fulton and asked for the $50, stating he wanted to leave town; but Fulton refused the request. In spite of this, the detectives said, Herring asked that Fulton be released.

Herring and Fulton are booked on suspicion of murder.

THEFT OF FURNITURE ASSERTED

Mrs. Wex, Also Wanted for Traffic-Death Questioning, Named in Indictment

Confining its investigations to extradition matters, the county grand jury yesterday returned an indictment against Mrs. Mary Wex, now in custody in Chicago, charging her with grand theft. Mrs. Wex was taken into custody in the East several days ago following the death here of Harry Levine of 4148 Fisher street, as the result of an automobile accident.

The indictment returned yesterday accuses Mrs. Wex of selling furniture which was owned by a large Los Angeles furniture store.

Mrs. Wex also faces questioning for the death of the Levine youth, who officers assert was run down by her automobile at Melrose avenue and Vine street on the 16th inst. After the accident, it is charged, the woman fled the city, intending to return to Germany, her native country.

CHURCH LEADER DUE

Miss Grace Lindley of New York, executive secretary of the national council of the Episcopal church, is due to arrive in Los Angeles next Tuesday to address the parish committee of the diocese. The meeting will be held at the cathedral house at 2 p.m.

HEARING SET FOR MURDER OF CHINESE

Coroner's Jury Asserts One of Three Accused Fired Fatal Shot

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Feb. 27. — Theodore Albritton and Ben Smith, negroes, and Frank Shiraishi, Japanese ex-convict, were arraigned in Justice Court this afternoon on charges of murdering Joe Wong, local Chinese merchant. The three defendants were held without bail and their preliminary hearing set for 10 a.m. March 8 by Municipal Judge Gibbs.

A Coroner's jury today held that Albritton actually fired the shot which wounded Wong fatally when the Chinese attempted to give the alarm while two negroes were attempting to hold up his store at 34 Pico street Saturday night. The inquest was held in the Turner & Stevens Company mortuary. Carl S. Newcomer, former member of the Board of City Directors, and a friend of the murder victim, acted as identification witness. Newcomer was at Wong's bedside when he died in the Pasadena Hospital.

Although Shiraisi and Smith were not mentioned in the verdict of the Coroner's jury, they are being held as suspected accomplices in the murder, according to Chief of Police Charles H. Kelley.

Both Spouses Sue for Divorce

Arrangements to consolidate divorce suits filed by Mrs. Margaret P. Whitaker and her husband, Francis Whitaker, were being made by their attorneys, Roger Marchetti and George Bouchard.

Whitaker, former Philadelphia business man, is worth $3,000,000, according to his wife's petition, but in his complaint he says his fortune is only $100,000. Mrs. Whitaker, who lives at 811 Bedford Drive, Beverly Hills, accused her husband of desertion without cause.

Whitaker's suit charges improper conduct between his wife and her cousin. It was filed four hours after his wife's.

DELAY GRANTED IN INJURY SUIT

Another continuance was granted yesterday in the case of Mrs. Gertrude W. Hood, who is asking $105,980 damages of Dr. H. O. Bames for personal injuries she asserts she received to her eyelids as a result of an operation to remove wrinkles. Attorney W. I. Gilbert, counsel for Dr. Bames, is engaged in another trial.

Swift Artistic Advance in City Predicted

He Scorns Modern Art as "Truth Distorted"

Because he believes the next four or five years will bring a great advance in the artistic development of this city, Gilbert Riswold, widely known sculptor, is visiting Los Angeles for a few days with a view to establishing his permanent residence here. With him is Mrs. Riswold and they are with friends during their stay here.

Although Mr. Riswold's work has covered a variety of subjects, his chief interest is in portraiture. After a few days here he will leave for his present home in Salt Lake City to complete some work before returning.

DEPICTED HISTORIC EVENT

Mr. Riswold went to Salt Lake several years ago after having lived in Chicago for twenty years, when he received the commission to do the Mormon Battalion Monument, a gigantic creation depicting the history of the Mormon battalion of 500, the members of which marched overland 200 miles to take part in the Mexican War, and who, later, were among the first gold seekers in California. This monument, which was completed in 1927, was made at a cost of approximately $200,000 and is said to be Riswold's outstanding work.

Other notable things he has done are the Stephen A. Douglas statue in the capitol grounds at Springfield, Ill.; a statue of Gov. Steunenberg of Idaho, assassinated by Reds; a bust of Lincoln in South Dakota; one of Ibanez, author of the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" in Madrid; one of Noguchi, Japanese poet, in Tokio; the Roosevelt bust in Chicago and a World War monument in Oak Park, Ill. Several years ago in a competition with seventy-five sculptors, he received an award for one of the four best designs of Lincoln to be submitted.

LORADO TAFT PUPIL

Riswold was a pupil of Lorado Taft, but he says he has done a great deal of studying by himself and still is doing it. He does not like the so-called modern art, declaring that he believes it an insult to people and that it cannot last.

"Modern art," he said, "is a thoroughly commercialized conception and gives the impression that the artist was in such a hurry that he couldn't take time to finish his work properly. Real art is more painstaking and also it is truthful. This modern stuff is the truth distorted."

Mr. Riswold has three sons, one of whom will enter the Otis Art Institute when the family residence is established here, another who is employed at the Bank of America here and a third now attending the University of Utah in Salt Lake.

BLACKBURN TRIAL WILL END TODAY

Sect Leader's Fate Due to Reach Jury's Hands This Afternoon

The fate of Mrs. May Otis Blackburn, leader of the Divine Order of the Royal Arms of the Great Eleven, is scheduled to be placed in the hands of the jury in Superior Judge Fricke's court at 3 p.m. today.

Mrs. Blackburn is accused of grand theft in a complaint sworn to by Clifford Dabney, one of her former followers, who asserts that she misappropriated approximately $45,000 which he intrusted to her care for the benefit of the religious order.

The trial has consumed more than six weeks and resulted in revealing numerous secrets of the organization.

Junior Chamber Banquet Slated for Tomorrow

The annual banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night at the Jonathan Club.

Officers elected to serve during 1930 will take office at that time. President LeRoy Owen will be inaugurated, as will his board of directors. The ceremonies are to be in charge of the ex-president, Kennedy Ellsworth.

Two hours of entertainment, featuring Laurel and Hardy, Helen Wright, Jimmy Parrot, Thelma Todd, Charles Delaney, Edward Everett Horton, Lillian Roth, David Rollins, Dixie Lee, Eddie Quillin, the Patrick and Marsh orchestra and others, has been arranged by Chairman McPhee.

WIFE'S SNIFFING CAUSES SUIT

Husband Says She Tried To Catch Scent of Powder On His Coat

Mrs. Oralee Clarke was a "sniffer," Charles H. Clarke asserts in his divorce petition on file yesterday, and he holds that "sniffing" is mental cruelty and proper grounds for divorce.

According to Clarke, Mrs. Clarke was trying to catch the scent of face powder on his coat, and once when she found a human hair in his automobile she accused him of taking a woman riding with him. As a result of the defendant's conduct the plaintiff got nervous indigestion, it was asserted.

ROYALTY VISITS FILM STUDIO

Nephew of Ex-Kaiser Likes Hollywood

Picture Industry Impresses German

Prince Frederic Leopolde of Prussia, nephew of former Kaiser Wilhelm, and Baron Cerrini meet Virginia Bruce at the Paramount studios in Hollywood.

PRINCE FREDERIC LEOPOLDE of Prussia, nephew of former Kaiser Wilhelm, paid his initial respects to the motion-picture industry yesterday at the Paramount studios.

Nancy Carroll and Richard Arlen accompanied the Prince and Baron Fritz Cerrini through the fourteen sound stages on the twenty-six-acre lot, and introduced them to the film celebrities.

Prince Leopolde said he found motion-picture studios one of the most interesting revelations of his entire journey in North America and that he plans to return to Hollywood next year for a visit of longer duration.

Coast Hat Style Proving Ground

"The Pacific Coast is the most sensitive to men's hat style trends of any section of the country," stated Mr. J. T. Hardeman, president of the J. T. Hardeman Hat Company of Seattle, who was a recent visitor to Los Angeles, following an extensive tour during which he visited the important style centers of the East.

"Today the Pacific Coast is the proving ground for new styles," he stated. "The prevailing colors in men's hats this spring promise to be in the lighter shades of gray, although the browns and tans will also be popular."

VETERAN SANTA FE BAGGAGE MAN BURIED

Following impressive funeral services marked by the presence of more than 100 floral tributes Harry Isaacs, veteran 72-year-old Santa Fe baggage master, who died last Monday, was laid at rest yesterday in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale. Two motor trucks were required to transport the floral pieces to the cemetery.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLAN CARNIVAL BALL

District deputies of the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring the pre-Lenten Mardi Gras carnival ball which will be held Tuesday night at El Patio Ballroom. Thirty-two councils belonging to the Southern California chapter Knights of Columbus will participate in this affair which will be the last social event before Lent. The district deputies in charge of the dance include Frank C. Balfour, Edward T. Healy, Maurice Costello, Frank J. Barry, Delor A. Bambardier, Leo H. Strickland, and Clyde H. Ashen.

RECORDS FALL AT AUTO SHOW

Attendance Mark Shattered in First Six Days

Heavy Sales on Floor Set New National Figure

Models So Alluring They're Wanted Immediately

Two important records were broken last night at the automobile show in the Shrine Auditorium. The record for attendance covering the shows in the past sixteen years was passed at the end of the sixth day of the present exhibition, and, according to figures available in the offices of the Motor Car Dealers' Association, every known national figure for transactions traceable to activities and sales on the floor of a show are exceeded.

"We have already sold more admission tickets than for any other local show," announced Burt Roberts, general manager, "and as we have three full days to go, we fully expect to pass the 200,000 mark.

"The money involved in 'floor deals,' as we call them, is enormous," declared Roberts. "Every exhibitor has taken orders for at least two cars and one distributor has sold fifteen high-priced cars and has prospects that look like a couple of dozen more sales for immediate delivery. Another surprise is that eleven of the thirty-two exhibitors have had to change their displays since the opening to make immediate delivery of some particular model they had in their display."

Dolores Del Rio was the guest artist last night. She sang several songs to the accompaniment of her own Mexican orchestra. An added attraction of importance was the appearance of the University of Southern California musical units. These included the Trojan band, the Women's Glee Club, the Men's Glee Club, the Trojan Trio (women) and the Varsity Four (men.)

Bebe Daniels and John Boles will appear tonight. They will sing their song hits from "Rio Rita." The Harold Roberts Golden State Orchestra will accompany them under the direction of Roy Webb, musical director of the R.-K.-O. studios, where "Rio Rita" was produced.

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Joan Crawford will make a joint personal appearance on Saturday night, ending the list of screen stars who have honored the automobile show with their appearance, presenting their entire earnings for so doing to the motion-picture relief fund.

STORES OF CITY PRAISED BY HEAD OF RETAILERS

Los Angeles stores were ranked with the world's greatest yesterday by Felix Vorenberg, president of the American Retailers, operating twelve stores in leading cities of the United States. Vorenberg, who makes his home in Boston, registered at the Ambassador.

Not only the full stocks of merchandise carried by local establishments but the interior decorations and the architectural features of the buildings won the praise of the visiting retailer.

"I never have seen anything surpassing the Los Angeles stores," he said. "They rank well up with the world's best."

Vorenberg manifested optimism as to the business outlook, expressing the opinion that 1930 will be a good year and that trade will be found in a pronounced upward swing next month.

Vorenberg is accompanied by his wife. The couple expect to visit in Southern California for several weeks.

EARLY MOVE EXPECTED IN GLAB DEATH

Action by Grand Jury on Murder Likely Within Next Few Days

Grand jury action in the Glab murder investigation is expected within a few days, according to detectives who have been working on the case during the last three weeks. The fact that they have released all their reports on the case to the District Attorney's office is believed to be an indication that early action on the case can be expected.

A week ago Dist.-Atty. Fitts asserted the Glab case would be the first important matter taken before the new grand jury, although all the evidence so far gathered against a suspect is circumstantial.

Whereabouts of Thomas Harris, "mystery witness," is unknown to the police. They have sent out word to other cities to apprehend him. He was last seen in Los Angeles a week ago. He is asserted to have quit his job as gardener with Mrs. George Goodrich, a neighbor of the Glabs, who saw a "blond woman" running from the car of John R. Glab immediately following the shooting. The detectives expect Harris to corroborate the testimony of Mrs. Goodrich.

Presbyterians to Hold Series of Mission Parleys

Sponsored by the National Presbyterian Board of Missions, a series of 150 meetings to educate the churches in the importance of missionary work in foreign nations, will be conducted in Southern California from March 7 to 14, inclusive.

Nearly all the meetings will be conducted in Los Angeles and will be addressed by noted churchmen from New York, including Dr. Robert E. Speer, senior secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, and Prof. C. R. Erdman, formerly Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in America.

Meetings of special importance, to be addressed by Dr. Speer, will be conducted March 9 at Emmanuel Presbyterian Church in the morning and at First Presbyterian Church, Hollywood, in the evening. The evening address will be broadcast over KNX and many Presbyterian churches are installing receiving sets in order to hear the lecture.

Girl's Excuse in Shoplifting Touches Court

Mable Josephine Lawman, 20 years of age, took two dresses from a downtown department store. In Municipal Judge Bullock's court yesterday she admitted the theft, but when Lewis Schaffer, her attorney, told the court why she took the dresses, Judge Bullock ordered an application for probation filed. This will be heard tomorrow.

"Your Honor, this girl had been out of work for months and is to be married to a San Diego fisherman as soon as she can get there," Schaffer said. "Someone stole her clothing and for four months she has had nothing to wear but the gingham dress she now has on. She went into the store to look for work and when she saw those dresses she couldn't resist the temptation to take them."

MacKay Wins Delay in Trial

The trial of Donald MacKay, former chief of the trial department under former Dist.-Atty. Keyes, on a charge of accepting a $7500 bribe to dismiss criminal charges on file against A. I. Lasker, was put over until April 7, next, by Superior Judge Wilson yesterday.

The continuance requested by Defense Attorney Richard Cantillon was not opposed by William McKay, deputy District Attorney in charge of the prosecution.

SERVICES PLANNED ON WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Preparations for services of interest to be conducted in Los Angeles on the world day of prayer, March 7, were announced yesterday by Mrs. C. E. Richards, president of the executive committee of the Women's Missionary Council of Southern California. Mrs. Carl N. Vance will be in charge of the meeting at First Methodist Church from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The same hours will be observed at First Baptist Church, with Mrs. G. E. Harrell in charge.

From 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. services will be conducted at the Church of the Messiah, Highland Park Presbyterian Church and Third United Brethren Church.

DIXIE LEE IN FEATURED ROLE

Fox Actress Given Lead in "Alone With You"

Guinn Williams, Lola Lane Cast in "Big Fight"

Paul Sloane Signs Contract With R.-K.-O.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Another singing and dancing ingenue has scored so heavily and has shown so much versatile ability that she is being elevated to the rank of featured leading lady.

DIXIE LEE

Dixie Lee, Tennessee's and Louisiana's joint gift to the talking screen, has been assigned to the leading feminine role in Fox's "Alone With You," Richard Connell's magazine story, which is serving as the first directorial effort of Sidney Lanfield. And what is more, they do say that Miss Lee will be a star first thing you know.

Announcement of the elevation of the little blonde blues singer and dancer to the dramatic lead was made yesterday.

Other featured players in the cast include Arthur Lake, Olga Baclanava, Whispering Jack Smith, Charles Judels and Johnny Arthur. Al Rockett is the associate producer in charge.

Miss Lee started her professional career less than two years ago, when, while attending Senn High School in Chicago, she won a singing contest at College Inn. In October of the same year she was sent to Pittsburgh to join the road company of "Good News."

GUINN WILLIAMS IS "BIG FIGHT" HERO

It is all settled at last, and Guinn Williams, otherwise known as "Big Boy" Williams, has been signed by James Cruze Productions to play the role of the prize-fighter hero in "The Big Fight," adapted from the Belasco play in which Jack Dempsey starred on Broadway last year.

LOLA LANE

Walter Lang is to direct the production, and the leading lady, also signed yesterday, will be Lola Lane.

Stepin Fetchit is to have a comedy role, and Ralph Ince will play a prize fighter.

R.-K.-O. to Produce Musicals

We felt perfectly sure that somebody some day, now that sound pictures are in, would grab off some of these old musical comedies, like "The Pink Lady," "Madame Sherry," "The Serenade" and others, and make them into screen musicals.

PAUL SLOANE

And this is just what R.-K.-O. proposes to do. So far, however, negotiations are not closed, so it is indiscreet to mention the titles of the several they have in mind.

In the meantime, R.-K.-O. is digging up all the good players and directors possible for such musicals.

Paul Sloane was signed yesterday on a long-term contract. Sloane, you remember, made a hit with his "Hearts in Dixie," which he directed for Fox. At present he is engaged in directing a picture for R.-K.-O. and his next, not yet named, will be a musical.

Adolphe Menjou Returning

Just what Adolphe Menjou's plans are nobody seems to know, but the fact remains that that well-known actor is returning to this country.

Menjou was formerly a Paramount star. A year or so ago he went to Europe and signed to appear in French pictures made in Paris. Now it seems his contract over there is ended and he is coming back to Hollywood.

Otto Brower Signs Again

Eight years of continuous service with Paramount, during which he steadily worked his way up through various stages from property boy to director, have brought Otto Brower a long-term contract with that concern.

OTTO BROWER

This is his first contract, although he has been directing for almost two years. The contract came as a result of a preview last night of "The Light of Western Stars," according to the announcement of B. P. Schulberg. He co-directed the film with Edwin Knopf.

His first work under the contract will be the codirection with Knopf of a talking version of another Zane Grey story, "The Border Legion."

Wesley Barry With Tiffany

Wesley Barry seems to be slipping very easily right back into pictures, following an interim on the stage since his kid screen acting days.

Now he has been signed by Tiffany to play the juvenile lead in "West of the Rio Grande," in which Armida has the leading feminine role.

Barry's latest appearance before this was in "Party Girl," which is showing these days at the Million Dollar Theater. His first work on the screen was in a picture or two for Marshall Neilan.

DUNNING PLAY COMES TO SCREEN

Rather ashamed, perhaps, to be screened in such a guise, "The Night Hostess" changes her name to "Woman Racket." She must have been, too, uncertain as to her success, for the timid noise she makes is not nearly large enough to fill the Boulevard Theater.

The transition to picture was made with elaborations and variations on the original product of Philip Dunning. In doing so, that spark which made "The Night Hostess" the life of the party has been extinguished. She comes to the screen languid and listless and somewhat passe.

It is a shame, too, for Blanche Sweet ventures into her first talkie well equipped to conquer. She photographs better than ever, her voice is more musical than the average and she can hold her own against any screen songstress. One sees for her in this not defeat, but disappointment.

An Irishman and a uniform are almost synonymous. Tom Moore, outfitted in the brogue and braid of the force, does what he can with the husband who is first and last a "copper."

As a surprise, Bobby Agnew, had he been allowed more footage, might have sung and played away most of the honors. He and Sally Starr make one of the most convincing of screen couples to pose as cabaret performers.

Constantly reminiscent of "Broadway" is "Woman Racket," with the cabaret, exits and entrances from an anteroom, a murder (about which nothing much is done and less explained,) and even Moore gradually putting on the plain clothes and casual manners of "Broadway's" detective.

By startling jumps and lapses of time the story proceeds from the moment Moore discovers a pair of shapely limbs hanging on a tree during a cafe raid. They happen to belong to Blanche Sweet, so he marries her. The next crisis occurs when after a year, Blanche asks, "Thomas, are you going to be a copper all your life?" Seeing that he is, back she goes to the night club racket, becomes the pawn of a villain's vileness, is involved in a murder and suffocated in a trunk. After all that, although it wasn't written in the play, it seemed only right that the girl be allowed to live and be clasped again in the arms of the law.

A Laurel and Hardy comedy and Lynn Cowan and his band round out the program.

'ROPE'S END' BOOKED FOR VINE STREET

Noel Madison Will Head Brilliant Cast of New Melodrama

"Rope's End," a superintellectual murder drama by Patrick Hamilton, emininet English playwright, will be presented by William E. Smith as the next attraction at his Vine-street Theater. Its success at the Ambassador Theater in London, and at the Theater Masque in New York, is the result of its complete originality in theme, action, and dialogue, it is said. It strikes a fresh note on the American stage.

What melodrama the play contains is psychological, yet the action is daring and the suspense keen. The playwright is said to have achieved an unerring balance in this work.

The producer has imported an all-English cast for this offering. It is headed by Noel Madison, brilliant star of the British stage, who has to his credit an imposing list of personal triumphs, including "The Great Lover," "The Outsider," "The Silent House," "They Knew What They Wanted" and "Dracula." Madison will be supported by Hugh Huntley, Dwight Frye, Brenda Forbes, Suzane Leach, Peter Shore, Vesey O'Davoren and Alfred Jenkin. Arthur Greville Collins, prominent English stage director, has also been secured.

NEW FIELD ATTEMPTED

Although Leo McCarey is established as one of the most successful directors in the industry, especially since the advent of the voice on the screen, he has yet to make a straight dramatic production. His introduction in this avenue of entertainment is being afforded him by the Fox organization, where he is preparing to film "Roadhouse."

WAGNER PROVES MARKED APPEAL

Excerpts from Music Dramas Given Under Rodzinski

Huge Choral Creation Also Feature of Concert

Philharmonic and Oratorio Society Join Forces

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Admiration for the music of Richard Wagner was enthusiastically expressed at the Philharmonic Orchestra concert last evening. Homage to the great composer for the stage was achieved in the three closing selections of the program, which, it might be said, served to forecast the glories of "The Ring of the Nibelungen" and other works soon to be heard here in their operatic form. Two instrumental excerpts from "Die Gotterdammerung" and a goodly portion of the final act of "Die Meistersinger," with vocal soloists and chorus, were the foci of interest. Due attention was also paid, however, to the remarkably elaborate first rendition here of the "Psalmus Hungaricus," by Zoltan Kodaly earlier in the evening.

The concert given at the Philharmonic Auditorium represented a combining of the forces of the orchestra with those of the Los Angeles Oratorio Society. In the Kodaly number the Junior Oratorio Society was included, making a choral body of fully 250—altogether nearly 350 concerned in the production of this unusual creation.

Presentation of the "Psalmus Hungaricus" was therefore in the nature of a spectacular feat, and apparently regarded as such by the audience. It was evident that their appreciation was directed toward Dr. Artur Rodzinski as conductor of the work, and also Dan Gridley ,who sang th etenor solo part, as well as the other singers and the instrumentalists.

Kodaly's pretentious endeavor has unquestionably its meaningful moments. I recall few that are more so than the actual close, with its pastel shadowing of the choral voices —a decided credit to the body of singers. The real religious and mysterious atmosphere seems here conjured. Occasionally elsewhere there is a lamentoso mood that is eminently fascinating. But a musical aridity prevails obtrusively at times, and it is especially ungrateful in the solo passages of somewhat narrative character. Mr. Gridley's voice managed to shine through acceptably, though much of what he had to sing was hardly designed for display of vocal beauty. He enjoyed a far better opportunity by comparison in the Prize Song from "Die Meistersinger" and rendered this very creditably.

Orchestrally the most attractive events were "Siegfried's Funeral March" and "Siegfried's Rhine Journey." Here Dr. Rodzinski disclosed his power in the obtaining of dramatic effects. His rendition of the "Psalmus Hungaricus," it might be noted, was also distinctive for this quality. The "Siegfried Funeral March," which is so rich in themes and expression, was none the less the most enthralling experience. The ovation for this and also at the end of the Wagnerian group proved the interest and approval of the audience—even despite the fact that the program, as seems the fashion of Philharmonic programs nowadays, was plentifully long.

Haydn's Symphony No. 13, played with marked precision and also spirit, providing a pleasing impression. There are also to note the group of singers headed by Tudor Williams, basso, who took part in "Die Meistersinger." The quintet was given by Mr. Gridley, Mr. Williams, Hazel Rhodes, soprano, Rita Raymond, contralto, and Dr. Carl Omeron, tenor. Mr. Williams had large obligations in the Hans Sachs vocal interpretation, which he met, on the whole, very commendably.

The concert will be repeated this afternoon.

CONCERT PROGRAM FEATURES SOPRANO

Edna Darch Provides Highlight at Biltmore Music Room With Fine Voice

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

The Zoellner-Blakeslee Concert Choir had its debut last night in Coleridge-Taylor's "Departure of Hiawatha." The Biltmore musicroom was inadequate in size for the production and the crowd which attended but the performance was so generally worth while that another presentation is certainly justified.

Edna Darch, a gifted singer who left Los Angeles a number of years ago to be educated by a famous prima donna and has since had prominent roles in the Chicago Civic Opera, was heard in the soprano solos and her lovely voice and fine musicianship were a highlight of the evening.

The choir, which was organized at the Zoellner Conservatory and has been painstakingly trained by S. Earl Blakeslee, is a promising band of enthusiastic young singers with good tonal sensitivity and dramatic force. The Indian costumes lent color to the scene. The conductor is to be congratulated.

Frances Bates, the excellent pianist, who simulated an orchestra in the musical background which she supplied for the chorus and soloists, gave strength to the performance. It was a mistake, however, to have her play in the small room with the top of the piano raised.

George Walker, basso, was handicapped by illness but gave a fair presentation of the difficult part of Hiawatha, and Leon Rice was the assisting tenor.

Forum to Offer Big Game Film

Next week patrons of Warner Brothers' Forum Theater will be taken on a whale hunt with Maj. and Mrs. Hammond in a sound picture produced by these noted big-game hunters. This film of the actual capturing of several whales is declared to contain the most thrilling sequence ever made, with the camera turning within twenty feet of the deep-sea giants.

DRAMA OF OLD WEST AT LOEW'S

"Lone Star Ranger" Tells of Rustlers, Cowboys and Romance

BY JOHN SCOTT

With due respect for the wishes of a certain part of the screen public, astute producers in Hollywood have started the revival of the "horse opera" or western film of yesteryear. Zane Grey, author of many such stories, contributes his "Lone Star Ranger" to the talking cinema as one of the first. It is on display currently at Loew's State Theater.

Fashioned out of cowboy melodrama, blazing six-shooters and pounding hoofs, "The Lone Star Ranger" is a film hard to classify as to general entertainment value, althought for those who have shouted long and loyudly for the "westerns," it will supply thrills and intense satisfaction. It is not a parlor drama, rather presenting men and their adventures in the rough.

The story is familiar enough. Buck Duane, who has killed a man in self-defense, is leading a lone-wolf existence, hunted by sheriffs of twenty counties. He happens along at the right moment to frustrate a stage coach hold-up and meets Mary Aldridge, played by Sue Carol. Capt. McNally of the Rangers shortly thereafter induces Duane to join up with the organization—to rid the section of the cattle rustlers and thereby win a pardon from the Governor.

Duane cleans out their nest with his trusty revolver, being the fastest man on the draw in those parts. During this diversion he indulges in some gun play, a little tree climbing and a lot of riding.

In comparison to the old-time "westerns," "The Lone Star Ranger" hits a high point of melodrama, what with the sharp reports of the guns, the breaking of glasses at the bar and the realistic sound of horses' hoofs, which, in the silent days, were audible result of the wooden block in the hands of the theater drummer.

A lengthy cast interprets the plot, with George O'Brien offering the best performance. O'Brien has all the qualifications for a hero of the type he portrays. Sue Carol seems miscast as the city girl who comes west for adventure. The supporting players are well chosen and include Walter McGrail, Warren Hymer, Russell Simpson, Roy Stewart as the Ranger captain, Colin Chase, Elizabeth Patterson, Caroline Rankin and others. The photography is excellent and is credited to Daniel Clark. A. F. Erickson's direction is to be commended.

"Blotto" shares honors on the current program with the Grey story. "Blotto" is enacted by Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy and is longer than the usual comedy starring these popular funsters. The comedians are at their best in this film and from all indications at the opening performance will keep patrons of Loew's State roaring with mirth all week. The picture may be classified as one of their funniest.

Sixteen New York beauties parade on the stage this week in "Broadway Venuses" Idea, along with Wells and Winthrop, Freda Sullivan, Aerial Bartlett and the orchestra under direction of George Stoll.

BACKSTAGE YARN TOLD AT R.-K.-O.

Helen Twelvetrees, Fred Scott Offer Convincing Performances

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

No one need make any more remarks about too many backstage shows. "The Grand Parade" at the R.-K.-O. Theater this week upsets the apple cart. Here is the ever-familiar theme of the trouper, his success, failures, disappointments and love conflicts brought to the screen with originality and fresh color. Although the background is distinctly backstage, one loses almost sight of this, in a zestful interest in the movements of the two principal characters.

These happen to be Helen Twelvetrees and Fred Scott. As the wistful slip of a girl who worships the handsome, weak-willed minstrel tenor, Miss Twelvetrees does excellent work endowed with pathos, sympathy, charm and highly emotional force.

Scott, new to the screen, attains some fine moments. Not only he is a pretty fair actor, but he has a grand lyric voice which he uses to good effect in several songs. The best one is the key melody, "Molly," which has a tenderly haunting refrain. Then there's "Sweetheart," and "You Left Me Alone in the Rain." He is always believable and yet at the same time makes an exceedingly sympathetic job out of a character which could easily have been disliked.

The story, built about Scott's fight against his attraction for a burlesque queen and a dangerously insidious thirst for liquor, shows him as a minstrel show tenor travelling the country in days of brass rails, long dragging skirts and derby hats, perhaps the late 90's.

A lot of old-time color has thus been woven into the story's background and this augmented by snappy work from the minstrel troupe, dancing, effects and humor, gives it warmth and vigor. The first half of the picture moves with telling swiftness. I thought the last half, that in a more melodramatic tragic note, was less compelling, although there was little or no feeling of insincerity.

Marie Astaire is the be-plumed and painted "other woman." Her best scene was in the old barroom where she sang "It's Only Me Calling for You," to the lover she had jilted. Richard Carle is a suave and delightful master of ceremonies. Russell Powell, Bud Jamieson, Lillian Leighton and others were members of the supporting cast. The story, already remarked upon, is the work of Edmund Goulding, who produced the picture directed by Fred Newmeyer.

The accompanying stage show reveals William and Joe Mandel, comics; Owen McGiveney, Dick Nash and Midgie Fately in various antics. A feature presentation is the Pavley-Oukrainsky ballet.

"Yellow Pass" Opens Tonight

The new Russian film, "The Yellow Pass," which opens tonight at the Filmarte Theater, once again brings into the limelight the tillers of the soil, the people with elemental, primitive emotions. It offers a simple story centering on the efforts of a peasant family in the battle for bread.

F. Ozep, who wrote the scenario and directed "The Yellow Pass," was a journalist, dramatic critic and author before joining the cinema and he is said to display his literary training in every scene.

MUSIC AND WIT SPICE MELODRAMA

'Roadhouse Nights' Comes to Paramount With Mixed and Capable Cast

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Somewhat tardily, "Roadhouse Nights" came tearing along in the wake of all the other night-club sagas to the Paramount Theater yesterday. It proved to be not the least of these, emerging as a creditable melodrama which, despite numerous irrelavancies, mounts to a climax expertly and thrillingly portrayed. Helen Morgan, Charles Ruggles and Jimmy Durante have the principal roles.

The picture, made in the eastern studio of Paramount, is from an original story by Ben Hecht, author of "Underworld." It details the operations of a gang of nefarious rum-runners somewhere outside Chicago and their final confusion at the hands of an humble reporter for the Chicago Times. Insinuated at respectable intervals, and without particular detriment to the plot mechanics, are the quasi-vaudeville turns of that distinctive entertainer, Miss Morgan, and of three lunatics who rejoice in the names of Clayton, Jackson and Durante. It is Durante, a gaping-jawed, gangling pessimist with a heart of gold, who does the most for the camera whenever it is pointed his way.

Miss Morgan, whose especial forte is complaining about her men—most of whom she can't help lovin' anyway, as she so often reiterates—can complain, as far as I am concerned, with more effectiveness than anybody else on stage or screen. For the present occasion, the tears streak her cheeks to the tune of something called "Got a Feelin' My Man Is Goin' Astray." It isn't much as a song, but it serves the purpose.

Charles Ruggles resumes his old-time reporter role—dropped after "Gentlemen of the Press"—without any lost motion, though here he is required to assume a more serious demeanor in order to win the girl. The big moment of the picture finds him tapping out a message to his managing editor with a ring on his finger, while at the same time he simulates an incoherent, alcoholic argument with an oblivious telephone operator. The moment, let it be said, had listeners on the edges of their seats.

Otherwise "Roadhouse Nights" has been somewhat unevenly directed by Hobart Henley, careless grouping in several shots making it necessary for spectators to supply missing halves to the actors who, in the manner of the first talkies, are badly bisected. Among those seen wholly or in part, in addition to the principals, are Fred Kohler, Fuller Mellish, Jr., Tammany Young and oJe King—the last two, it may be recalled, having been popular screen players in the long ago.

Buster and John West furnish hilarious nonsense in a Christie comedy entitled "Marchin' to Georgie," and the current bill includes a short subject with Frances Williams and the Yacht Club Boys.

Violet Heming Has Chief Role at El Capitan

Violet Heming, the distinguished star, comes to El Capitan, starting Sunday in "Let Us Be Gay." This comedy is by Rachel Crothers and ran for more than 400 performances in New York.

In "Let Us Be Gay" Miss Crothers takes an average house party at a home of wealth and social exclusiveness and shows the devastation that can be created by making one of the guests a woman of brilliance and unusual charm.

Miss Heming will be Kitty Brown, while featured in the cast will be Virginia Valli, noted screen actress, who will play Dierdre. Niles Welch, Grayce Hampton, Raymond Lawrence, Anderson Lawler, Bram Nossen, Claire de Brey, Jane Elton, Herbert Fortier, James Sargent and Donald Campbell also have roles.

HERSHOLT FINISHES

Jean Hersholt has completed his assignment in "Viennese Nights," which Sigmund Romberg and Oscar Hammerstein II, are producing for Warner Brothers under Alan Crosland's direction. Hersholt is a member of the free-lance field.

THE PHOTOPLAY MAGAZINE MEDAL

ONE YEAR FROM NOW

When film history is being written ...when critics make their selection of the best pictures of 1930.—Just remember our prediction...

"MEN WITHOUT WOMEN"

will be unanimously listed among the ten best pictures of 1930 because: • • ...It is the creation of John Ford, who was awarded the Photoplay gold medal for his direction of "Four Sons." • • ...It is a sincere character study of the American gob, done with understanding and insight, without sugar-coating and exaggeration. Its realism holds the mirror to nature. Its amazing story, swift and gripping, grim yet humorous, gives it a virility unprecedented in talking pictures. • • That's why we say this sensational saga of the sea looms up as Fox Movietone's contribution to the year's ten best.

THREE ACCUSED OF COIN MAKING

Counterfeiting Apparatus Found in Apartment

Passing of Bogus Fifty-Cent Pieces Leads to Arrest

Trio Turned Over to Federal Authorities for Trial

Arrested by deputy sheriffs, three young men yesterday were being held in the County Jail for Federal authorities on charges of counterfeiting. Molds and other counterfeiting equipment, seized by the deputies in company with W. W. Ashe, United States secret service agent, at an apartment occupied by the three men, were turned over to Federal officers, who will continue an investigation into the activities of the arrested men.

Those held are Henry A. Alexander, 18 years of age; Herbert Crenshaw, 21, and John Hatala, 25.

Alexander and Crenshaw were first taken in custody by Constable Jobson on East Florence avenue after Alexander is asserted to have passed bogus 50-cent pieces on clerks of two drug stores in the vicinity. Mildred Rumsey, clerk of the Culver Drug Company, 7200 South Pacific Boulevard, and Russell Maxwell, proprietor of a pool hall, 2632 East Florence avenue, told officers Alexander passed counterfeit 50-cent pieces on them after making 5-cent purchases, according to a Sheriff's office report. He also was identified by Harry Richey, clerk of the Brawley Drug Company, 2694 East Florence avenue, as having passed a third spurious coin, officers stated.

Hatala was arrested when the officers descended on an apartment at 2030 South Vermont avenue, where the men had been living. Following the capture of Hatala who, the officers reported, was in the act of packing his effects, Crenshaw admitted he was the leader of the three, according to the deputies. Alexander also admitted that he had passed approximately twelve counterfeit dollars and sixty bogus half-dollars within the preceding twelve hours, the deputies reported.

Arrest of the men occurred following a broadcast by Capt. Gregg of the Florence-avenue substation for merchants to be on the watch for bad-coin passers operating in the district. Detecting the coin presented to her by Alexander as a counterfeit, Miss Rumsey notified authorities, who trailed the two men to the vicinity of the pool hall operated by Maxwell, according to the report.

MOTHER KING'S RITES SET

Funeral for Former State Head of W.C.T.U. Prison Reform to Be Conducted Tomorrow

BY ALMA WHITAKER

Funeral services for Fannie L. King affectionately known to thousands as Mother King, who passed away Wednesday to her eternal rest, will be conducted at the Brown Funeral Parlors, at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Mother King would have been 93 years of age this May. Until eighteen months ago she was State superintendent of prison reform for the Women's Christian Temperance Union in California, a job she performed wisely and lovingly for twenty years and won the title of Prison Angel.

Mother King

Mother King, born in 1838, lived in Arkansas all through the Civil War, in which her first husband fought for the Confederates. She had one daughter, Ida, who married Dr. A. M. Petty of Los Angeles, general field representative of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. So that Mother King was the grandmother of Dr. A. Ray Petty, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Kansas City, Mo., formerly assistant to Dr. Brougher in this city; Dr. C. Wallace Petty, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Dr. S. S. Petty, physician of this city.

It was given to Mother King to be a much-beloved woman, by all who came in contact with her. One of her closest friends these last few years has been Madeliene Obenchain, who lived near by in Eagle Rock. For her sake Madeliene joined the W.C.T.U. and once played for the prisoners in the County Jail when their organist had failed them.

This same beloved Mother King was a staunch defender of modern youth and resented the calumnous campaign against them so prevalent a couple of years ago.

House Invader Lands in Jail

James Rakoweiz, 33 years of age, of 6252 South Wilton Place, visited the home of Miss Elsie Smith at 1249 South Grand avenue just once too often and yesterday found himself in the City Jail charged with burglary.

Miss Smith said that while taking a bath Wednesday morning she heard a noise in the hall outside of the bathroom. To her querie of, "Who's there?" a voice replied, "I'm looking for Mary."

Miss Smith said she told whoever it was to wait and when she completed her bath she found her purse missing.

Yesterday morning, Miss Smith said, she again was in her bathroom when the same person came "looking for Mary." She slipped out and telephoned police. Officers arrived and reported finding Rakoweiz rummaging in Miss Smith's apartment.

WILLIAMS ALUMNI TO MEET

The annual banquet of the Williams College Alumni Association of Southern California will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Alexandria. Among those expected to be present is Judge Charles E. Harwood of Upland, pioneer Californian and oldest living alumnus.

John McIntyre, Stock Broker, Killed by Fall

Found lying on the floor of a lavatory, unconscious and bleeding from the head, John McIntyre, 43 years of age, a stock broker, with offices at 704 South Spring street, was rushed to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital yesterday, where he died within a few minutes. He was discovered by Leslie C. Lawlor, a fellow-broker, who called O. R. Stratton, McIntyre's business associate, and the two rendered first-aid, but were unable to revive him.

A post-mortem examination conducted by the Coroner revealed that a head injury, apparently caused by falling on a tile floor, was responsible.

McIntyre was married and lived at 348 North Johnstone avenue, Glendale. He was well known in Spring-street financial circles.

CUB REGULARS HERE TODAY

Chicago Infielders and Outfielders Open Spring Training at Avalon This Afternoon

BY BOB RAY

The spring training siege of the Chicago Cubs at Catalina Island begins in earnest this afternoon when Joe McCarthy's heavy artillery moves into Avalon and starts firing.

The Cubs' heavy artillery, if you insist, is none other than Messrs. Rogers Hornsby, Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson and the rest of the regular infielders and outfielders who exploded enough base hits under rival pitchers last year to bring Chicago its first National League championship since 1918.

ROGERS HORNSBY

McCarthy's regulars pull into Los Angeles at the Santa Fe station this morning at 7:15 o'clock, immediately strike out for Wilmington, where they will hop on of William Wrigley's boats for the Magic Isle. The Cubs reach Avalon at noon and at 1:30 they'll find themselves going through their paces under the watchful eyes of "Iron Man" McCarthy.

Skipper McCarthy is so anxious to get the regulars to work that he isn't going to give them time to get one of those famous St. Catherine Hotel meals before they begin training. That ought to qualify Joe for the title of the meanest man in the world in the eyes of those hungry ballplayers, who probably have been saving up their appetites all winter so they could do themselves justice in the dining-room at Avalon. Anyhow, the boys will only have time for a sandwich and a bottle of milk before they find themselves chasing the agate on the Catalina diamond.

Today's arriving party of Cubs will include Infielders Charley Grimm, Woody English, Rogers Hornsby, Clarence Blair, Slug Tolson, Herman Jones and William Jurgess, and Outfielders Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson, Hack Wilson and Danny Taylor. Clyde Beck, who spent the winter milking cows at Gardena, will join the party of Cub regulars at the Wilmington docks.

Lester Bell, the third-sacker purchased from the Boston Braves last winter, and Cliff Heathcote, the ukulele-strumming outfielder, are already on the island and have been getting the kinks out of their systems for the past week.

CATCHER BILL SKIFF STILL ON HOLD-OUT LIST

BY FRANK ROCHE

Where is Armand Santiago? That is the question that local fistic followers have been asking each other for the last two weeks.

The Cuban junior lightweight boxer, who figured in one of the most sensational fights in California ring history on the 11th inst. with Billy Townsend of Vancouver at the Olympic Auditorium, has not been seen or heard from since the day after the contest. Last night his manager, Frank Churchill, informed The Times he was in as much of a quandary concerning the boxer's whereabouts as anyone else.

BILLY TOWNSEND

Churchill stated that he had dispatched telegrams yesterday to New York, Chicago and Hot Springs, Ark., in hopes of getting some news from Santiago. Following his dramatic knockout by Billy Townsend, one of the most talked-of performances in years in local fistic circles, Santiago turned up the next day for his share of the purse and then disappeared.

DRAMATIC BOUT

Because of the dramatic ending of the Townsend-Santiago bout the disappearance of the Cuban fighter has taken on a good deal of significance along Fistic Row. Santiago was unable to answer the bell for the seventh round, following one of

REFEREE'S STORY OF FIGHT

Lou Magnolia Says He Stopped Bout Because Scott Would Not Continue; Declares There Were No Foul Blows Landed During the Scrap

BY LOU MAGNOLIA
Referee Sharkey-Scott Fight

(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

RINGSIDE, MIAMI BEACH (Fla.) Feb. 27.—I stopped the fight between Jack Sharkey and Phil Scott here tonight and awarded it to Sharkey on a technical knockout in the third round because Scott would not go on fighting. There was no foul punch that dropped Scott at any time during the nearly three rounds that the affair lasted. Every blow with which Sharkey dropped the English champion was landed in fair territory.

LOU MAGNOLIA

Twice Sharkey did land punches that were a bit low, but they were not low enough to be classed as foul blows.

When that third knockdown came about the middle o the round and Scott went down writhing and squirming and the cry of foul was hurled from his corner, I waved Sharkey to his own corner and motioned for Scott's seconds to enter the ring and get him to his corner, where he could be examined by the Boxing Commission's physician.

In the corner they decided that Scott could go on. This coincided with my judgment and I ordered the seconds out of the ring and the fight to go on.

It was only a few seconds after that that Sharkey hooked a hard punch to the stomach in a neutral corner and Scott went into a fainting spell, hanging on the ropes. I waved Sharkey away and looked at Phil. I asked him if he wanted to go on, and he merely hung there.

We had asked Scott if he thought he could continue, and he said he would try. This was when he was taking the rest in his own corner. His manager agreed that he could go on.

I told him this time he must go on, or he would lose the fight. He said he could not go on. I decided that he did not intend to fight any more tonight, and so I stopped the bout and gave the decision to Sharkey.

When I called for the intermission in that third round, I knew that Scott had not been fouled, but I wanted to give him every chance to continue, especially because I did not want any howl or squawk from Jimmy Johnston, his manager, in view of all the talk about fouls and whether the fight should be stopped with either man on his feet.

I even asked Scott if he was physically fit to continue and he said to me that he was. An examination was made and the bout resumed.

That final punch was high and fair. I watched particularly for foul blows and, as everybody could see, I was on top of the fighters at all times and in a position to see every punch landed. I did see every punch landed and I saw exactly where it landed.

BOWMAN AND BARNES IN BERMUDA FINALS

HAMILTON (Bermuda) Feb. 27. (AP)—Herbert L. Bowman of New York, and Bruce Barnes of Austin, Tex., reached the final round of the men's singles in the Bermuda tennis championships today. They will clash for the title tomorrow.

FALLEN BRITISHER CALLS DECISION ROTTEN, WICKED

RINGSIDE, MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—"It was a rotten, wicked decision," was Phil Scott's dressing-room description of the technical knockout awarded Jack Sharkey by Referee Lou Magnolia tonight after Scott had claimed a foul in the heavyweight elimination battle here.

"I know I was fouled at least a half-dozen times. I counted them. I have never seen anything like it in my life."

The Englishman said Referee Magnolia came to him after he had first claimed Sharkey fouled him.

"He asked me if I could carry on. I told him I would try—that's all anybody can do," Scott said. "But if a man can't carry on, he can't."

Scott exhibited a prospective bruise on the outside of his right leg six inches below the point of the hip bone. He said that place was the point where he had been fouled by Sharkey.

"The referee poked his finger in my stomach at the time of the last foul," Scott lamented. "He and the man they said was a doctor both said the first time that I was not fouled, but any doctor in the world should have known it."

Sharkey, so excited that tears streamed down his face as he danced and struggled with his handlers while awaiting the referee's decision dashed for his dressing-room after being declared the victor.

"Not one blow was foul," he shouted, storming about in an almost uncontrollable rage at the claim that came close to keeping him from victory. The big ex-sailor refused to be interviewed and left in a few minutes to join his wife, who had refused to attend the fight.

FIGHT HALTED AS SCOTT IS UNABLE TO CONTINUE

acing in a manifestation of extreme pain. Backed finally against the ropes, Phil took a smashing blow to the stomach, a left hook, and sagged. Although the blow clearly was fair, several inches above the belt line, Scott indicated another claim of foul as he turned in a helpless manner toward his corner. Magnolia unhesitatingly stepped in, asked Scott whether he wanted to continue and, when advised in the negative, turned to lift the raging Sharkey's hand in victory.

The fight was stopped after two minutes and thirty-four seconds of actual fighting in the third round, but, due to the interval of rest for Scott, lasted a minute longer.

Scott's manager, Jimmy Johnston, protested volubly and declared later that Referee Magnolia originally had disqualified Sharkey, but the sole arbiter of the bout denied this and flatly declared he had not seen Sharkey hit a foul blow at any time. The final punch, Magnolia said, was squarely in the pit of the stomach and left no possible room for argument.

SHOW UNSATISFACTORY

The finish of the main bout, although advancing Sharkey to the final round of this year's heavyweight championship elimination tournament with Max Schmeling as his prospective final foe in June, was as unsatisfactory to the crowd and to the critics as most everything else connected with the show.

Sharkey's victory followed an unpopular verdict of a draw by Referee Kid McPartlind of New York in the ten-round semifinal between Victorio Campolo of the Argentine and Johnny Risko of Cleveland. McPartlind lifted the gloves of both men after a slashing slugging bee in which Risko, although conceding an advantage of thirty-one pounds in weight to his giant opponent, appeared to have a clean-cut margin on points.

Campolo finished the stronger staggering Risko with solid blows to the head in the tenth round, but Johnny forced the fighting in at least eight of the ten rounds, cuffing and battering his big rival all over the ring with characteristic rushes.

On the Associated Press score sheet, Risko was accorded the edge in six rounds, Campolo in only three—the first, seventh and tenth—with the fifth regarded as even. Referee McPartlind said he gave four rounds to each and rated two even. Many, if not a majority of ringside experts, gave Risko no fewer than seven rounds.

There were no knockdowns, but Risko staggered Campolo with vicious overhand rights and raised a big lump under the Argentine's left eye. Campolo, baffled and stung, as he was in most of the rounds, nevertheless exhibited a terrific right-hand punch when he was able to land it. Regardless of the decision the fight manifested no basis for the New York Boxing Commission's decision that Risko was "too small" to fight Campolo.

LOSS MAY TOTAL $50,000

The unsatisfactory outcome of the two featured bouts was a climax to the financial flop of the second battle of the cocoanut palms, a losing venture from the outset despite the most extraordinary attempts at ballyhoo. Although the Madison Square Garden Corporation issued no official figures, an authoritative estimate appeared to be that not more than 25,000 persons half filled the big arena and contributed a "gate" of about $200,000. It wa sindicated the loss might reach $50,000 on this basis.

The chief reason for the first season's failure was the lack of com-

HEAVYWEIGHTS TOP BOUT BILL

Knockout Expected When Big Fellows Collide

Open-Air Show May be Tried by Legion Club

Doman Rules Favorite in Go at Film City Ring

HARRY BEUM

The process of elimination is going on at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium and heavyweight fighters are the ones being eliminated. Vigo Doman and Harry Beum are the main eventers tonight and whoever wins has another shot in view. The wind-up of the tournament will probably be a big open-air shot this summer, either at Wrigley Field or in Hollywood on the Lasky lots near the stadium. The finals of the heavyweight tournament will draw big money and with Al Morro, Max Baer, Frankie Campbell and a few more likely looking lads in the running, public interest will be strong enough to go into the open with the finals.

The Beum-Doman fight tonight will bring out an opponent for either Frankie Campbell or Al Morro. Doman wants Campbell and Morro would like to fight Beum. Doman has already signed a contract that binds him to fight Campbell and Jim Jeffries, who handles Morro, will give his answer tomorrow after he has seen the show tonight.

The Hollywood Legion is interested in an open-air show. The promotion is being talked over from every angle. Wrigley Field would be available.

Hollywood fight fans like Doman because of his sock. He never seeks soft touches and doesn't get any. He isn't clever and moves around like a truck but once Doman tags an opponent he usually is found in a horizontal position and counted out.

The strongest part of the stadium show tonight is the preliminaries. They should be full of action from the curtain raiser to the semi-windup. Tommy McGough, a flashy bantamweight from New York, fights Manuel DeLeon, a young Mexican who has been the idol of Ventura fight fans. McGough is favorite, but DeLeon is touted as a sweet short-ender. Sammy Rothstein fights Leonard Rehming in the special. They are flyweights. Rehming is rated the better fighter and should win. Nish Kekorian beat Freddy Welsh in a four-rounder a few weeks ago in a sensational fight and, therefore, rules a favorite to repeat. Mickey Fuente gets the call over Don Cutter in the curtain raiser.

ARGENTINE POLO ACE WIELDS WICKED MASHIE AT MIDWICK

Jose C. Reynal, seven-goal star of the Pacific Coast champion Argentine polo team, has temporarily dropped his mallet for a golf stick at the Midwick Country Club. Reynal took his first golf lesson from Fred Morrison on Wednesday, and immediately purchased a complete set of matched woods and irons. As Reynal speaks no English, Tommy Garcia, Morrison's club maker, acted in the capacity of interpreter. Reynal caught onto the principles of the golf swing in short time, and is a promising prospect, according to Morrison.

Fairfax Trips Beverly Hills

Coach Keith Lloyd's Fairfax High School track-and-field athletes won a close meet from the Beverly Hills tracksters yesterday by the score of 55 to 49. The encounter took place on the Colonials' oval.

Fairfax made clean sweeps in the mile and four-forty, and scored five first places. The best mark of the day was made by McCartney of Fairfax in the pole vault, with a mark of 11ft. 3 in. Several Fairfax and Beverly athletes were kept out of the meet, in order that they might get into better condition for the relays at L. A. High Saturday.

Summary:

100-yard dash—Won by Lasely (B.) Pabst (B.) second, McCartney (F.) third. Time, 10 2-10s.

220-yard dash—Won by Jacoby (F.) Jacklin (B.) second, Kelly (F.) third. Time, 22 9-10s.

440-yard dash—Won by Harter (F.) Thomas (F.) second, Schaller (F.) third. Time, 54 4-10s.

880-yard dash—Won by Hendricks (B.) Hovey (F.) second, Johnson (B.) third. Time, 2m. 18s.

Mile run—Won by Swift (F.) Gingrich (F.) second, Stevenson (F.) third. Time, 5m. 11s.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Bonney (B.) Silverman (F.) second, Beaumont (B.) third. No time.

120-yard low hurdles—Won by Rea (B.) Beaumont (B.) second, Silverman (F.) third. Time, 14 5-10s.

Relay—Won by Beverly Hills. Time, 49 1-10s.

High jump—Won by Beaumont (B.) Miller (F.) second, Vernon (F.) third. Height, 5ft. 8in.

Broad jump—Won by Smith (F.) Dennington (F.) second, Jackman (B.) third. Distance, 18ft. 6½in.

Shot put—Won by Greenlow (B.) Dickerson (F.) second, Roberts (F.) third. Distance, 41ft. 10in.

Pole vault—Won by McCartney (F.) Massey (B.) second, Wulner (F.) third. Height, 11ft. 3in.

Final score—Fairfax, 55; Beverly Hills, 49.

Listo Fails Backers in Main Gallop

AGUA CALIENTE (Mex.) Feb. 27.—Taking the lead at the half-mile mark after having been in close quarters during the early running, Alexander Pantages, of the Allo Carrollo stables, scored an impressive triumph in the Mojave Handicap, a one-mile heat which featured today's program. Eleven went postward in the $1200 event.

Jockey Hurst Philpot brought Alexander Pantages home three lengths ahead of Trieze, owned by Lewis & Kemp, in 1:41 1-5. Triese raced wide in the stretch, but closed gamely and was gaining on the winner. Third place went to the Reichert Brothers' Wizardry, who closed a big gap and finished fast. The La Brea stables' Listo, which was installed as the favorite, wound up fourth after setting the early pace. Panchio and Linerider of the Three D stable, were fifth and eighth, respectively. The track was in a heavy condition. Results:

First race, five and one-half furlongs—Broomoney (Luther) won; Bolodora (Romano) second; Dr. Charlie (May) third. Time, 1:08 3-5.

Second race, seven furlongs—Buss (Wolverton) won; Dr. McAmis (Warren) second; Carrillo (Depeso) third. Time, 1:29 3-5.

Third race, four furlongs—Justiciary (Trivett) won; Flying Ace (Cleverley) second; Miss Cheyenne (May) third. Time, 0:49 1-5.

Fourth race, seven furlongs—Lamkin (Teasdale) won; Thr. Lynn (Trivett) second; Maid O' the Storm (May) third. Time, 1:28 3-5.

Fifth race, one mile—Alex Pantages (Philpot) won; Triese (Cleverley) second; Wizardry (Turk) third. Time, 1:41 1-5.

Sixth race, six furlongs—Allaver (May) won; Deep River (Schutte) second; Short Price (Teasdale) third. Time, 1:14.

Seventh race, one and one-sixteenth miles—Watergap (Keiser) won; Bob Rogers (Allen) second; Lillian (Redding) third. Time, 1:47 2-5.

Lincoln Victor Over Roosevelt

Coach Bud Nash's Roosevelt track and field team dropped a 56-43 decision to the Lincoln High Tigers yesterday afternoon on the Rough Riders' oval. Sentell Willis, crack Roosevelt sprinter, pulled a muscle in his leg and may not be able to compete in the city relay carnival tomorrow at Los Angeles High.

BARGE BOASTS HUGE CATCH OF JEWFISH

HERMOSA BEACH, Feb. 27.—Capt. J. M. Anderson, skipper of the Olympic fishing barge, estimates that nearly 4000 pounds of jewfish have been caught in Southern California this year. Of that number 2000 pounds have been brought in from the Olympic. Six of the huge jewfish or black seabass have been caught on Anderson's pleasure fishing craft so far this season.

BRUIN FROSH OPEN SEASON

The freshman track team of the University of California at Los Angeles will test its strength for the first time this season this afternoon, when it meets the Inglewood High School cinder path performers on the Sentinels' own track. The meet was originally scheduled for the Westwood oval, but was moved to Inglewood at the request of the Sentinel athletic authorities.

NOVEL BOUT ARRANGED

Fighting Gorilla Issues Challenge But Nobody Appears; Will Box in Olympic Ring

As an added attraction to the Fidel La Barba-Santiago Zorilla card a gorilla will fight a man at the Olympic Tuesday night. The event was arranged yesterday—all except getting an opponent for the gorilla. Boxers—usually hungry for matches—are shying away from this one.

The animal weighs 150 pounds and is built on a low chassis with powerful arms and shoulders. The gorilla's name is Sir Charles II, called the champion of the jungles by his handler and owner, Clarence Morehouse.

The novelty bout will be staged around 9 o'clock on the regular program. The gorilla will be brought into the building from the side door on the Eighteenth-street side, heavily chained. He will be taken back to his kennel on the monkey farm immediately after his bout—win, lose or draw.

Morehouse is trying to land a motion-picture contract for Sir Charles II. Special boxing gloves will be made to fit the gorilla's clutching hands.

Matchmaker Wad Wadhams announced the supporting card yesterday. Bobby Pacho, Mexican from El Centro, boxes Red Humphries in the six-round semi-windup. Tony Moreno and Missou Pyle meet in the special event. Moreno holds a knockout decision over Tommy McGough.

La Barba is doing all his training at Soper's ranch. He may not come back to Los Angeles until the day of the fight. Zorilla will be the first real featherweight of class that Fidel has faced in his campaign among the 126-pounders.

Zorilla looked good in his workout at the Main-street gymnasium. He is hitting harder than he used to do, sacrificing some of his speed. When Zorilla first came here from Panama he was faster than chain lightning.

VENICE KEEPS LEAD IN WATER POLO LOOP

The Venice High School water polo team continued to hold their lead at the top of the Bay League by trouncing the Huntington Park swimmers, 10 to 4, in a swimfest held in the winners' pool yesterday. O'Conner of the Gondoliers was high-point man with four goals to his credit.

The Gondolier C team also submerged the Park team, the score being 12 to 2. Morrin scored six goals to lead the high scorers.

STATZ ONLY DOUBLE PUTOUT PERFORMER

Only five Coast League outfielders have been credited with handling 500 put-outs in a single season. Arnold Statz is the only player to perform the stunt two times. The players to draw 500 put-outs in a single season are as follows:

| | Year | G. | P.O. | Av. per Game |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Strand, Salt Lake.. | 1923 | 194 | 582 | 3.00 |
| Statz, Los Angeles. | 1926 | 199 | 577 | 2.90 |

HUSKY SHOT PUTTERS PROMISE COMPETITION

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON (Seattle) Feb. 27—Something in the way of smart competition for Pacific Coast Conference weight tossers who anticipate an easy victory over University of Washington weight men has been promised by the two outstanding Husky candidates, Paul Jessup and Julius Ramstedt in early tryouts.

Bettering any mark he has heretofore made, Ramstedt last Saturday tossed the shot 46ft. 10in. in a tryout period that resolved itself into a duel between him and Jessup. The 6-foot 7-inch former football captain put the shot 48ft. 10in., which brought his average for six puts well over 48ft. Later in the day Jessup sailed the discus 150 feet.

TILDEN AND COEN COP BUTLER TENNIS CUP

MONTE CARLO (Monaco) Feb. 27. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden and his protege, Junior Coen of Kansas City, won the Butler tennis trophy in the doubles competition today, defeating the Italian Davis Cup pair, Baron de Morpurgo and P. Gaslini, 5-7, 8-10, 6-1, 6-3, 6-1.

Tilden in singles defeated Charles H. Kingsley of England in the quarter-finals, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1.

is in readiness for the city high school re- tomorrow at Housh Field, L. A. High. Officials in charge of the meet are having the track dragged today. Tomorrow morning all the field event pits and rings will be gone over so that the 780 prepsters competing in the meet will have no alibis as far as the condition of the field is concerned.

Although Ebers's team has the largest squad entered in the competition, prep fans are not favoring the Hilltopper runners to walk off with the majority of the prizes. Too many stars graduated last June to make Ebers's team a very formidable one this season.

MEDLEY STRONG

The strongest relay team wearing Belmont colors tomorrow will be the Class A distance medley, with Redmond running the quarter, Doyle the 660, Unholz the 880 and Carrol Lewis the mile. Lewis is one of the best distance runners ever developed by John Buehler, Belmont cross-country coach, and is undoubtedly one of the best mile prospects in the Minor City League.

Even with Lewis running the mile, the Hilltoppers hardly figure to beat the fast quartet entered by Hollywood, Manual Arts and Poly. Hollywood will have J. C. Smith running the mile, Bob Priester the 880, Rogan the 660 and Mathew Oswald the quarter.

The Toiler team is also very strong, with George Warriner in the 440, Turner in the 660, Saterfield in the 880 and Jimmy Larrence the mile.

In the Class A four-man 440 competition promises to be very close, with Manual Arts, L. A. High, Hollywood and Fremont having the outstanding quartets. The Romans' team hasn't been picked yet, but will be chosen from Sprague, Gooch, Greenbaum, Bray, Chuck Cheshire and Marvy Crawford.

The Toiler speed burners will be Al "Bones" Houston, Laury Osburn, "Bull" Dunham and George Warriner. Clark, Colliwr, Caminitti and Hahn will wear Fremont colors in the race.

Joe Danniger, Cook, Lewis and Chaney are slated to form Hollywood's quartet.

Although no official scoring is possible in a meet of this kind, the relay committee composed of Sid Foster, John Fox, Fred Johnson, Les Heilman and John Shephard plan to keep an informal count on the affair, using the regular scoring count of 5, 3, 1, ½ for the first four places.

According to this system L. A. High won the meet last year with 23 and a fraction points. Poly was second with Belmont nosing out Manual for third.

The first event starts at 1:30 and the committee hopes to have it all over by 4:30.

Reports from San Diego bring both good news and bad. The good is that Evans Dowers, who won the Southern California mile last year has already galloped the distance in 4m. 34s. this season and with a year's experience behind him is a much improved runner. The bad news has it that Jimmy Willson, the southerners' demon midget sprinter, is laid up with a pulled muscle and won't be able to run for several weeks yet. That was the reason why San Diego didn't compete in the dash events in the Long Beach A.A.U. meet last Saturday.

Other San Diego mainstays haven't turned out for the team yet. Irvine Warburton, quarter-miler who won the State 440 last year, is just finishing basketball season, while Ortiz, the hurdler, is working.

Norman Paul, Santa Ana's star broad jumper and low hurdler, is also on the shelf with a pulled muscle. Paul and Reboin hope to put the Saint colors high up in the Southern California and State meets this year.

SECOND PIRATE CREW NOW ON WAY TO PASO ROBLES

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27. (AP)—The second squad of the Pittsburgh Pirates today was en route to the training camp at Paso Robles, Cal. Scout Bill Hinchman and Outfielder Adam Comorosky left here last night. They will be joined today in St. Louis by Pie Traynor, captain and third baseman. The Waner brothers will report in Kansas City, and half a dozen others will be picked up along the route.

Coliseum May Not be Ready Next Summer

That the Coliseum would contain no more people next football season than it did last year was the information announced yesterday by officials of the Community Development Association, directors of the local bowl.

"Money appropriated for work on the Coliseum is sufficient to cover the cost of remodeling, but not enough for the extra work necessary to add more seats," it was stated. "The present wooden seats will be made over into a permanent concrete structure. Later it is planned to add fifteen rows to the bowl to increase the seating capacity to around 100,000."

This work, it was indicated, would eliminate track meets in the Coliseum next summer, even as the present work is barring them now. "Although we aren't figuring that far ahead," one official said, "it is entirely probable that it will be impossible to stage track meets there."

A TRACK PLOT

THE presence of Mr. Fred Sturdy, the national A.A.U. pole-vault champion, at Stanford tomorrow will be something more than just a mere coincidence. It will be a dirty plot on the part of the club coaches, the Messrs. Dean B. Cromwell and Boyd Comstock, to put the skids under the three-time I.C.A.A.A.A. champions.

Mr. Sturdy is a legitimate performer in the colors of the L.A.A.C. because his parents are residents of this city, and it was from here that Mr. Sturdy matriculated at Yale.

But Mr. Sturdy graduated from Yale last spring, and is now a post-graduate student in the college of law. It was therefore somewhat surprising to learn that Mr. Sturdy was to compete for the L.A.A.C. at Palo Alto when he was supposed to have his face buried in some of Mr. Blackstone's best books at New Haven.

However, it appears that Mr. Sturdy was glad to take a short vacation from heavy studies, and he returned a happy response when club officials wired him transportation West.

And although some of the club boys may not be in the best of shape when they face Stanford—due to lack of competition—this status does not apply in the case of Mr. Sturdy.

The ex-Yale star has performed in four indoor meets this year, and his technique should be letter perfect. The one thing that might bother Mr. Sturdy is a change from the indoor boards to the outdoor cinders.

According to the experts there is a slight disadvantage here, cinder runways appearing dead by comparison with the spring of boards.

But Mr. Sturdy has done well enough inside this year to indicate he will not be troubled greatly outside. In four meets he lost his event only once, and the defeat came forty-eight hours after he won a previous meet at 13ft. 7in. It was his first loss since the Olympic trials at Boston in 1928.

At Denver last summer he set a new national A.A.U. record of 13ft. 9 1-4in. and just missed 14ft. 15-16in. for a new world's mark. Weather conditions were not ideal for the setting of new records that day, and his achievement was all the more remarkable.

Sturdy toured Europe last summer, and won the pole vault in every meet in which he participated.

TINY PUGILISTS

THEY'RE twins, the Bono brothers—Sammy and Solly.

You can't tell one from the other.

They're 12 years old, only stand 4 feet 5 inches, but they can box like all get out.

"I knocked Solly out twice. He knocked me out once," says Sammy. "Naw, we don't remember we're brothers when we get into the ring."

Frank, the boss newsie on The Times corner, brought them up into the sports sanctum.

The twins are two of a family of five brothers. The other three brothers are older.

The father has a fruit stand.

The twins have been boxing ever since they were 5 years old.

They pick up a few stray shekels in the ring.

They aren't truants. Both attend the Seventy-fifth-street school.

Frank, the boss newsie, would like to see them get a chance to show their stuff at some of the larger arenas—the Olympic, Hollywood, East Side, Pasadena.

The twins weigh 87 pounds apiece—about the same as Fidel La Barba when he started in the amateur ranks.

And they both have the same aspirations—to keep on in school and become great fighters.

La Barba is an Italian, and so are the twins. They will both be on hand when he fights Santiago Zorilla at the Olympic next week.

A NORTHERN MOSES

MR. LOU DARO of the "Fastest Growing City" has his chest puffed out farther these days than when he was a strong man in the circus.

Mr. Daro has Everette Marshall and Nick Lutze signed for his main event at the Olympic next week.

That means a sellout.

Both boys are the real popularity kids of the wrestling world, locally speaking at least.

Lutze used to be the whole show.

But since the first of the year Marshall has stolen a large part of his following. It is hard to say who will be the favorite next week.

A second reason for Mr. Daro's importance is the granting of a license to him to run wrestling shows in San Francisco.

The mat racket used to be very popular in the Bay City, but in recent years where Mr. Daro draws his thousands Mr. Schuler of San Francisco has drawn his hundreds.

Apparently, Mr. Daro has consented to be the Moses of the North, running shows there one week and down here the following week.

SEARCH ON FOR MISSING BOXER

the most thrilling battles ever witnessed here.

Townsend, down twice and out on his feet in the sixth, landed a terrific punch to Santiago's stomach just before the ball rang and the Cuban slumped into his chair, dead to the world. Despite feverish work by his seconds the Cuban was still unconscious when the gong sounded for the seventh session. Townsend staggered to the center of the ring to have his glove raised by Referee Harry Lee.

WANT HIM HERE

Churchill stated last night that the Olympic was ready to stage a rematch on March 25 and he was therefore doubling his efforts to get in touch with the Cuban fighter. The fighter's manager said that Santiago's mother lived in New York and that he had notified her to locate the boy if she knew of his whereabouts. The telegram to Santiago's mother was sent in Spanish as she does not speak English. As yet no word has come from her, Churchill stated.

The other telegrams were sent to Churchill's business associate, Tom Walsh, in Chicago and one to Hot Springs where Santiago usually goes in between fights. Churchill pointed out that Santiago had plenty of money with him when he was last seen here. Although Churchill does not believe Santiago has met with foul play he did declare that his sudden fadeout was quite mysterious, as the Cuban had never done anything like it before.

Oakland Bows to Oilers in Hockey Clash

In a fast and furious hockey battle the Los Angeles Richfield Oilers upset the dope last night at the Winter Garden Ice Palace by skating to a 2-to-1 victory over the Oakland Sheiks. The league-leaders were heavy favorites at game time but they were never quite able to catch the local team after the first period. The final session of the game was almost a battle royal with the Oakland team vainly trying to tie the score before time was called.

The Los Angeles Richfield team stole a march on Oakland in the first period by scoring two goals. With a couple of the Oaks in the penalty box Guy Poole sneaked around the back of the net and then passed the puck to Jackie Lawrence for a goal.

The second goal of the game came on a penalty. Dale Wells skated down the ice with the puck and when he was in a scoring position Cook of the Oakland team tossed his stick across the ice to block off the shot. Referee Jacobs ruled that it was a goal by a technical knockout or something of that order.

Oakland tallied in the second period, when Sandercook went down the ice like greased lightning to bounce the puck into the net. Hec Fowler made some beautiful saves around the net just before time was called on the period.

SAGEHEN TRACK STAR ON SHELF

Harvey Bear in Bed With Case of Mumps

Pomona's Chances in Dual Meets Are Hit

Interclass Tilts Carded at Claremont Oval

CLAREMONT, Feb. 27.—It begins to look like Coach Robert E. Strehle and his Pomona College track team are in for a particularly slim season. Strehle got word yesterday that his crack sprinter, Harvey Bear, is home in bed with the mumps and will be out of all intercollegiate competition for some weeks to come.

HARVEY BEAR

Bear was being counted upon for sure first places in the dashes against both Occidental and San Diego. Without his services it is extremely doubtful if the Sagehens can garner enough points to capture either meet.

Coach Strehle will send his Sagehens against each other this Saturday in the annual interclass affair. This meet is being held rather late this year and consequently some good times and performances should be turned in and some of the old records are expected to go by the boards.

Henry Cobb, Sagehen quarter miler, is rapidly rounding into excellent shape and if the day is the least bit conducive to sparkling performances should certainly turn in one. Cobb was bothered last year by a strained leg, and never did get in first-class shape. Aggie Shelton, sophomore one-lap man, has been showing rapid improvement and should place close behind Cobb.

Strehle is anxiously awaiting the close of basketball season in order that he may start work on Clarence Bishop and Walter Shannon, two of his mainstays. Bishop is always good for eight or ten points in any meet as he is the best high-jumper in the conference and ranks with the best of the javelin throwers. Shannon confines his activities to the broad jump and rounds Pomona's trio of first-class broadjumpers. The other two are Capt. Bob King and Curtis Inman. All of these men are capable of doing twenty-two feet.

CUB REGULARS ARRIVE TODAY

Los Angeles ball club is willing to offer him, is still gracing the Angel hold-out list.

Skiff reiterated his hold-out stand yesterday with a wire to the Seraphs that stated briefly but to the point "I can't report at the salary offered me."

Mr. Skiff's telegram was in answer to a wire dispatched by Angel officials in which they stated that the terms offered him were the best he could expect.

So now the situation stands with the Angels waiting for Skiff to make the next move. President Joe Patrick says that Skiff can either accept the terms offered him and report or expect to be suspended from baseball.

George Harper, the slugging flychaser, obtained from the Boston Braves in the Walter Berger deal, still holds the distinction of being the other Angel holdout. However, Angel officials believe that they are near a settlement with the hard-hitting flychaser and expect Harper's signed contract to come drifting in with the mail before long.

The Angels' pitchers and catchers went through their customary two-hour workout yesterday at Wrigley Field with nothing of importance taking place. Mr. Harry (Truck) Hannah showed that he is rapidly getting in shape by not being knocked down in the medicine ball tossing activities. Truck was forced to take a nine-count as a result of a collision with the medicine ball in Wednesday's workout, but he wasn't even staggered yesterday.

ERNIE HOOD DEFEATS ROUTIS AT PASADENA

Ernie Hood won an eight-round decision over Jose Routis last night at the Pasadena Arena in a slam-bang bout. Stuts Houk won a six-rounder from George Mullen. Kid Carbenali copped the verdict from Herman Palcentia when the latter was disqualified on a foul in the sixth round. Billy Wagoner scored a technical kayo over Phil Marks in the third. Jimmy Bruitt won over Benny Rodriquez in a four-rounder.

Morrie Cohan announced he had signed Speedy Dado, Filipino flash, and Young Sport for next Thursday.

SHELL OILERS WIN OVERTIME CONTEST

The Shell Oil ice hockey team defeated the Van Fleet Durkee team in an overtime game last night by a 2-to-1 count. Val Richards won the game with a beautiful shot after two minutes and fifteen seconds of play in the final period. Both teams scored in the second period, but neither could register in the third, despite desperate battling.

LAMONT ON WAY TO SEATTLE

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. (AP)—Daniel Lamont, who will act as line coach under Jimmy Phelan at the University of Washington, and Ed Collins, former Notre Dame star, recently selected to tutor the ends at Washington, will leave tonight for Seattle to assist in spring training.

MISS HILLEARY IN FINALS

PALM BEACH (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP) Miss Virginia Hilleary, Philadelphia, fourteenth in national ranking, meets the veteran, Mrs. B. F. Stenz, New York, in the finals of singles play for the Florida women's tennis title here tomorrow.

TROJANS IN INTERCLASS MEET

Sophomores, Headed by Wykoff and Welsh, Favored to Win Honors at Bovard Field Today; Keen Competition Expected as S. C. Track Stars Vie for Points

Southern California's track team, with an extremely lean season in prospect, as far as active competition is concerned, will get some major competition on Bovard Field this afternoon when Coach Dean Cromwell stages the annual interclass battle.

FRANK WYKOFF

The meet promises to be every bit as exciting as a dual meet could be, for all of the athletes, eligible and otherwise, are scheduled to perform, and stern competition looms in almost every event.

For instance, in the sprints Wykoff, Guyer, Maurer, Draper and Anderson of the varsity, will meet Dow, Casey, Ball and Gray of the Frosh, as well as Howard Said, the transfer from the University of Kansas.

Burke, Pearson, Williams, Woessner and Dubbell will meet in the quarter, while practically every distance man in the school will perform in one of the three longer races.

Jeddy Welsh, Bill Stokes, Clarence Berry, Al Vignolo and Moffatt will tangle in the high hurdles, while Bill Carls, Welsh, Ernie Payne, Stokes and Berry will get together in the lows.

Barber and Paul of the varsity, and Johnston of the frosh meet in the broad jump. Jim Stewert and Bob Hall will hook up in the weights. There are any number of good athletes working out at Bovard Field, and every event promises to be closely fought.

The sophomores, headed by such talented performers as Wykoff, Anderson, Woessner, Bill McGeagh, Welsh, Stokes and Barber, seem destined to carry off honors, although the juniors will be a serious threat. They are Guyer, Maurer, Burke, Pearson, Williams, Unruh, Fitzmaurice, Payne and the like. The frosh probably will take third honors, with the seniors last, as usual.

Tigers Prepared for Trackfest

OCCIDENTAL IN FOUR-WAY MEET

Redlands, Santa Barbara, La Verne Clash

Southern Conference Event Favors Bengals

Moore May Push Tiger Aces in Quarter-Mile

Occidental College track men held their last workout yesterday under the critical eye of Coach Joe Pipal and are ready to meet Redlands, Santa Barbara State and La Verne tomorrow afternoon in the first conference trackfest of the year. Redlands sent in an entry list of twenty men yesterday and Santa Barbara is bringing fifteen more south for the four-cornered competition. La Verne plans to send only eight or ten representatives.

The race of the day should center in the quarter-mile, when Moore, Redlands star, toes the mark against Capt. Freddie Appleton of the Tigers and two more team-mates, Dick Fairbanks and Johnny Walker. All four are capable of 50s. flat and Appleton bettered that time last year. Moore has an excellent chance to defeat the diminutive Oxy captain, although Appleton is a slight favorite to break the tape.

Another close race is promised in the 100-yard dash. Cecil Howard, Bengal sprinting ace, is in top form and, with a warm day and against the fast Staters, ought to turn in 10s. flat or better. Capt. Appleton will also enter this heat. The furlong should go to Howard in fast time.

Redlands is reported to be bringing along a dark horse miler who they expect to give Rud Crawford close competition. The only other record in danger will be the pole vault, with Ernie Jensen shooting at it.

Hollywood and Belmont Split

While the Hollywood Class B track team was humbling the Belmont lightweight runners, by a score of 54 1-10 to 40 9-10, the Belmont Class C tracksters were beating the Red Shirt Cees, 50 5-6 to 26 1-6 yesterday afternoon on the Hollywood track.

Truss of Hollywood won the 100 and 220 in the Bee meet to take high-point honors, while Furamura of Belmont took first honors in the Cee affair with wins in the 50, 100 and broad jump.

Summary:

CLASS B

100-yard dash — Won by Truss (H.); Campbell (H.) second, Seroe (H.) third. Time, 10 3-5s.

220-yard dash — Won by Truss (H.); Templeton (H.) second, Detriech (B.) third. Time, 23 2-5s.

660-yard run—Won by Kerring (H.); Kester (H.) second, Kerr (B.) third. Time, 1m. 31 5-10s.

1320-yard run — Won by Black (B.); Lakey (H.) second, Kay (B.) third. Time, 3m. 35 1-5s.

70-yard high hurdles—Won by Boe (B.); Brown (B.) second, Howell (B.) third. Time, 10 9-10s.

120-yard low hurdles—Tie for first between Howell (B.) and Caresto (H.); Browning (H.) third. Time, 14 2-5s.

Relay—Won by Hollywood. Time, 1m. 42s.

Broad jump — Won by Kawa (B.); Humphrey (H.) second, Harris (H.) third. Distance, 18ft.

High jump—Won by Warnas (B.); Compton (H.) second, tie for third between Childreth (B.) and Coen (H.). Height, 5ft. 7½in.

Pole vault—Tie for first between Ello (B.), Seule (B.), Stich (B.), Ginn (H.) and Humphrey (H.). Height, 10ft. 3in.

Shot put—Won by Kimball (H.); Warnas (B.) second, tie for third between Brown (B.) and Myziki (B.). Distance, 40ft. 3in.

CLASS C

50-yard dash—Won by Furamura (B.); Narrecki (H.) second, Carsaran (H.) third. Time, 6 1-10s.

100-yard dash—Won by Furamura (B.); Zersi (H.) second, Tusa (B.) third. Time, 11 2-10s.

660-yard run — Won by Kugle (B.); Keurin (H.) second, Montasa (B.) third. Time, 1m. 37 1-5s.

120-yard low hurdles—Won by Funurill (H.); Anderson (H.) second, tie for third between Mazini and Minini (B.) Time, 16 2-10s.

Relay—Won by Hollywood. No time.

Broad jump—Won by Furamura (B.); Wilson (H.) second, Anderson (H.) third. Distance, 16ft. 11in.

High jump—Won by Veracke (B.); Wilson (H.) second, tie for third between Featherstone (H.), Summerill (H.) and Stevens (B.). Height, 4ft. 11in.

Shot put—Won by Schatan (B.); Grey (B.) second, Mandoff (H.) third. Distance, 37ft. 8in.

Pole vault—Tie for first between Stewart (B.) and Valentine (B.); tie for third between Cooper (B.) and Morgan (B.) Height, 8ft. 6in.

Final scores—Class B: Hollywood, 54 1-10; Belmont, 40 9-10. Class C—Belmont, 50 5-6; Hollywood, 26 1-6.

Bruin Trackmen Meet Jaysees

The U.C.L.A. track team will compete in its second dual track meet of the current season tomorrow afternoon when it takes on the Compton Junior College squad on the Westwood oval starting at 1 p.m. The meet will be the last practice affair for the Bruins, who have a serious meet a week from tomorrow with the Pomona Sagehens.

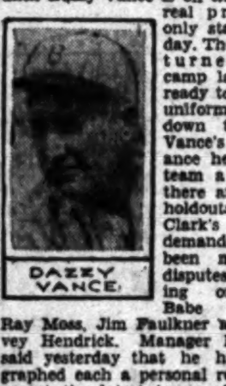
Although the junior collegians are reported to be exceptionally strong and may cause some trouble, the Bruin squad is favored to win handily, probably by a margin somewhere between 30 and 40 points. The Westwood squad defeated the Los Angeles Junior College tracksters last Tuesday afternoon by a score of 83½ to 47½, but Coach Harry Trotter had his men performing under wraps and several stellar performers were out of the meet. Many Bruin athletes also competed in but one event, instead of their usual two or three.

The margin between the two teams tomorrow would be even larger if Bob Cameron's foot was in condition to run, but Billy Burke, Bruin trainer, states that the stellar runner will not be able to compete in a meet for another week. Cameron, who was ineligible the past two seasons, succeeded in becoming eligible for this track season, but he was shot in the foot by a pistol during an altercation in Tia Juana recently. Cameron has run the half-mile in under 2m. flat, and the quarter-mile in under 50s. flat.

The best event of the day will probably be the mile run, where Ray Smith, the Bruin distance star, and Minch of Compton will battle it out. On paper, the two runners are very evenly matched, so the race should be very spectacular.

TRAINING CAMP GOSSIP

CLEARWATER (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP) Brooklyn's Robins aren't the Robins until Dazzy Vance is on the job, so real practice only started today. The Dazzler turned up in camp last night ready to don his uniform and get down to work. Vance's appearance helped the team a lot, but there are a few holdouts. Bill Clark's salary demands have been met, but disputes are going on with Babe Herman, Ray Moss, Jim Faulkner and Harvey Hendrick. Manager Robinson said yesterday that he had telegraphed each a personal request to accept the latest terms offered by the Brooklyn management.



DAZZY VANCE.

PHILLIES IN ATTEMPT TO PACIFY HOLDOUTS

WINTER HAVEN (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—Salary differences with some of the stars of the Philadelphia Nationals will soon be settled, Manager Burt Shotton said today.

Shotton arrived at the training camp here yesterday with a small band of players, mostly rookies. Some of the regulars were expected today in time for the initial workout.

Manager Shotton said that new contracts had been forwarded to Chuck Klein and Frank O'Doul, slugging outfielders, and Pinky Whitney, hard-hitting third-baseman.

ROOKIE SOUTHPAW IS LANDED BY MACK

FORT MYERS (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP) Only two days out of the preseason cruise, Connie Mack, chief skipper of the champion Athletics, has expressed himself as "very much interested" in the baseball manners of one of his rookie pitchers, Alfred Mahon.

Mahon, the only left-hander among this year's recruits, hails from Pilger, Neb., where he played with a semipro team. He is a slender six-footer.

"Why, he's listed as a semipro," said Mack, "and he's out there pitching like Herb Pennock. I'm going to watch that fellow mighty closely."

YANK PLAYERS CATCH BALLS FROM BLIMP

ST. PETERSBURGH (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—The New York Yankees evidently are trying to outdo one another in training camp stunts. The catchers failed in their attempts to snare balls tossed from an airplane so yesterday some of the other players called in a blimp for the stunt and caught a few balls thrown from heights up to 380 feet.

The appearance of Robert Walsh, the second pitching son of big Ed Walsh of Chicago White Sox fame, aroused most of the interest in the regular workout. Bob took a ten-minute turn on the mound and showed about as much "stuff" as any of the hurlers at this early stage.

RICK FERRELL BROWN'S FIRST-STRING CATCHER

WEST PALM BEACH (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—Rick Ferrell, rookie catcher last season, was told he is No. 1 backstop with the St. Louis Browns this year by Manager "Billy the Red" Killefer as he stepped to the plate to dust the cobwebs from his batting eye on the second day of the spring training jaunt.

"I told you last spring you were the best young catcher I'd seen come up in years," Killefer told the lithe lad. "That still goes."

Fifteen players were in uniform. But eight are absent, but that was explained by the fact transportation had not reached some of the group.

GIANTS GET DAY OFF WHEN IT RAINS

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Feb. 27. (AP)—It was an off day for the New York Giants in their spring training activities today. For the first time since the McGraw men arrived here rain forced cancellation of the day's scheduled workouts.

SEAL ROOKIES ENGAGE IN FIRST GAME

MONTEREY (Cal.) Feb. 27. (AP)—The San Francisco Seals got their first real workout today since their arrival Monday when two teams of recruits played a seven-inning game.

Manager Nick Williams used every one of the thirty-odd rookies. Art Garry, recruit second baseman, and Adolph Penobskey, who caught part of last season, hit the first home runs of the training season. Both clouted offerings of Harry Harding, youngster from Burbank, over the left-field fence. Sam Sudano, outfield prospect from Burbank, caught Williams's eye by hitting two for two.

HIGH SCHOOL TWIRLER IMPRESSES BRAVE BOSS

ST. PETERSBURG (Fla.) Feb. 26. (AP)—There's a high school youngster from Hingham, Mass., with the Braves whose control and confidence have already greatly impressed Manager Bill McKechnie. Bob Brown pitched for his home-town high school last spring and then moved to Westville, N. S., for the summer. He won nineteen out of twenty games, several of them one-hit affairs.

McKechnie thinks the boy has more chance of sticking with the Braves than many a rookie up from the minor leagues with a record.

RED SOX PREXY TO GIVE SHIELDS CHANCE

PENSACOLA (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—President Bob Quinn of the Boston Red Sox has decided that spending $150 or so on a likely-looking pitching prospect may be a good investment. As a result, Ben Shields, a six-footer who weighs 208, and who did some portside hurling for the Yankees in 1926 and 1927 before being released for illness, was in camp today. "I can at least pay his expenses both ways from his home in Richmond, Va., for a try-out," Quinn said. The Sox now have twenty-two pitchers at camp here. Coach Jack McAllister calls Shields the best investment he has seen for a long time.

DETROIT BATTERYMEN ROUND INTO SHAPE

TAMPA (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—Batterymen of the Detroit Tigers show every sign of being ready to step into fast action next Monday, when the rest of Manager Bucky Harris's 1930 aggregation will arrive at the spring training camp here.

The first-week workouts to date have shown that the hurlers are in excellent condition, not a single sign of hidden weakness having crept into view as they yesterday eased into practice a bit more strenuous than that of the first two days. George Uhle, who is having his arm treated in Los Angeles, is expected to show up within a few days.

SHARKEY STOPS SCOTT

petitive prospects for the main bout and its outcome appeared to justify original speculation. Scott gave an excellent exhibition of boxing and defensive work in the first two rounds, especially in the first, as Sharkey appeared overanxious and missed awkwardly in his attempts to put over a finishing blow. In the second round, Scott's first visit to the floor, in his own corner, was due as much to a wild rush and shove by Sharkey as by the clip he took on the side of the head.

Sharkey's punching mastery, however, was manifest from the outset and the finish came early, as had been expected, although not in the anticipated manner.

MAGNOLIA HALTS

Referee Lou Magnolia, as events piled up on him thick and fast in the confusing third round, exhibited little hesitation in his handling of the situation. Following his decision, he issued an official statement saying that at no time during the contest had he seen a foul blow struck, although he warned Sharkey once early in the third round for a questionable blow. This, Magnolia said, was a punch to the stomach, causing Scott's trunks to drop a trifle.

On the second low punch, resulting in Scott's claim of foul, Magnolia said neither he nor the examining doctor discovered any ill effects. Magnolia declared he then gave Scott the alternative of continuing the fight, after a minute's rest, or of losing the decision. Finally, said Magnolia, the blow which ended the fight, with Scott refusing to continue, was squarely in the stomach.

Magnolia amplified this later by saying he gave Scott the minute's rest to remove any chance for a "squawk" or question as to the Briton's condition.

Conflicting stories came from the dressing room to add to the general chaos. Scott, examined in his dressing room, was found to have a large bump and bruise at the top of his right thigh. The Briton, supported by his manager, asserted his leg was semiparalyzed by the effect of the blow on a sciatic nerve. He limped in apparent pain. This injury was close to the spot where Scott was hit by Otto Von Porat in the bout at Madison Square Garden, which the Briton won on a foul. Jimmy Johnston visited the press rows after the fight to protest bitterly Magnolia's decision, shouting his claim of a foul while spectators crowded around to join in the general melee and argument.

The five international bouts of the program ended in victory for the American entries in three events. Raul Bianchi, strapping young Argentine, scored the only foreign triumph in the opening bout, when he knocked out Bill Darling in two minutes and twenty-five seconds of the first round. Jimmy Maloney, veteran Bostonian, gained the decision over Moise Bouquillon of France and Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia easily outpointed Pierre Charlec of Belgium, in addition to the victory for Sharkey and a draw for Risko in the semifinal with Campolo.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS

ROUND ONE

Scott, with the British flag sewed on the side of his trunks, took some time to adjust his gloves and go out for instructions. Sharkey wore the Navy emblem. Sharkey opened with a rush, but failed to connect. Scott clinched as the American rushed again. They sparred and exchanged rights to the body. Scott adopted a half-crouch and ducked away from Sharkey's wild rush. The Briton chopped a right to the side of the head and clinched. Sharkey smashed a left to the ribs, but was tied up as he came to close quarters. Phil picked a right-hand out of the air and boxed coolly. Sharkey was short with both hands and they clinched again. Scott showed no disposition to mix at close quarters, but fired a long right to the ear at the bell.

ROUND TWO

Sharkey bobbed, charging a right to the head as they clinched. Scott went down in a corner as they fought at close range, but got up at the count of six. It was a left to the head. It was the force of Jack's rush that put Phil down. Sharkey missed with his left, but punished the Briton as they came to a clinch. Blood trickled from Phil's right nostril. They exchanged lefts to the body, but Scott showed agility in tying up the American at close range. Sharkey dug a stiff left to the stomach, but missed an overhand right by a half foot. They clinched just before the bell.

ROUND THREE

They walked slowly from their corners and sparred. Sharkey missed a right and was almost wrestled off his feet. Phil adopted purely defensive tactics, but cuffed Sharkey lightly around the head as he rushed in. The American landed a long left to the jaw, but was stopped by a left hook. Scott stung Sharkey with a hard right to the jaw and the American rushed his opponent across the ring. Scott went down for a count of three from a hook to the head, as he stumbled off the ropes. Sharkey was warned for hitting low and Scott went down after a left to the body, taking a count of six. Another left to the side sent Scott down and the Briton claimed a foul. Referee Magnolia withheld his decision after helping Scott to his corner for an examination. Scott's manager climbed into the ring and the crowd was in an uproar as the fight was halted. The Briton manifested agony, but finally decided to resume fighting. The crowd roared as Phil came out to meet Sharkey's wild rushes. They mixed furiously and Scott appeared in agony. Scott appeared unable to continue fighting and Referee Magnolia stepped in to stop further boxing. He then lifted Sharkey's hand in token of victory.

SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

CARGO LOADING FOR ANTIPODES

New Oceanic-Oriental Line's Service to Start

Golden Gate Taking on 4000 Tons Local Freight

Harbor New Transshipment Terminal for Area

BY WALDO DRAKE

Oceanic & Oriental Line's new transshipment service to the Antipodes and regular monthly sailings to all four of its New Zealand ports of call will both be inaugurated tomorrow with the departure of the steamer Golden Coast, carrying more than 4000 tons of Los Angeles products. These new adjuncts to O. & O.'s Australasian service promise to materially stimulate trade between California and the Antipodes, according to J. B. Banning, Jr., district manager of the Matson Navigation Company, operating agent for the Oceanic & Oriental Line.

Los Angeles Harbor thus becomes the transshipment terminal for cargo originating at North Atlantic ports and destined for Australasia, as well as freight bound from the Antipodes to the North Atlantic. The traffic increase thus engendered, it is said, necessitates monthly calls by Oceanic & Oriental liners at all four New Zealand ports, Middleton, Auckland, Dunedin and Wellington, instead of only bimonthly calls at Middleton and Dunedin.

The Golden Coast's entire cargo this voyage is being loaded at Los Angeles Harbor, with the exception of a lumber shipment loaded in the Northwest. Her refrigerated holds are being loaded to capacity with citrus fruits, while other shipments aboard include case oil, automobiles, building materials and machinery. Mr. Banning said ships of the line's Antipodes fleet are booked to capacity of their refrigerated space with citrus fruits for the next three months. Oceanic & Oriental Line maintains a fleet of eight steamers on the run, four each to Australia and New Zealand.

NEW RECORD SET FOR SARDINE CATCH

A new local record for a day's catch of sardines was established early in the week, according to tabulations revealing 2700 tons of the little silver sides were brought to local canneries. Van Camp Sea Food Company alone packed 855,680 cans of fish that day, enough for one meal for every inhabitant of Los Angeles. More than 1,100,000 cases of forty-eight pound oval cans to the case have been packed at Los Angeles-Long Beach harbors this season, which is nearing a close, while Monterey closed its season the 15th inst. with a pack of 2,010,000 cases.

The new Swedish tank motorship Balaklava, here on her maiden voyage, sailed with a load of Shell gasoline for Buenos Aires last night for the account of Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company. She belongs to the Transatlantic Steamship Company of Gothenberg, and is equipped with radio direction finders, an "Iron Mike" and all new aids to navigation.

Admiral liner Dorothy Alexander will return tomorrow night after a fortnight's cruise down the west coast of Mexico, carrying approximately 200 excursionists, and an additional party of fifty embarking at Mazatlan. It is the second such cruise recently, of which there are to be more late in the spring before the ship takes the Seattle-Alaska run for the summer.

The liner President Van Buren is due Sunday from New York with seventy passengers, on her twentieth voyage around the world in the service of the Dollar Steamship Company. Among the passengers are Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Eastlake of Los Angeles, and Misses Anna and Sarah Ritter of Long Beach.

George A. Armes, San Francisco shipbuilder, will arrive at the local port early next week to assume active charge of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation, according to an interview with San Francisco newspaper men yesterday.

Mr. Armes, as president of the General Engineering and Dry Dock Company of San Francisco, is expected to be awarded construction contracts for all four of the 14,000-ton $3,500,000 express liners which the Panama Mail Line promises to build if awarded a mail contract.

American-Hawaiian terminals yesterday were discharging 2200 tons of North Atlantic cargo from the motorship Missourian and loading 2400 tons of California products aboard the steamer Panaman for New York and Boston.

The Missourian's local cargo included coffee, canned goods and general package freight, while the Panama is loading a big shipment of Arizona wool and consignments of cauliflower, canned goods, cotton and beans.

The Norwegian whaler N. T. Nielsen Alonso radioed local stations yesterday that she is sailing from the Antarctic base on Ross Sea for Norway direct on March 6, next, while her sister whalers, the C. A. Larsen and Sir James Clark Ross, will proceed to Los Angeles Harbor after first calling at Wellington, New Zealand. The three vessels, together with the whaler Kosmos, are all leaving the whaling area today, said the message.

WILD CAT CAPTURED IN TOWN

Crowd Looks on as Police Fight Beast

Mary Jane O'Neill and Vicious Feline

DEPUTY sheriffs make a wild cat more wild, it was revealed yesterday when after more than an hour's battle with one in the yard of a residence at Huntington Park they captured it alive.

Coming out of her house about 10 a.m. yesterday, Mrs. John P. O'Neill, 2510 Cole Place, saw the huge cat attempting to force an entrance to her chicken pen. She hurriedly called the Florence-avenue Sheriff's substation and Capt. Gregg, with Deputies Palmer and Reiss unlimbered their six-shooters and raced to the O'Neill home.

The officers cornered the animal between the garage and a fence and while a crowd of citizens looked on brought out their regulation dog-capturing contrivance, consisting of a looped rope through a length of gas pipe. With much maneuvering they eventually succeeded in looping the rope about the neck of the cat and with the rope drawn taut it was held at a distance until it could be loaded into a machine and transported to the Lynwood pound.

The officers are at a loss to explain the presence of the wild cat in the district.

GOVERNOR RETURNS TO SOUTHLAND

Guarding of Executive Mansion After Mooney Meeting Surprises Him

Gov. Young expressed surprise yesterday on being informed that ten armed guards had patroled the grounds of the executive mansion after a mass meeting of Tom Mooney sympathizers had been held in the capital city.

The executive said that a guard has been maintained at the Governor's home since the time of Gov. Stephens, but he said he knew of no steps having been taken recently to increase the guard. Possibly, he said, one of the guards "lost his head."

"But if Mrs. Young learned of any such action," the Governor commented, "I am sure she would have canceled it immediately."

The Governor arrived in Los Angeles yesterday morning to attend to State affairs and deliver a number of addresses. He spoke at a luncheon of the United Service Clubs in Beverly Hills at noon. Numerous conferences claimed his time in the afternoon. Last night he and Eugene Biscailuz, superintendent of the State Highway Patrol, were honor guests at a meeting of American Lodge No. 385, I. O. O. F. in the Odd Fellows' Temple, Washington and Oak streets.

This morning he will journey to Santa Ana and return for an address in the afternoon before the Republican Study Club in Barker Brothers' auditorium. After a meeting in Trinity Methodist Church he will entrain for the Imperial Valley to attend the valley's midwinter fair. He will return to Sacramento Sunday evening.

Time Set for Marriage of Miss Mayer

Miss Edith Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Mayer, and William Goetz, picture executive, will be married on March 19, according to announcement made yesterday. The marriage will be solemnized at 7:30 p.m. at the Biltmore by Rabbi Magnin.

Folowing the ceremony there will be a banquet and reception in honor of the couple by the parents of the bride. Mayer is vice-president of production of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

It was announced that Miss Mayer's sister Irene will attend her. Benjamin Goetz, a brother of the bridegroom-to-be, will be best man. The bridesmaids will be Marion Davies, Corinne Griffith, Mae McAvoy, Bessie Love, Carmel Myers and Catherine Bennett. Ushers will be Walter Morosco, William Seiter, E. J. Mannix, Ned Marin, David Selznick and Lew Schriber.

The guests will include prominent screen players and executives as well as persons identified with the civic and social life of Los Angeles.

LAST RITES FOR LARSON ARRANGED

Body of Hospital Founder Will Lie in State Saturday Morning for Two Hours

Arrangements to have the body of Adolph Larson, Sr., founder of California Hospital and prominent in work of the Lutheran church and in civic and benevolent effort, and who died Wednesday, lie in state in the chapel of the hospital, was announced yesterday by G. W. Olson, friend of the deceased. An honor guard from the school of nursing will surround the bier during the time it is in the chapel from 9 until 11 o'clock, Saturday morning. The funeral will be Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Ruppe mortuary, 950 West Washington street.

Mr. Larson passed away following a three days' illness of bronchial pneumonia. He was 73 years of age. He came here nineteen years ago from Chicago and served several terms in City Council. At the time of his death he was president emeritus of the Lutheran Hospital Society; trustee of the California Babies' Hospital; trustee for the Solheim Lutheran Old Folks' Home; treasurer of the Los Angeles Church Federation; member of the Los Angeles City Health Commission; president of the Excelsior Publishing Company and vice-president of the Van Camp Sea Food Company.

The City Council, yesterday adjourned its session in respect to the memory of Mr. Larson. A resolution of sympathy and regret was passed.

The list of pallbearers, active and honorary, selected from associates of Mr. Larson in the many activities in which he was a leader, includes the following:

Gem Robbers Get $20,000

A report was made to the police at 10 o'clock last night that three masked men entered the home of Miss Edith Clifford, 1737 North Whitley avenue, and robbed Miss Clifford and a guest, Mrs. Henry Setron, of jewelry valued at $20,000.

The women were alone in the house when the men entered. After stripping them of the jewels the men warned them not to notify the police. They are believed to have had a confederate in a car near the house.

INJURED CHILD AWARDED $15,126

Truck Driver Accepts Default Judgment by Failure to Appear in Court

Judgment for $15,126 was obtained in Superior Judge McComb's court yesterday by Jack Elliston Williams, 2-year-old son of Mrs. Laura W. Williams, when K. Genke, driver of the truck that struck the child, accepted a default judgment by his failure to appear.

The accident occurred at Atlantic avenue and Telegraph Road April 25, 1929. According to witnesses, the child's face was permanently scarred.

Bakman to Face Accusation in Whitson Shooting

Complaint Plans Announced After Inquest Verdict

Companion of Slain Man Gives Tragedy Story

A complaint charging murder will be filed against Daniel Bakman, it was announced yesterday, after a Coroner's jury found him responsible for the shooting of Guy Whitson on Dark Canyon Road last Tuesday afternoon.

HAROLD STUCKEY

Bakman himself refused to testify when called to the witness stand by Deputy Coroner Kane. Only two witnesses where heard and their testimony was confined to mere recital of the few facts surrounding the slaying of Whitson.

Harold Stuckey, an employee of the City Water Department, told the jury that he and Whitson were riding home from work on Dark Canyon Road about 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon when a machine crowded them to the side of the road and stopped as it pulled in ahead of them. Bakman got out and came over to their car.

"Get out of the car, Guy, I want to talk to you," said Bakman, according to Stuckey's testimony.

SHOOTING DESCRIBED

Stuckey could not recall that Whitson made any reply or that Bakman said anything further. He could only recall that the latter returned to his car, procured a shotgun, came back to the Stuckey car, leveled the gun and fired a shot through Whitson's body. Bakman then went back to his own car, got in and drove off.

Stuckey could not say who was with Bakman, although police reported at the time that Mrs. Bakman was with her husband, having been forced to accompany him. Stuckey said he drove on down the hill with the wounded man in his car and called an ambulance. Whitson was dead when the ambulance arrived.

WIFE FAILS TO APPEAR

Mrs. Bakman was called to give testimony, but she was not present at the inquest. Lemmie Byers, an uncle of the deceased, told the jury that Whitson had told him six or eight months ago of threats by Bakman, but that Whitson "only thought he was bluffing." Whitson and Bakman had worked a ranch together in Merced county and they quarrelled over the crop and over an automobile. He said Bakman had accused Whitson of stealing the automobile. They also quarreled about Bakman's wife, the witness said Whitson had told him.

On advice of his counsel, Llewellyn J. Moses, Bakman declined to testify further than to say he is a contractor, operating in Los Banos.

COMPLAINT PLANNED

Dep. Dist.-Atty. McKay, who was at the inquest, announced that he will order a murder complaint against Bakman prepared and filed today. Bakman is being held at the Hollywood Police Station.

The Coroner's verdict stated that Whitson had come to his death from a gunshot wound in the chest from a gun in the hands of Bakman, fired with homicidal intent.

Mrs. Bakman, who has been living with her sister, Gladys Herrenberger, 11035 Morrison avenue, North Hollywood, obtained an order for separate maintenance from her husband last year. She was at first given custody of the two children, but they were later placed in his custody.

Death Puts End to Lawing Over Goat's Fatality

The executor of an attorney's estate is not required to take care of court cases which he may have had pending at the time of his death, Mrs. Fannie Rubenstein, 1062 Townsend avenue, discovered yesterday in small claims court, where Municipal Judge Galbreth rendered a verdict in favor of Attorney Edward R. Brand, whom Mrs. Rubenstein had sued for $50 damages.

Last year, testimony showed, Mrs. Rubenstein's dog bit a nanny goat belonging to A. Crane. The goat died and Crane got a $35 judgment against Mrs. Rubenstein in Belvedere small claims court. Through her attorney, J. M. Fursee, Mrs. Rubenstein appealed. Fursee died and the appeal was lost by default, so Mrs. Rubenstein attempted to recover from his executor, Brand.

Suspect Taken for Annoying Mrs. McPherson

Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, caused the arrest last night of a man who told police he is Tad Jones, 37 years of age, of 5917 Gregory street, following her charges that he dropped into the evangelist's mail box obscene notes.

Jones was taken in custody on a charge of disturbing the peace. Mrs. McPherson asserted that Jones peeped through her bedroom window and otherwise conducted himself in an annoying manner near her home adjacent to Angelus Temple.

IMPROVEMENT ABANDONED

The City Council yesterday abandoned the proceedings for the improvement of Kilkea Drive between Beverly Boulevard and Third street. The hearing of protests against the improvement of Montana street from Bundy Drive to Stanford street and the improvement of Alta Vista Boulevard between Melrose and Oakwood avenues were continued until March 27.

CROWD WEARS SUMMER CLOTHING AT BATTLE

BY BRIAN BELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

RINGSIDE, MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 27. (AP)—With a majority of the early arrivals in shirtsleeves, while their women companions wore summer dresses, the second annual fistic battle of the Palms was ushered in on a hot, starlit night.

GENE TUNNEY.

Ten thousand spectators made arrangements to see the whole show, slipping into their seats in the huge octagon-shaped stadium before 8 o'clock.

Joe Humphreys, the one-man amplifying system of the Garden, reported himself in the pink of condition for his official debut in Florida.

The veteran announcer had never seen a fight in the Alligator State, but he said before the first bout that he was confident his "pipes" would be equal to the emergency.

Baseball was one of the first sports to gain representation at the ringside. Dan Howley, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, and Lena Blackburne, former White Sox manager, now a St. Louis Brown coach, were early arrivals.

Babe Ruth scorned the flannels favored by many fellows and appeared in a dinner coat. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ruth, and his arrival was the signal for a concentrated dash by photographers. Bronzed to a shade beyond brick red, the Bambino seemed in great physical shape. "It should be a wonderful show" was his first forecast.

John Ringling, an authority in his own right on great outdoor spectacles arrived at the ringside when there were less than 20,000 people in the stadium. The crowd was not big enough to cause the circus king to become excited.

Billy Evans, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, had the best seat of the baseball men. He was doubling in brass by appearing as a newspaper reporter and was in the second row of the press section.

Palm Beach, just two hours away, was well represented. Among the many from there were E. F. Hutton, James H. R. Cromwell, Ira Richards, Grover Whalen, Florenz Ziegfeld and others.

Walter Camp, son of the father of football and himself a Yale player, and Mrs. Camp, the former Ruth Elder, were interested onlookers.

Towering water oaks outside the arena furnished seats of vantage for scores of small boys who were a long way from the ring but had nothing in their line of vision.

Gene Tunney arrived just as the first of the preliminary boxers climbed into the ring. The former champion was accompanied by Mrs. Tunney and a group of friends including his host, Bernard Gimbel. Tunney wore dinner clothes and a wide-brimmed Panama hat. He went somewhat cautiously to his front-row seat, remembering his recent operation.

Gar Wood, the motorboat racing driver, was roaming about as if he had some difficulty in finding his seat.

D'Arcys' Parting Paths Cleared of Obstacles

Suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Laura Rhinock Guisti against her husband, Roy Guisti, known in the films as Roy D'Arcy, will not be contested, nor will the wife ask for alimony, it was announced yesterday following a conference of attorneys.

Mrs. Guisti filed her complaint for freedom from marriage bonds on the grounds that D'Arcy is "supremely egotistical" and once threatened to "shoot up the place and then commit suicide." In her original suit she asked for $100 a week alimony, but this portion of the complaint has been settled without court action, according to the attorneys for the pair.

D'Arcy is represented by Attorney Milton Golden, and service was accepted yesterday during the conference over settlement of alimony terms. Golden also announced that his client, who now is in New York, will not return here to contest the divorce action.

The present suit is the second of the couple. The wife obtained a divorce some years ago, but a month after the decree became final they were married again in Mexico.

Jacoby Plans Trip to Europe

Walter Jacoby of Jacoby Brothers will leave tomorrow for an extended stay in various countries of Europe to purchase merchandise for the store on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets.

Remaining for about four months, Mr. Jacoby will visit manufacturing and distributing centers in France, Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Germany and Italy. Merchandise purchased in these countries heretofore by Jacoby, during his several trips, has attracted much attention and his purchases during the coming trip will, it is said, be even more extensive than ever before.

George Hjelte Eulogized at Farewell Party

A farewell party was given last evening at Echo Playground community house by the Playground and Recreation Commission and department heads to George Hjelte, retiring superintendent, who leaves tomorrow night for Westchester, N. Y., there to take up the duties of a similar position.

Department employees presented him with a fine oil painting of a portion of the California Sierras. The commissioners presented him with a handsomely embossed scroll commending his playground development work in Los Angeles during his incumbency. Presentations were made by President Robert S. Weaver.

George Braden, western representative of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, eulogized Hjelte, and took occasion to present association medals for department heads for length of service.

These included Secretary Charles L. Lamb, twenty years; Supervisor of Sports D. W. Lott; Supervisor of Camps Alma Wilson; Playground Directors A. A. Dietz and Margaret Shull, fifteen years, and Playground Directors John Thompson and Nora E. Biller, ten years.

The newly organized playground and recreation department Symphony Orchestra, under direction of Glenn M. Tindall, furnished a program of music.

Raymond E. Hoyt, supervisor of construction and maintenance, who was chosen by the commission to fill the position of superintendent, will enter on his new duties today.

LA BREA STORE OPEN

The Swanfeldt Awning Company, one of the oldest concerns in Los Angeles, announces the opening tomorrow of a new shop at 413 South La Brea avenue. The store at 224 South Main street is discontinued and new downtown headquarters will be at 501 Figueroa street. Branch stores have been opened recently in Pasadena, Long Beach and San Diego.

Your physician will say

"Yes, give them Bottled Sunshine"

Your physician will tell you of a simple but very effective way to help children keep up to par in weight, vitality and endurance during the years of most rapid growth.

Child specialists find that Bottled Sunshine—good cod-liver oil—given daily, builds up depleted vitality and increases general resistance to infections. It helps the underweight child to put on flesh and grow as he should.

The factors that make cod-liver oil such a valued health-builder are Vitamins A and D. Vitamin A promotes normal growth and nutrition, and increases resistance to infections. Vitamin D is the "sunshine vitamin" which growing children particularly need, since modern ways of living give them so little sunshine.

In prescribing cod-liver oil, thousands of physicians specify Squibb's. They advise it because it is tested and guaranteed to be very rich in the vitamins that protect, Vitamins A and D.

Ask your physician about Squibb's Cod-Liver Oil as a health-builder for your child. You can now get Squibb's Mint-flavored Cod-Liver Oil which appeals to older children especially. All good drug stores have it, as well as Squibb's Plain Cod-Liver Oil.

INSURANCE FUNDS

Eastern money is the lowest rate money obtainable, as the East is where the large concentration of wealth occurs. These funds must be invested in good securities such as real estate loans. That is our business.

Yes, we charge a commission. All mortgage companies do the same. The borrower can take his pencil and figure where he is ahead with our loan when he considers the rate he is paying for his money. Loans $5000 or more, 7%; no commission.

A property with a low rate loan is much more attractive to a buyer.

Telephone us the address of your property. A preliminary inspection will be made free of charge.

Conservative construction loans considered.
